PRISON TERM FOR O-W. R. & N. CLERK

TWO TO TWENTY YEARS
SENTENCE IMPOSED

Application for Parole of Young Embesler is Denied by Judge Morrow Who Says Such Men Imperil Interests of Business.

Portland, Ore., April 3.—Temple Alexander, the young O-W. R. & N. company clerk who pleaded guilty to forging company vouchers yesterday was given an indeterminate sentence ranging from two to 20 years in the state prison. Judge Morrow of the circuit court denied the plea for a parole.

In denying the parole Judge Morrow said:

"I do not see how an offense of the magnitude, and so long continued as this one can be put to one side and there be any respect whatever maintained for the statutes of the state of Oregon. I do not see how it can be done. I appreciate all that has been said on behalf of the young man, but here is a case where there is no incentive to honesty, no fear of punishment in the heart of any man, young or old, who occupies a position where he has an opportunity to obtain money unlawfully in all the state of Oregon, if this young man is to go without any actual physical punishment.

Matter of Justice.

"I do not see how I can parole this man. There is no safety for any business if Temple Alexander is entitled to be paroled under the law. But there is more involved than merely the question of whether this individual person is likely to commit again this particular offense.

"I do not see how, under my sense of duty, in spite of all that has been eloquently said, and in spite of the very sad results, I can parole Mr. Alexander. I don't see how I can do it. The exercise of the discretion vested in me under my oath of office will not permit me to overlook this offense. I have no particular consideration for the railroad company. Their feeling in the matter is not of any special importance, but justice in some sense to those who have suffered from this young man's conduct, and justice to those who have been honest, who have remained honest through whatever temptation they have been exposed to and attended to their work, year in and year out, and did not take their employers' money, requires that there should be something more than a mere noting of something on a piece of paper and dismissing the defendant, to go his way. It cannot be that the thousands of honest and honorable men who have stood up to their work with all its hardships and all its deprivations are no better off in any sense than this young man who took $18,000 in four years, from his employer, if I don't make any difference who his employer is. I don't see that I can do anything else."

HEALTH-TEST STOPS WEDDING IN LYNN

Chicago Girl Who Journeys East to Become a Bride Is Frustrated by Propaganda Started by Dean Sumner.

Boston, Mass.—Miss Violet Wade, a talented soprano of Chicago, and John Charles Thompson of Lynn, son of wealthy parents ran afoul of the "health marriage" propaganda begun by Dean Sumner of Chicago. The couple were refused a license to wed. Thompson's parents protested the issuance of the license on the ground that their son, who is 30 years old, is in poor health, owing to an injury to his head received six months ago. He wears a metallic piece to replace a portion of his skull which was removed.

Says She Is Actress.
Miss Wade is 26 years old and is an attractive young woman. In the preliminary petition for the marriage license she gives her occupation as "soprano soloist and actress." She gives her parents' names as Mr. and Mrs. William A. Wade of Chicago.

The young woman came to Lynn a week ago. Knowing the provisions of the five day clause in the marriage laws of Massachusetts, she and Mr. Thompson applied to J. J. Doherty, clerk of the Lynn court, for the preliminary certificate.

Groom Is Indignant.

Mr. Thompson went before Judge Pummus, who told them both to come into court next day. They did so today, and after talking with Assistant Clerk William Kelley they were informed that Chief of Police Burckes had asked that the license be held up owing to a protest by the young man's parents. Mr. Thompson was indignant when finally refused a license by City Clerk Joseph T. Attwill.

Dawson was formerly a prosperous real estate dealer in Springfield, Ohio, and came here about six years ago.

LOSES FORTUNE IN GOLD.

Son of Gypsy King Thinks Servant Took Hoarded Wealth.

Providence, R. I.—Six thousand dollars in $20 gold pieces, representing the fortune of the late gypsy "king," was stolen from his son, William Stanley, a horse trader.

The police all over New England and in New York have been wired descriptions of a German known only as "Oscar," whose disappearance it is alleged was simultaneous with that of the gold.

Stanley told the police that prior to the money being missed he sent Oscar, who had been employed by him for several months, into the cellar, where it was stored in a large canvas bag.
