Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Trees Are Blooming Early.
Already peach and apricot trees in Pendleton are in full bloom but the owners are fearful lest they be killed by frost as was the case last year.

Improving His Property.
H. G. F. Eggers, well known retired farmer, is improving his residence property on the corner of Jackson and Bush streets by constructing a stone wall about it.

Ten Acres Bring $2000.
A ten acre fruit tract two miles northeast of Freewater has been sold by C. G. Rogers and wife to John McAuslan for a consideration of $2000.

Idaho Veterinarian Here.
Dr. E. T. Baker, veterinarian at the University of Idaho is visiting in Pendleton today while en route home after attending an institute in southern Idaho. While here he is the guest of Dr. W. H. Lytle, the two men being old friends.

Improving Residence.
The Frank Mytinger home at 821 West Court street, is being improved by the installation of a concrete block foundation, new porches and other betterments, the work being done by P. T. Belts.

R. R. Commissioner Candidate Here.
H. J. Sunderman, candidate for the republican nomination for railroad commissioner, is in the city today in the interest of his campaign and reports the prospects for his success very bright.

Will Ship Body East.
Ralph Folsom, the undertaker, is preparing the body of Theodore Cramer, who died at the county hospital Tuesday night, for shipment to Council Bluffs, Iowa, in response to a message from relatives there.

Two Drunks in Police Court.
George Peterson was given three days in jail this morning when he pleaded guilty to being drunk. John Doe was also registered on the docket with a bail of five dollars forfeited on a similar offense.

Garage is Stripped of Forms.
Yesterday afternoon, the work of stripping the forms from the finished walls of the garage being built by W. F. Matlock for B. F. Trombley was completed and the building now stands forth externally almost complete.

Cattle for Helix.
Bur Johnson, the Helix butcher, has just purchased 15 head of beef cattle from the county, the beef having been raised at the poor farm. The cattle are to be shipped to Helix tomorrow and will be butchered by Mr. Johnson for his market in that town.

Elks Will Install Tonight.
The local lodge of Elks will install their new officers tonight and following the ceremonies the retiring house committee will be host to a smoker for all members. They have prepared a surprise, the nature of which will not be revealed until the proper hour arrives.

Moorhouses Return.
Mr. and Mrs. Mark Moorhouse, who have been in Los Angeles during the past two months, returned to Pendleton last night. Mr. Moorhouse who went south for his health, is much improved as a result of his California sojourn. While in Los Angeles he assisted Messrs. Raley and Gwinn in putting on the Rodeo.

Paving Officials Here.
W. B. Warren, vice president of the Warren Bros., patentees for the bitulithic pavement, is now in the city in connection with the work being done here by the Warren construction company. He is accompanied by J. C. Johnson, in charge of the laboratory work for the company and by A. Achtert, assistant under Mr. Johnson.

Hospital Buildings Taking Form.
Under the beneficent influence of the warm sunny weather which has prevailed for the past few weeks, work on the branch hospital has been progressing rapidly and the buildings are now beginning to take form. Yesterday the work of removing the forms from the laundry building was completed so that now the concrete walls are visible. The work of pouring on the power building directly back of the laundry has also been undertaken, while each day sees a marked advancement in the construction of the administration building and wards.

Cantata Was a Success.
An audience that packed the big Methodist church from front to rear witnessed the presentation of the "Triumph of the Cross," the Easter cantata, last night. The program was pleasing throughout, the singing of Miss Doris Gregory, who had the leading role, being especially good. The program was concluded with a good night drill by a dozen tiny tots who proved almost a whole show in themselves.

Figures of Recorder's Report.
Recorder Fitz Gerald's report to the city council last night shows that during the month of March there were 108 violations of city ordinances, 77 of which were of the ordinance prohibiting persons from being on the streets in an intoxicated condition. 39 fines were paid and the same number of jail sentences served while 23 offenders forfeited bail. $479 was collected in fines, $376 in licenses and $153 in dog taxes. Nine burial permits were issued and no contagious diseases were reported. Ten building permits were issued from the office during the month.

Justice Given to Draymen.
When the city council passed its recent ordinance providing for the licensing of drays, etc., a number of the draymen had already paid $7.50 as a quarterly license under the old ordinance and yet by the terms of the new ordinance they could not be given credit for that amount upon the annual license which the new law provides. In order that justice might be done them, the council last night voted to refund their original payment by warrant.

Multnomah Hotel Man Here.
Monroe Goldstein, director of publicity and promotion of the new Hotel Multnomah in Portland, is paying Pendleton a visit today while on a tour of eastern Oregon and Idaho. Mr. Goldstein is also a member of the publicity committee of the Portland lodge of Elks which is exploiting the grand convention which is to be held in Portland next July.

BIG SHRINKAGE IN ESTATE.

Valuation of $10,000,000 is Put on Property Appraised at $50,000.
Acheson, Kan.—News that William Harris of Merthyr Tydfil, Wales, as reported in a cable dispatch, was claiming as nephew next of kin an estate said to be worth $10,000,000 left by James Davis, excited great interest here.

Davis, whose home was in Peabody, Kan., died here a year ago. He left a 400-acre farm near Peabody, and $10,000 in the bank. The estate is valued at $50,000.

The state of Kansas has been hunting for heirs, and unless some appear soon the property will escheat to the state.

PROLONGED DEBAUCH ENDS IN MAN'S DEATH

Vancouver, Wash.—Coming to his home near the car barns from a several days' spree at Portland, still under the influence of liquor and in a mood for trouble, A. B. Hayward, 56 years old, engaged in a row with his son and during the scuffle shot himself four times with a revolver, one bullet entering near the heart which resulted in death 30 minutes later. The man sank to the floor after the last shot was fired. Dr. Cass was summoned from the city, but Hayward died a few minutes after the doctor's arrival.

THE $15.00 WATCH FOR FARMERS

You farmers need to measure your time carefully. The stomach is not always a certain call for meals nor is the sun a sure standard for your help to start and quit by.

You owe yourself a look at this $15.00 Elgin watch I am offering. It has an easily read dial—filled open face case—it's carefully timed—the heat and cold it will encounter in your out-of-door life won't effect its constant truthfulness.

It has a double barrel guarantee—the makers and mine.

SEEKERS OF COUNTY OFFICES ARRAYED

NEITHER PARTY HAS FULL TICKET IN FIELD

Unless Voters, Insert Names of Here-tofore Unmentioned Candidates, Many Now in Race Will Win Without Opposition.

The time limit for the filing of petitions of candidacy expired yesterday and the voters may now see the array of office-seekers from which they may make their selections. Neither republicans nor democrats have a full ticket in the field for the nominations and unless names are written in on the ballot, many of the offices will be secured without opposition.

The following are the district and county candidates as filed with County Clerk Saling:

Republican.

For circuit judge, G. W. Phelps of Pendleton.

For district attorney, James P. Neal of Freewater, Frederick Steiwer of Pendleton.

For joint representative, Umattilla and Morrow counties, R. N. Stanfield of Stanfield.

For representatives (two), Joseph T. Hinkle of Hermiston, L. L. Mann of Pendleton, Roland Oliver of Pendleton and S. D. Peterson of Milton.

For clerk, Frank Saling of Pendleton, J. T. Wallan of Adams.

For treasurer, George W. Bradley of Pendleton.

For recorder, Ben S. Burroughs of Pendleton.

For commissioner, Horace Walker of Stanfield, H. A. Waterman of Hermiston.

For school superintendent, Frank K. Welles of Ferndale, I. E. Young of Milton.

For coroner, H. S. Garfield of Pendleton.

For surveyor, Geary Kimbrell of Pendleton.

For assessor, S. A. Saylor of Umattilla.

Democrat.

For sheriff, T. D. Taylor of Pendleton.

For assessor, C. P. Strain of Pendleton.

For commissioner, Manuel Friedley of Juniper.

In addition to the above candidates upon which all of the voters of the county will pass, there are also a number of men out for the various positions in the various districts but in no district is there any competition. Here in the Pendleton district, Joe H. Parkes, republican, and John M. Bentley, democrat, both present incumbents, are out for the nomination of their party for justice of the peace and constable respectively.

In the Milton-Freewater district, J. L. Miller and J. W. Dykes, both republicans, are seeking the two positions, while B. B. Richards, present justice of the peace in the Athena district, is seeking the republicans to nominate him again. F. C. McKenzie, republican, and S. D. Phay, democrat, are the only two men in the field for justice of the peace and constable in the Hermiston district.

In addition to these candidates, a large number of would-be precinct committeemen have filed their petitions.

FAIRMS FOR CITY POOR.

St. Paul, Minn.—To colonize poor families of St. Paul and Minneapolis on forty-acre farms in Northern Minnesota, provide homes for them and give them a start at farming, is a move started by the Salvation Army. The Salvation Army started such a colony in Ohio several years ago and later one in California, and in each instance those sent to the farms have "made good."

HIGH RELAY RACE TO BE RUN TOMORROW

Much interest is being shown in the high school interclass relay race which is to be pulled off tomorrow at the Round-Up Park. Each class is to have a team of five men in the race, each man to run a mile. The fellows have been training hard for the event and much good material is expected to be brought forth.

The seniors are to be represented by Haw, Strain, McDonald, Sturdivant Hampton and Fee.

The Ferguson brothers, Williamson, Finnerl and Breithaupt, will carry the colors of the juniors.

The sophomores have a strong team consisting of Russell, Krebs, Dunlap, Norris and Koch.

The freshmen are represented by green men, but they will be strong factors in determining the championship. Stranghn, Brock, Rugg Hamley and Despain carry the green as their colors.

The juniors and the freshmen both look forward to the moment when they shall be crowned victors of the relay race, but the other two classes have five dark horses apiece and although not giving their views, state they will be in the running.

The race starts at 3:30 sharp at the Round-Up grounds and admission will be free to all people without regard to sex, age, race or rooting ability.

The annual class meet is to be held next Friday.

WOMEN TO HUNT TREASURE.

Hope to Uncarth Pirate Hoard on South Pacific Island.

London.—The Evening News vouches for the authenticity of the story that two women, both well known in London society, will leave England next month to search for hidden treasure on an island in the southern Pacific. They have chartered a 200-ton yacht from a well-known yachtsman, who will probably participate in the search.

The treasure is said to amount to millions and was buried by pirates.

Records of the expedition will, it is added, be filed in the British Museum. The two women visited the island last year and spent five weeks there, accompanied by a representative of the government, to which the island belongs. The investigations that followed were satisfactory and the two principals returned to the mainland and obtained an interview with the president of the country which owns the "treasure island." He granted a concession and leave to remove any treasure found.

By the terms of the agreement the government claims one-third of the treasure. The agreement was duly witnessed by a British representative in the country in question.

LASSED AND DRAGGED MILE.

Pullman, Wash.—Chester Getchel, 9 year old son of Scott Getchel, whose farm lies southwest of Pullman, was playing with another boy a few years older, when the older boy, on horseback, lassoed the little fellow. The horse the larger boy was riding became frightened and bolted, dragging Chester over a macadamized road a long distance. The boy declared it was nearly a mile. The boy who threw the rope was so frightened that he could not release the rope from the saddle horn and with difficulty kept his seat.

When the little fellow was finally released he was found uninjured, with the exception of bruises and his clothing being almost torn from his body, but no bones were broken and he was able to return home and tell his parents of his miraculous escape.

Marriage is the worst kind of a failure if a man admires other women and neglects his wife.
