

The Hub Policy of 1911 Made Good

For 1912 our line has been strengthened, every department has been enlarged and added to, making The Hub today Pendleton's greatest store for bargains. Our patrons all say that we sell for 33 1-3 per cent less on everything and in many instances for even 50 per cent less than other stores. This is an easy statement for any merchant to make, but we are merely quoting what the public says.

CLOTHING

Our buyer on his last trip east bought a large line of men's suits for spring at about 50c on the dollar.

Because we are offering you clothing at a low price, it does not mean that you are buying a cheap, shoddy suit merely basted together.

Selling for cash at all times we are thus able to buy for cash.

Our buyer who buys for our seven large stores, is at all times watching for snags. As money has not been very plentiful in the east, he found at this time several clothing manufacturers with more clothing than money and glad to dispose of their merchandise at a small cash price. These are of good material, also well made and at nearly HALF PRICE.

OREGON SITE AT FRISCO IS SELECTED

COMPRISES 3 1-2 ACRE TRACT ON PRESIDIO

Selection Made With Elaborate Ceremonies by Delegation Headed by Governor West and in Presence of 20,000 People.

San Francisco, March 15.—The site of all sites for state buildings on the 1915 exposition grounds in Oregon's. To the accompaniment of a military ceremonial of brilliancy unprecedented in San Francisco, and in the presence of 20,000 towns people, Governor West and the Oregon exposition commission, Julius L. Meier, L. M. Travis and F. N. Robinson, has formally received the ground for Oregon's state building at the world's greatest exposition.

The site is a park of three and one-half acres on the Presidio. It is on an elevation, facing the bay. It overlooks Golden Gate, where the ships of the world, coming and going, must pass in continual review. It is within 100 yards of the Union street-car line, the only streetcar facilities thus far afforded to the grounds.

Oregon's delegation is delighted. Such is the bigness of the San Francisco hospitality, that they felt they could as safely choose the public square or the city building for a site.

Three troops of cavalry and the cavalry band flinging forth stirring martial music led the review. Followed Governor West of Oregon, Lieutenant Governor E. J. Wallace of California, Mayor James Rolph Jr., of San Francisco, and President C. C. Moore of the exposition in the first car. The Oregon exposition commission and Harris D. Connick, director or works, in the second car.

Then came committees on reception and arrangements and the delegation in 150 automobiles.

San Franciscans say the Oregon booster spirit, exemplified by the "Oregon First" excursion is the most intense they have ever seen and that the exposition with more Portland and Oregon in it will be more widely and more loudly advertised. Until the Oregon building is constructed, the Oregon fir brought on the train will mark the site and the plate on it will tell its purpose.

CONFESSION REVEALS PHILOMATH MURDERER

GEORGE HUMPHREY, RANCHER, ADMITS KILLING MRS. GRIFFITH

Tells in Detail How He Strangled Neighbor Widow as She Repulsed His Attempted Assault—Carried Body to Pond.

Hillsboro, Ore., March 15.—Charged with the murder of Mrs. Elizabeth Griffith at her lonely home six miles from Philomath, June 2, 1911, George M. Humphrey, in the county jail here, last night confessed to the crime and gave assault as the motive. At the same time he confessed to taking money from the purse of the dead woman.

Humphrey told a clear story of his going to the Griffith home of entering and meeting Mrs. Griffith, a comely woman of about 58 years, of attempting to assault her, of her resistance with a butcher knife, of his efforts to quiet her screams by tying a handkerchief about her neck, of tying her hands with a bit of rope he took from the shed at the end of the house, and of discovering that the woman was dead.

Terror-stricken, he gathered the body in his arms and carried it to a pond about a quarter of a mile distant, where he dropped it into the water and fled to his home, nearly a mile distant.

Story of Long Manhunt.

The capture of Humphrey marks the close of a most interesting manhunt. Mrs. Griffith lived alone on a farm in Benton county, and among her neighbors were George M. Humphrey, his brother, Charlie, and the men's mother, Mrs. King, an aged woman in frail health. The three lived in seclusion on a tract of land partly cleared. The neighborhood was heavily timbered at one time and only small tracts have been cleared at any of the places. Mrs. Griffith knew Mrs. King and a short time before the tragedy had her stay at the Griffith home a week as company.

Repels Attack of Death.

"Five years ago two doctors told me I had only two years to live." This startling statement was made by Stillman Green, Malachite, Col. "They told me I would die of consumption. It was up to me to try the best lung medicine and I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery. It was well I did, for today I am working and believe I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure that has cheated the grave of another victim." It is folly to suffer with coughs, colds or other throat troubles now. Take the cure that's safest. Price 25 cents and $1. Trial bottle free at Koeppen's.

Work Horses for Sale.
