SIGNS OF SPRING.

- The golden dandelions soon will glow upon the hills. And the lambskins soon will gambol on the slopes; The branches soon will blossom where the feathered songster trills. A paean that is rich with April hopes. The crowd will soon be shouting when the home team scores a run. The golfer will be nervous on the green; The city man will stumble through the stubbles with his gun. Where no solitary quail was ever seen. The plaintive hurdy-gurdy and "da monk" have come again. To lure the shouting children down the street. And presently the people who are fleshy will complain. That the worst of all our ills is summer heat. —Chicago Record-Herald.

THE BRANCH HOSPITAL.

With appropriate ceremony today the corner stone of the Eastern Oregon State Hospital was laid and the program marks an important step in the construction of an institution that is being established under very fortunate circumstances.

To begin with the branch hospital is well located. It is located in a section noted for its moderate temperature and clear skies. Umatilla county is the Land of Sunshine and sunshine means good cheer. There is no other city in the west that has as much sunshine when sunshine is wanted as has Pendleton. There are no great extremes of heat or cold and no serious storm ever arises to endanger the lives or property of the people. We have the nearest that is to be had in the way of a model climate.

The Eastern Oregon hospital will also be well located geographically. It is located adjoining the hub city of eastern Oregon. Pendleton is closer to the bulk of the eastern Oregon territory than is any other town of any size in eastern Oregon. This means convenience and economy for the state and for parties who come to the institution to see patients. There are 22 passenger trains arriving or departing from this city each day—more trains than enter or depart from any city in the state aside from Portland. It is a good feature.

Then the branch hospital is being well built. It will not be a patch work affair as are so many institutions of its character. It was designed by men who know something about the needs of such an institution and who have striven earnestly to establish a model hospital in every respect. They are doing this and yet doing it at the lowest possible expense consistent with good work.

The state of Oregon will get value received out of the money spent on the institution of which the corner stone was placed this afternoon.

PROTECTION NEEDED.

Efforts being made by Governor West, Secretary Olcott and Portland organizations towards establishing

Quality in Cooking Fats

In cooking fats Cottoleone is superior in quality to all others. Its source is clean and wholesome, it is made in clean surroundings, and is packed in airtight pails of special design that keep the contents indefinitely sweet and fresh—free from dust and odors. Cottoleone is richer and will go one-third farther than lard or other cooking fats made to resemble Cottoleone.

In everything else quality usually regulates the price. If your grocer should ask you a trifle more for Cottoleone, it is because it is worth more. Besides, Cottoleone is guaranteed "satisfactory or your money back."

"blue sky" regulations in Oregon should meet with good approval in Umatilla county.

For some reason—probably because so many people in this county have money—Old Umatilla seems to have been particularly blessed with salesmen for questionable enterprises. As yet no one has actually attempted to sell lots in the heavenly blue but there have been numerous gentlemen willing to sell various and assorted property supposed to have existence below the surface of the earth or in the air. A bad feature about their operations is that they do not always confine their work to men who have money to spare. Often they get money from wage earners who need all their coin in the support of their families.

There are laws against gambling. There should also be laws against get rich quick schemes wherein the victims have no possible show of winning.

IT IS NOT A CITY SHOW.

Reports from the Los Angeles wild west show seem to bear out the predictions made some time ago to the effect it would not be a tremendous success. By the very nature of things it is impossible to reproduce the Round-up in a large city. It is not a city show. The Round-up makes an attractive entertainment because the local color is right, because the horses and performers come in direct from the range and because the show is a community affair—not a private money making enterprise.

In the view of this paper parties desiring to produce a frontier show in the southwest should have gone to El Paso, San Antonio, Tucson or some other small southwest city located in the heart of a cattle country. Neither bronchoes or broncho riders can perform with naturalness when surrounded by street cars.

NOT ENTIRELY NEW.

A magazine writer has called attention to the fact the recall of judges is not such a new thing as people suppose. In reality the recall has been in operation for a long time, so he argues. The power has rested with political machines and the men who manipulate them. Such men have often in the past used the hook to remove a judge who had shown himself too independent or too liberal in his views on questions wherein the rights of special interests were at stake.

There is something, to the suggestion. Judges have long felt fear of political managers because they have had the dealing out of nominations. Why not offset that by giving them some reason for fearing the displeasure of the people if they go too far astray.

The Carnegie Foundation men find much to criticize in connection with the universities and colleges of the land. But if they can find any more fault than there is fault with the Carnegie Foundation they will have to go far. The Carnegie Foundation, by its very existence, is a piece of unwarranted impertinence. The states and the nation maintain the colleges and universities of the land. It is not necessary for Andy to dabble in their management.

It is evident that neither Judge Ellis or Jerry Rusk are drawing enormous crowds single handed. They should hold a joint debate to stir up excitement.

The new Mexican revolution is proving almost as interesting as the Roosevelt-Taft scrap.

The baseball bug is buzzing pretty loudly.

The corner stone was slow in coming but sure.

Yes, there is need of that hard surface driveway.

GIRL HAS LONGEST NAME.

The identity of the possessor of probably the longest name in Chicago came to light in Judge William E. Dever's court today.

She is a girl 15 years old and her name is Harbertunninnibertunna Pillow. She was a witness.

"What is your name?" asked Judge Dever, when the girl stepped before the bench.

"Harbertunninnibertunna Pillow, sir," said the girl.

"What's that?" queried the court. "Spell that."

"That's a pretty long name, responded the court.

"When your parents or friends address you, do they call you by your first name?"

THE REALM FEMININE

Some New Receipts for Paper Bag Cookery.

Potatoes With Parsley. New potatoes are much nicer if cooked this way than are old potatoes but either may be used. Old potatoes of course should be peeled. Wash and scrape the potatoes, which should be as nearly of a size as possible.

Melt a little butter, brush the inside of each bag with some of it. Dip each potato in melted butter, then dust it with chopped parsley. Wrap each potato in its paper, then put them in a buttered baking-tin and cook in a moderate oven until they are tender; the time required will probably be from three-quarters of an hour to an hour.

Serve the potatoes in a hot vegetable dish. Before being put into the bags the potatoes should be cut around just through the rind.

Packed Tomatoes. Tomatoes are especially good cooked in this way, much nicer than if merely baked without the paper. Cut some rounds of paper large enough to wrap the tomatoes in; small paper bags may be used. Brush the inside of the bags with butter or olive oil.

Wash the tomatoes, take off the stems and wrap each tomato in its paper bag. Lay them in a greased baking tin, and bake in a moderate oven from ten to twenty minutes, or until they are tender without being broken.

Serve in a hot vegetable dish.

Grilled Halibut. Slice the fish, then remove the skin and bone. Season the slices with salt and pepper, wrap them separately and securely in oiled paper, then broil or grill them. Serve the slices with brown sauce.

These fish steaks may be stuffed and rolled if desired.

ART IN PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

Why should the walls of public schools, hospitals, homes and other institutions be bare and cold? Why should not such walls be decorated, relieved of their gloom by appropriate paintings?

Of course, the answer is—expense. In England, however, a committee of artists, art patrons, critics and philanthropists has been formed for the purpose of promoting mural painting in schools, churches, hospitals and other institutions. Young artists and students are to be invited to submit designs and to decorate such wall space as may be offered, for very small pay or without any pay at all, in order to get useful experience. The idea is to submit all designs to intelligent criticism and accept only truly artistic work is expected.

Is not this plan excellent from every point of view? Would it not promote art as well as public appreciation of mural painting?

Why should not American artists and lovers of beauty start a similar movement in this country? The Hall House Theater offers a good example of appropriate mural decoration, and thousands have admired the painting as well as the subjects. Why not follow this example?

A WOMAN'S REASON.

"Would you marry a man who was younger than yourself?"

"I might. A good deal would depend on a certain circumstance."

"What circumstance is that?"

"I should want him to agree to let his whiskers grow and use some kind of hair restorer regularly so that he might become bald as soon as possible."

MAKING A STAR PLAY.

The attorney for the defense arose and addressed the jury.

"Gentlemen," he said, "in all this testimony to which you have listened so patiently there is not one—"

Tells Women How to Have Charming Hair

Rough, coarse hair is unnecessary; so is faded, dull looking hair.

Dandruff and scalp itch are both caused by an accumulation of scurfy filth and can easily be gotten rid of. Dandruff germs cause falling hair and diseases of the hair and scalp, and should be destroyed.

SHE SUFFERED TEN MONTHS

Mrs. Blankenship Tells of Her Restoration to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Elliston, Va.—"I feel it my duty to express my thanks for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was a sufferer from female troubles and had been confined in bed over one third of my time for ten months. I could not do my housework and had fainting spells so that my husband could not leave me alone for five minutes at a time.

"Now I have been restored to health and it has come from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Whenever I see a suffering woman I want to tell her what this medicine has done for me and I will always speak a good word for it."—Mrs. ROBERT BLANKENSHIP, Elliston, Va., Montgomery Co.

Was Helpless—Now Well.

Trenton, Mo.—"About two years ago I had female trouble and inflammation so bad that I was literally helpless and had to be tended like a baby. I could not move my body or lift my foot for such severe pains that I had to scream. I was very nervous and had a weakness.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped me to such an extent that I think there is no medicine like it for female troubles. I am up and able to do my work again and I give you full permission to publish my letter for the sake of other suffering women."—Mrs. W. T. PURNELL, 320-10th St., Trenton, Mo.

Then he paused; and the jurors braced themselves. They knew what was coming. Or they thought they did.

The attorney for the defense resumed. "There is not one particle of evidence against my client."

Then the jurors breathed more freely and looked at one another with a glad smile.

He had not said "scintilla."—Chicago Tribune.

FEW ARE ABLE TO RESIST.

"Bosworth apparently is a man of great force of character."

"How has he ever shown it?"

"I overheard him yesterday refusing to sign a petition for something that he didn't know anything about."

STARTING RIGHT.

"His wife has literary aspirations. I believe."

"Yes. She always takes pains to properly punctuate the orders she writes for the grocer."
