Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Operator Returns After Illness.

P. Schwitzenberg, day operator at the O. W. R. & N. office, is able to be at his desk again after a month's illness in a Portland hospital.

Purchase Car; Go After It.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kupers have just purchased a new Everett auto and left last night for Spokane where they will secure it and return overland in it.

Indian Is Arrested.

There was no session of police court this morning, due to a lack of offenders but this morning Simon Whitman, an Indian, was arrested for being drunk.

Last Petitions Are Filed.

The petition of J. W. Dyke for constable of Milton, and of George W. Done of Pilot Rock and George A. Winkler for precinct committeemen, were filed yesterday, the last day on which they could legally be filed.

Subpoenaed Before Grand Jury.

No sooner had J. G. Kilpack, representative of the Boys and Girls Aid Society returned to Portland than he received a summons to appear before the local grand jury to testify in a case under investigation. He arrived last night and has been spending the day at the court house.

Young Files His Petition.

I. E. Young, superintendent of the Milton schools and candidate for the republican nomination for county school superintendent, came down from his home last night and filed his signed petition with the county clerk. This morning he left for Pilot Rock on a campaign trip. He states that he is very much encouraged by the outlook.

Young Girl Is an Artist.

Miss Catharine Kennedy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Kennedy, formerly of this city, now living in Wapato, Washington, is gaining considerable distinction as an artist among her instructors and fellow students at St. Anthony's academy where she is attending school. Recently she completed two copies of Harrison Fisher pictures which are quite as good as the original. Anyone doubting this statement may be convinced by inspecting Miss Kennedy's work at the Frazier Book Store where the pictures were placed yesterday.

Fishing Season Opens Monday.

Today local disciples of Isaac Walton are overhauling their fishing paraphernalia for on Monday the angling season opens and these ardent lovers of the river sport will vie with each other to be the first to whip the favored streams. This year the hunting and angling licenses are made out on the same form and it is difficult to get exact figures on how many fishermen have applied for the necessary slips of paper. County Clerk Saling has issued 339 individual licenses the majority of which are for angling, 56 combination hunters' and anglers' licenses, and 27 anglers' licenses to non-residents.

Last Landmark of Agency Burned.

According to a telephone message this afternoon from Major Swartzlander, agent on the reservation, a fire this morning destroyed the last landmark of the old agency. The building which was formerly used as a blacksmith shop and which was sold to Sam Bitner a year ago when all of the old buildings were put up for sale, was discovered in a blaze this morning and was soon reduced to ashes. It is presumed that hoboes started the flames. Inasmuch as all of the other buildings had been torn down, there is nothing now to mark the site of the old agency.

A Conflict of Jurisdiction.

The federal court and the circuit court yesterday clashed when Deputy Sheriff Joe Blakely went to Athena to attach the Klidder paint store. B. B. Richards, trustee for the creditors, had already received an order from the federal court by which he was given authority to sell the stock and fixtures at auction and yesterday afternoon was the time set for such sale. Several days ago George Klidder, executor of the state of B. C. Klidder, instituted a suit to secure possession of the store, claiming that it belonged to the deceased, and it was this suit which occasioned the action of the deputy sheriff. The prospective bidders, learning of the complications, refused to bid yesterday and there was no sale. Now Homer I. Watts, attorney for the trustee, is petitioning the federal court for relief.

MISS MOISANT NEAR DEATH.

Sister of Famous Birdman Almost Meets His Fate in Landing Monoplane. Shreveport, La.—Miss Mathilda Moisant, sister of the late John B. Moisant, narrowly escaped her brother's fate when her monoplane struck the ground at too sharp an angle, bounding into the air and turning turtle. Miss Moisant jumped a few feet just as the body of the machine. She was helped from the wreckage unhurt.

HEAVY GUARD TO WATCH $200,000 PICTURE

Huntington Will Not Risk Theft While Painting is On Way to West. Los Angeles.—To save it from possible Mona Lisa fate, a special guard is being prepared to accompany the Gainsborough painting, "The Duchess of Cumberland," from the New York art gallery, where it was purchased by Henry E. Huntington, to the Huntington mansion, Oak Knoll. Not until the $200,000 canvas is safely hung among the other rare art prizes will the night and day vigil be released.

Every precaution will be taken at all times to prevent any attempt at mutilation, substitution or daring theft.

It has been estimated, that more than $5000,000 of the Huntington fortune is represented in the Los Robles ranch, Oak Knoll and its rich contents. The master of the estate is reaching out for still more art rarities.

ROYAL ROW OVER BOXING.

Kaiser's Sister Will Attend Fights in Spite of Wilhelm's Displeasure. Berlin.—Despite the fact that Emperor William frowns on boxing, Princess Charlotte of Saxe Meiningen, his eldest sister, continues her efforts to make attendance at prize fights fashionable. It was reported that the princess plans to import several prize fighters from London or Paris to give private exhibitions. Bouts cannot be too bloody or furious when the princess is looking on.

Emperor William has ordered the suppression of boxing in the German capital.

Man's favorite brand of love is usually the latest.

I. W. W. Wants Dynamite.

San Diego, Calif., March 30.—Jack Whyte, an I. W. W., suspected of making arrangements with A. E. Hawley, a Santa Ana gun store proprietor, to purchase dynamite, and Hawley, himself, both deny there was any such arrangement. The I. W. W. is now making a big fight in San Diego to get explosives.

Roumanian Princess Betrothed.

Budapest, March 30.—Rumors of the betrothal of Princess Elizabeth of Roumania, to Prince Boris of Bulgaria, are positively circulated. It is expected the betrothal will be followed by a closer alliance between the two countries, which view with recent changes of policy of Russia toward the Balkans. Official confirmation of the engagement is lacking.
