

Opening of the Spring Clothes Season

You young men who like stylish, smart clothes; you older men who like the same thing; you men who want style and smartness along conservative lines; all men, of all tastes in dress; here's notice to you all that we are ready to show you the new models in suits and overcoats for Spring and Summer wearing.

Hart Schaffner & Marx

have made for us the best lot of good clothes ever brought together in this town; new colorings—grays, blues, purple blues, tans, olives, browns. New patterns in tweeds, chevots, homespuns, worsteds, serges, silk mixtures; imported fabrics of many choice textures. The new models for young men include one, two and three-button styles; with medium and long roll lapels; the modified English sack with snug shoulders; the high-cut five and six-button waistcoats; and of course the well-known and always popular variety; the Shapemaker, and others.

It's a great lot of fine merchandise; and we're glad to be able to serve you with such goods. We can take good care of any man in these suits from $18 up; and in overcoats from $16.50 up.

You'll get here also a fine lot of shirts; you'll need some this Spring. New neckwear also; new shapes and styles in soft and stiff hats. The "new" idea prevails. Come and look it over.

AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum.
An extra good program for Sunday's change. Four full reels of the best American pictures.
1. "A Problem in Reduction." Vitagraph. The ridiculous efforts of a woman who, thinking that she was becoming too fleshy, tried a course of treatment to reduce her weight.
2. "The Heart of a Boss." Lulin. A wonderfully pretty story of a newsboy, his rise and fall. He rises again to position and happiness. The newsboy meets with an accident and is succored by a bank president and his little girl. The newsboy later becomes a political "boss" and has an opportunity to get the bank president out of serious trouble.
3. "A Diplomat Interrupted." Colonel Scott does not approve of either Lieutenant Wilbur or Jim Virden, who spend most of their time with his daughters, Genie and Jessie. The quartet resolves to win favor with the colonel, who faces ruin through his gambling losses to Count Orloff, an adventurer. The count tells him he will return the money if he will supply him with certain fortifications. Forced to it, the colonel agrees. Jim overhears the bargain and steals the plans himself. The count then proposes that the colonel give him Genie. She is about to sacrifice herself when

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, announced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, Ohio.
Sold by Druggists, 75c.

4. "In Frontier Days." Pathe. A wild story of life on the plains in the days when the early settlers were going over the land in caravans.
5. "The Island of St. Kilda, Scotland." Pathe.
Musical program:
1—Berliner Luft. Berlin Echo. Paul Lincke.
2—Badertzy. John Strauss, Sr.
3—Trinken Nir nock ein Tropfchen. Wilh. Hirsch.
4—Rattenfänger. (The Rat Catcher.) A. Neuedorff.
5—O du mein holder Asbeendern. (Evening Star from Tannhauser.) R. Wagner.
The Pastime.
The home of good pictures. Sunday's change of program.
"The Office Favorite." Lulin. A very pretty story and also a very dramatic one, such as will appeal to romantic young people. Two crooks decide to rob an office and the woman secures employment there. She manages to ingratiate herself so completely in the boss's favor that the regular office girl is about to lose her position. The boss, an unmarried man, writes two letters, one to the office girl discharging her, and the other to the new girl doubling her salary as a valentine. Well the letters get mixed and the way things turn out is interesting.
"The Scapgoat." Selig. A sensational drama of the western type, embodying as one of its thrilling incidents the almost seemingly impossible and daring capture of its driver, away horse and rescue of its driver.
"The Swimming Party." Kalem. An unusually fresh comedy. One of the kind that will make you laugh.
"Floral Parade at San Diego, California." This is one of the most beautiful films it has even been our pleasure to present.
"Jimmie in Love." Kosmik. Jimmie proves himself full of resources in every phase of his flirtation.
"The Ostrich Plume Industry, France." Interesting.
Musical program:

No. 1. Alexander's Rag Time Band. Rag.
No. 2. Melody. Rag.
No. 3. Fair Thee Lizzie Lee. Rag.
No. 4. Hallow'en Jack O'Lantern Rag.
No. 5. Angle Worm Wiggle. Rag.
Cosy.
Friday and Saturday, see the big black bear in the feature comedy.
"Bill Pays His Debts." Lux. Bill found a big bear and took him to his rooms to chase away creditors. One great, big laughmaker.
"Love and Charity." Reliance. Delightful story of Christmas. A poor father, having entered a house to steal presents for his children is discovered, but after telling his story, happiness comes to all.
"The Flag of Distress." The amusing way in which a husband escaped from his wife by means of a distress signal.
"An Indian Maid's Elopement." Elson. Stirring story of the west, abounding in lively situations and exciting events, pictured amid beautiful scenery.
"Henpecked Bertie Goes Fishing." Lux. Watchful wifely was fooled by Bertie and his friend by means of a dummy. Very laughable.
"I wish I had a Girl." Imp. Amusing experience of a hopeless man who wanted a girl.
At the Grand.
Opening tonight:
1. The famous Dancing Richards, in their Texas Tommy dances.
2. The Pendleton Bootblack Quartette.
Photo plays:
Three reels of the best subjects obtainable.
The famous Texas Tommy Dancers are opening tonight at the Grand for a four days' stay. This is one of the best dancing acts on the circuit and sure to please. They just filled a 3 weeks' engagement in Portland.
The Bootblack Quartette is also engaged for a short time. They have proven their ability before to the Pendleton public.
In short this is a very good bill and nobody should miss seeing them.

FURNISS COMES ON A VISIT.
Cartoonist Will Appear in Moving Picture Plays Written for Edison.
New York.—Harry Furniss, London's famous cartoonist, writer and playwright, arrived on his first visit here in ten years. His daughter Dorothy is with him.
Mr. Furniss for four years has been illustrating special editions of Dickens and Thackeray, and for a change has come over here to present to Thomas A. Edison a series of moving pictures, with the accompanying playlets written by himself and incorporating his own bulging person as a prominent figure in motion.
"What am I here for?" inquired the visitor. "What's the use of staying in England? There's no coal there now."
Mr. Furniss drew some sketches on the steamer. "I distributed them among those people I don't like," said the earnest, brown-whiskered, short and corpulent Britisher.
POPE IS TAXED IN U. S.
Pius X Is Assessed on Inheritance Left Him in Wisconsin.
Milwaukee, Wis.—Pope Pius X will have to pay $20 inheritance tax under the laws of Wisconsin on a $500 bequest left him by Johanna Brand, Milwaukee, who died January 27, 1911, according to a ruling made here.

PLUCKY AUSTRIAN WINS SUCCESS AND A BRIDE
Builds Up Good Business in America and Father-in-law Is Satisfied.
Atlantic City, N. J.—The marriage here of Miss Louisa Bauer, 22 years old, to Angelberg Heilig culminated a romance in which the proposal was made and accepted by cable and the bride journeyed across the ocean to become a wife.

The pair were school chums together in Vienna, where Miss Bauer's father is a prominent banker. Young Heilig found his advancement was not fast enough in Austria and the girl's father would not let him propose until he could give a home as good as her own.
The young Austrian came to America six years ago. He opened the first delicatessen shop along the Boardwalk.
A month ago he cabled to Miss Bauer and friends of the father vouching for Peter Bauer's prospective son-in-law's wealth in the same way. She accepted and immediately left Vienna, arriving here after visiting friends en route in time to marry on the day set for the ceremony.
Do you know that of all the minor ailments colds are by far the most dangerous? It is not the cold itself that you need fear, but the serious diseases that it often leads to. Most of them are known as germ diseases. Pneumonia and consumption are among them. Why not take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and cure your cold while you can. For sale by all dealers.
BURNED HER BABY IN STOVE.
Halifax Police Say Woman Has Confessed Crime.
Halifax, N. S.—Mrs. Alice McCarron put her 5-weeks-old baby in the stove and burned it to death, according to a confession which the police say she made when they arrested her on suspicion that she could account for the disappearance of her child, which had been missing for nine days. Small bones found in an ash barrel in the house led to the arrest of the woman, who claimed the child had been kidnapped. The police believe she is mentally deranged.
