orces, came out in favor of the nomination of Governor Wilson, expressing the opinion that the New Jersey ex-ecutive is the most formidable candidate the democrats can nominate for the presidency. Senator Smith said: "I have heard Governor Wilson peak on three occasions. He impressed me as being a profound student of the philosophy of government. His every utterance indicated that he as a clear comprehension of the fact that so-called 'practical polities' but another name for corrupt and corrupting tendencies that must soonr or later undermine the very foundations of our republican form of government by increasing the army of malcontents as well as the unjustly protected number of those specially favored "I believe that Governor Wilson is the most available candidate that the most avilable candidate that the democrats have in the field for the presidency. His work as governor of New Jersey, in bringing into the fold of democracy a state otherwise hopelessly republican; his e imination of 'boss rule, corruption in that state, illustrates his ability to put into practice as national executive the theory that he advocates."

THREE COURTS DECLARE A LIVE WOMAN IS DEAD

Former Bostonian Objects to Decision of Highest Tribuntal and Wants a Boston, Mass.-Like a specter risen from the grave, Miss Mabel E. Allen, a cultured, refined looking woman, has been missing from the world for twenty years and who has been declared to be legally dead by three courts, has reappeared in Boston and instituted proceedings to prove that she is alive and therefore entitled to a legacy which the courts have order-The United States supreme court.

the full bench of the Massachusetts supreme judicial court and the Suffo k county probate court have all ruled, after long hearings and deliberate thought, that Miss Allen is legally dead. Miss Allen now has brought action in the Suffolk County Probate court to recover a legacy of $1665 to which she says, she is entitled as her share of the estate of Jonathan Merry, fa-mous in the colonial data of Boston is a merchant prince and shipper. Miss Allen's suit to prove her existence is directed against five cousins and several other residents in various parts of the country. Potato Pancakes

(Recipe by Mrs. Helen Armstrong)

Here is something in pancakes a little different from the ordinary:
One quart of raw potato, either grated or run through a food chopper, add foureggs singly, beating each one in thoroughly. Add sait and pepper and a little flour, only enough to bind the mixture; the amount will vary owing to difference in potatoes. Fry by the spoonful in drippings or Cottolene and serve promptly. Pancakes, doughnuts, fritters, etc.

fried in Cottolene come out light, crisp, and free from grease. You will find it more satisfactory than lard-more economical, too-and, remember, there is no indigestion in Cottolene. SYNOPSIS OF THE ANNUAL STATEMENT OF THE
