Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Old Grand Jury Is Called.
Circuit Judge G. W. Phelps this afternoon issued a call for the old grand jury to convene at the court house on March 26 to prepare for the regular April term of court.

Arrested for Fighting.
Fred Shoemaker and George Mansfield were arrested last night after a lively altercation and will be tried in police court this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Section Foreman Sick.
George W. Jones, section foreman for the O-W. R. & N. at Thorn Hollow, has been taking an enforced vacation by reason of an illness but he hopes to be able to resume his work on Monday.

Three Drunks Arrested.
Tom George, George Dick and Narcisse McKay, were arrested last night for being drunk and the two former were sent to jail this morning for three days. The well known Indian buckaroo escaped incarceration by paying a fine of five dollars.

County Rock Crusher Arrives.
The new county rock crusher recently ordered by the county court has arrived and is now in the local railroad yards ready to be unloaded. This means that the improvement of the Wild Horse road will soon be undertaken by Engineer C. H. Martin.

Athens Ball Boys Give Benefit.
Walter Rose, local cashier of the O-W. R. & N. company, returned this morning from Athens where last night he took part in a drama given under the auspices of the baseball boys of that town and under the direction of his wife. He reports a large attendance and a great success for the affair.

Councilman's Child to Hospital.
The five year old child of Councilman and Mrs. John Dyer was taken to St. Anthony's hospital last evening in a precarious condition. The little one has been suffering from pneumonia and the physicians have determined that an operation is necessary to save its life.

To Attend Pilot Rock Banquet.
James P. Neal, well known Freewater attorney, accompanied Mayor Casteel to Pilot Rock this morning in order to be present at the Commercial club banquet which opens the new hotel in that town tonight. Secretary J. E. Keefe, Jr. of the local Commercial association, will leave this afternoon to be in attendance also, and both young men are scheduled to be among the speakers of the occasion.

Epworth League Growing.
A large and enthusiastic crowd of young people gathered in the parlors of the Methodist Episcopal church Tuesday evening, the event being the monthly business meeting of the Epworth League. The average attendance at devotional meetings for the past month was shown to be 166. Eleven new members were received and addresses were made by Mrs. Terpening and others. After a social hour and refreshments, the audience adjourned with a song service.

Umatilla Fireman Is Hurt.
While shaking down the grates on his engine Tuesday night, Morgan Jones, a fireman running on a freight between here and Umatilla slipped and fell from the locomotive, which was moving at a good rate of speed at the time. Fortunately he alighted in the and escaped with minor injuries. Jones was brought to this city about 3:30 yesterday morning and was able to be on the streets today. The accident occurred while the freight was running between Wallula and Umatilla—Walla Walla Union.

Asylum Floor Laid.
Olson & Johnson, the asylum contractors, yesterday afternoon completed the laying of the entire lower floor of the administration building and the two wards, and some idea of the proportion of the buildings will be gained when it is said that 5000 barrels of cement were used in this one floor. Today workmen commenced pouring the concrete for the foundation of the laundry building.

Another Juvenile Case.
Judge Maloney is holding juvenile court again this afternoon to decide what is to be done with the five children of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wood of 506 Calvin street, ranging in ages from ten down, who it is said, have been living in squalor at home. An elder child has already been sent to the aid society in Portland and the present investigation was undertaken at the behest of J. G. Kilpack, special officer of that society.

Baseball Meeting Tonight.
Tonight in the Commercial club rooms the fate of the proposed baseball team for Pendleton will be sealed. If the attendance and enthusiasm of fans is sufficient to warrant a continuance of the hopes and plans fostered by a loyal few, the city will send a delegate to the meeting to be held in Athens Saturday, at which the reorganization of the Blue Mountain league will be perfected. If the same indifference and lethargy which has marked the fans for the past month maintains, then will all efforts to launch a local team evaporate and Pendleton must go through the spring and summer without the feverish joys which the great national pastime produces.

Warner Will Be Filed Soon.
Attorney Homer I. Watts of Athens, who is in the city today, declares Fred Young, a brother of Mabel Warner, will file the "seventh will" for probate within the next ten days, in all probability. He further states that he is not Young's chief attorney in the matter, having declined to act in that capacity.
