HAIR CUT JOKE; BURNS HOUSE.

Boy Confesses Six Attempts to "Get Even" With Sisters.

Goshner, Neb.—Wili Whitaker, 15 years old, son of a Dunkard minister, confessed to Deputy State Fire Commissioner Ironton that he has set fire to the home of his parents six times. He said that the act was prompted by desire to hide thefts amounting to $35 from his parents and to "get even" with his sisters, who laughed at the style of his hair cut. The boy pleaded guilty before the county judge of Seward county, and was sentenced to six months in jail and then was paroled. In each case the boy was active in putting out the fires.

AMERICANS STEAL CRESTS?

Newspaper Declares "Newly Rich" Critic English Coats of Arms.

London.—The "Morning Standard" publishes the following entitled "How Americans Select Their Ancestors."

"The newly rich of the United States have now adopted crests and armorial bearings as a way of distinguishing themselves from the unlucky ones who have not succeeded in pillaging up a fortune. The crests are on their note paper, the panels of their motor cars or dangling on watch chains, which is the last word in chic.

"There is a large field open, but the crests of old English families are not selected overseas for history so much as for bright colors or pretty designs. Should a duke be selected as an ancestor and prove to have a coat of arms which does not appeal to the tastes of his self-elected descendants, it is put aside for a mere 'marquis' whose crest presents more attractive features."

Nineteen Miles a Second

without a jar, shock or disturbance, is the awful speed of our earth through space. We wonder at such ease of nature's movement, and so do those who take Dr. King's New Life Pills. No gripping, no distress, just thorough work that brings good health and fine feelings. 25¢ Koepfens.

His Broken Bones Are Wired.

Trenton.—Silver wires have been placed through the bones of the legs of John V. Hall, which were broken last week when a heavy beam fell on him. Surgeons in the McKinley hospital placed the wires to assist the bones to knit. To insert the wires it was necessary to drill holes in the bones.

A pain in the side or back that catches you when you straighten up calls for a rubbing application of BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT. It relaxes the contracted muscles and permits ordinary bodily motion without suffering or inconvenience. Price 25¢, 50¢ and $1. per bottle. Sold by A. C. Koepfen & Bros.

WORK ORDER EMPTIES JAIL.

Hoosier Bastle Without Prisoners for First Time in Thirty Years.

Lafayette, Ind.—The Tippacanoe county jail did not hold a single prisoner, the first time in thirty years. Heretofore the jail has held from ten to twenty habitual offenders during the winter, but this year the city chain gang was organized and the old-timers, who used to go to jail regularly in cold weather, to get free board without work, have no liking for the work without pay. They all have jobs now and are not allowing themselves to fall into the hands of the police.

AT THE PICTURE SHOWS WITH THE CANDIDATES

Orpheum.

An extra good program for Tuesday's change. Four full reels of good pictures. 1. "For the Cause of the South." Edison. This picture brings home the horror and patriotism which abound in that lost cause. The Blue and Gray are bound close together in this story.

2. "A False Suspicion." Essanay. A spendthrift wife is told by her husband that he will no longer be responsible for her debts. She is besieged by creditors and borrows money from a gentleman friend.

3. "Unmerited Shame." Pathé. A fisherman's daughter is loved by sailors, one of whom is not to her liking. He plans to injure her in the community.

4. "A Boarding House Romance." Lubin. A couple of sweethearts are boarding in the same house. They have a little tiff. The landlady advises him to make Bessie jealous. The star order makes a similar suggestion to Bessie.

5. "Making Hay." Lubin. This industrial picture is very pretty and interesting.

6. "A Compromise." Lubin. Mrs. Wallace makes a mistake in hiring pretty girls to help, for she discovers her husband kissing the servants. She fires the girls and engages men. She in turn practices flirtation.

The Pastime.

The home of good pictures. Attractive program for Friday's change. No. 1. "A Girl of the West." Vitagraph. In a hand to hand battle on horseback she foils the villain. After miles and miles of exciting chase and daring horsemanship his confederates are captured. We wish there were more girls like this one. She is able to take care of herself and defend her honor when attacked. With it all she is most attractive and it is no wonder she wins a man who appreciates her true worth.

No. 2. "His Mother." Kalem feature. The story of a mother's sacrifice for her son. A delightfully human Irish production made in Ireland and America. A mother in Ireland gives her life savings to enable her son to come to America where a kind banker hears him play the violin and appreciates his talent, assists him to start a musical career. Not long after he is the rage of the season. The mother in despair, when no news comes of her boy, decides to look him up in America. The mother's experience is interesting. Miss Gene Gauntler plays the banker's daughter; Mr. Hollister, the genius; but the old woman seems made for her part.

No. 3. "The Maniac." Lubin. A love comedy with something doing every second. Exceptionally fine acting by Lubin's leading players.

No. 4—"A Windy Dream." C. G. P. C. Don't miss seeing what happens to Billy after playing with a pin wheel all day.

No. 5. "Life in Our Ponds." C. G. P. C. Interesting educational subject.

Musical program:
 No. 1—Where the River Shannon Flows. Two-step.
 No. 2—Angel Eyes. Two-step.
 No. 3—Good-bye, Girlie, and Remember Me. Two-step.
 No. 4—Be Jolly Molly. Two-step.
 No. 5—I'll be Your Honey When Its Moonlight. Two-step.

Cosy.

"As it was in the Beginning." (Full reel.) Thanhouse. Whether or not you believe in re-incarnation you will get some new light on this interesting problem, and incidentally you will step back some thousands of years from 1912 to prehistoric days as the girl in this story did, while you're looking at this strange and mystifying picture. It will make you think, wonder and question yourself and will awaken a train of new and baffling thoughts.
 "Cinderella." (Full reel.) Thanhouse. Everyone knows the delightful story of Cinderella, so dear to childhood days and in picture form it is a joy forever. The fairy godmother, the magic coach, the grand ball, the lost slipper, the prince and the happy ending combine to make a story of indescribable charm. This
