

Spring Showing of Stein-Bloch Clothes

YOU may be a lawyer or a doctor or a bank clerk or a man of business, you wear clothes, and worry about your looks.

Therefore Think This Over

We make clothes for you to wear, and we make them just a little better than we really have to. We make them to FIT and be STYLISH and to save time and vexation. But we are anxious to have you get them and get them right. Our choice of an agent must be a wise one.

That is why we choose R. Alexander to represent us solely in Pendleton.

Do you know any man whose word you would take any quicker than his.

AT THE OREGON THEATRE

Melodious in score, bright in color, rich in fabric and graceful in movement, "Miss Nobody from Starland," with clever Olive Vail and a large company of well known principals, backed by a vigorous chorus of pretty girls, will be the big Mort H. Singer offering at the Oregon theatre on Sunday night, March 24. Adams, Hough and Mitchell divide the honors of book lyrics, and Joseph E. Howard furnished the many jingly musical hits with which the famous musical comedy abounds. "Miss Nobody from Starland" inculcates with the germ of laughter throughout its four spectacular scenes. The story centers around a

SAGE TEA WILL DARKEN THE HAIR

There is nothing new about the idea of using sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our great-grandmothers kept their locks soft, dark and glossy by using a "sage tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance they made a brew of sage leaves and applied it to their hair, with wonderfully beneficial effect.

Nowadays we don't have to resort to old-time, tiresome methods of gathering the herbs and making the tea. This is done by skilled chemists better than we could do it ourselves and all we have to do is call for the ready-made product. Wyeth's sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, containing sage in the proper strength, with the addition of sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy.

The manufacturers of this remedy authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

Don't neglect your hair. Get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur today and notice the difference after a few days' use.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle and is recommended and sold by special agent, Pendleton Drg. Co.

fascinating chorus girl, who is aided in her diamond smuggling enterprise by a host of suitors on board the liner Lusitania. Novelty is the keynote of the story from the first to the last, and one of the earlier surprises is the disembarkation of the passengers at the finale of the opening scene—the entire company is precipitated upon the audience by means of a gangplank leading from the deck of the liner to the center aisle. Another innovation is the great dress rehearsal scene, which gives the audience a glimpse behind the scenes and shows a musical production in the process of preparation. This is one of the most interesting, as well as laughable, scenes ever shown upon a stage. Among the many song hits are, "Ah, Mari, Mari, Tarantelle," "I'd Rather Love What I Cannot Have," "Than Have What I Cannot Love," "I'll Be Your Honey When It's Moonlight," "Kiss Me," and "The Dear Little Ghost of Your Smile." Mort H. Singer has given "Miss Nobody from Starland" one of the most lavish scenic and costume productions ever seen on tour. In fact, the identical production which was seen in Chicago and all the other large cities during its phenomenal tour.

An exceptional good program for Tuesday's change. Four full reels of the best pictures.
1. "The Picture Writer." Vitagraph. Chlabas, a young Indian picture writer of great skill, is in love with Honitas. When the chief Alkali Ike is a coward, Alkali Ike ter he banishes him from the tribal domains. Honitas is suddenly stricken and Chlabas risks his life to restore Honitas. He contracts the disease and dies, mourned as the bravest of the brave.
2. "Brutus." Kosmik. Believing Caesar is becoming too powerful in the state, Brutus and others conspire to take his life. Mark Anthony, a friend of Caesar, swears to avenge Caesar's death and Brutus is forced to flee from Rome. At the point of being overtaken he hurls himself upon the sword of a friend.
3. "Alkali Ike's Love Affair." Essanay. Alkali Ike is in love with a ranchman's daughter, but the father does not favor the match for he thinks Alkali Ike is a coward. Alkali Ike plans to show the father that he is no coward. Just how he does it it would be unfair to tell you.

4. "Life in the United States Army." Edison. With the cooperation of the war department the Edison company have been able to obtain a series of interesting pictures, showing the life of an army recruit from his enlistment until he reaches the standard of perfection demanded by the army authorities.

The Pastime.

The home of good pictures, Tuesday's change of program includes a Biograph feature and a Vitagraph feature.

"A Blot on the Escutcheon." Biograph. An excellent picture of Erving's very interesting poem, in which he presents in his imitable manner the result of vanity. This well known story is very famous and the Biograph producer has made a scolarly production in it.

"The First Violin." Vitagraph. Deep and emotional in dramatic value; soulful in response and sympathetic heart interest. The first violin is played by Van Dyke Brooke. Coming from the theatre one evening he finds a little waif (Helen Costella) whom he takes home and cares for. The little player was never sweeter than in this picture. She is shown playing actress, later on she becomes a great actress and saves her benefactor from a life of poverty.

"Mother and Daughter's." Edison. A comedy with a moral. Mother is the slave and the two pretty daughters think only of enjoyment. Their mother is taken ill and on account of their cooking they almost lose their best young men. They become different girls after this.

"Strike at the Little Johnny Mine." Essanay. A melodrama with all the features that combine to thrill an audience and win applause—here, heroine the innocent persecuted, wrongs righted, properly spiced with thrilling scenes and situations.

Cosy.
Monday and Tuesday, 40 full grown African lions in the hand-colored masterpiece.

"The Christian Martyrs." Gaumont. This story takes its theme from the cruel days when Nero threw Christians to the lions in the arena. We see the Christians gathering word, and fleeing terrified before the lions. One, more courageous than his fellows determines to tame the beasts. We see him feed them and finally he was able to pet and embrace them and make them his friends. The Christians were taken by the soldiers to Rome and we see them praying in the dungeon near the arena, with the lions roaring behind the bars of their cages; finally we see one Christian thrust into the arena and a lion turned loose upon him; the lion made straight for the man but, instead of eating him, caressed him, for it was one of the lions the man had tamed. The empress and the spectators, thinking it was a miracle, let the Christians go. This is a great human drama, highly educational, extremely interesting and with a happy ending in spite of the dread theme of human sacrifice on which it is built.

"A Traitor on the Staff." Champion. War drama of '61.
"Uncle's Visit." Imp. A hobo was mistaken for uncle. Lots of laughs.
"Desperate Desmond Falls." Nestor. Trick comedy which is very amusing.

POLICEMAN PILOTS BEAR ACROSS FROZEN LAKE

Captain of Steamship Alabama Orders Animal Off Boat Because Horses Aboard Are Nervous—Owner and Pet Walk Ashore.
Chicago.—Ill.—A story spluttered over the long distance telephone to the Rogers Park station told of the harrowing experiences of a brother officer and his pet bear, forced from the steamer on which passage had been paid for both and made to walk more than twenty miles over the frozen surface of Lake Michigan to the nearest shore line.

The policeman is George Smith, who conducts for his own amusement an "animal farm" near Grand Haven, Mich. Smith recently came into possession of a trained bear, and a week ago he secured leave of absence in order to take the bear to his farm. He took passage on the steamship Alabama.

"All went well until we had gotten about twenty miles from the Michigan shore," Smith's angry voice said over the wire. "There were some horses aboard the ship and they didn't take kindly to Fanny—the bear—being on the same ship. They had been getting more nervous all the time and finally the captain came to me and told me that I'd have to turn the bear loose."

Smith refused to follow these instructions, declaring that the steamship company had accepted his money for the bear's passage. The lake was frozen over for more than twenty miles, and the Alabama succeeded with difficulty in breaking her way through.

"At last the horses became so thoroughly frightened at the bear's presence that the captain told me if I didn't throw the animal overboard he would do it for me," Smith said, "and that's how I came to get off the ship and walk the more than twenty miles to the shore."

CHRISTIAN WOMAN ASKS NO PREACHER AT FUNERAL

Freswater, Ore., March 15.—Mrs. R. F. Tingey, a resident near the state line, died Saturday at the hospital in Walla Walla and was buried Wednesday afternoon. Before her death she requested that no minister should be at the funeral, so the only religious ceremony at the grave side was a prayer by one of the pallbearers and a hymn sung by those present.

ent. Mr. Tingey stated that his wife read her Bible every day and was a Christian, but did not believe in church denominations or in ministers.

NO INDIGESTION, GAS OR HEARTBURN IN 5 MINUTES

A Little Diapepsin Now Will Make Your Out of Order Stomach Feel Fine—Digests All Your Food, Leaving Nothing to Ferment and Sour.

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from indigestion, dyspepsia or out of order stomach is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking some Diapepsin.

If your stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs, but a re-enforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach.

People with weak stomachs should take a little Diapepsin occasionally, and there will be no more indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, sour risings, gas on stomach or belching of undigested food, headaches, dizziness or sick stomach, and, besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms resulting from a sour out of order stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved in five minutes after taking a little Diapepsin.

Go to your druggist and get a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin now, and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. They freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.
