BISHOP VISITS HERMISTON CHURCH

(Special Correspondence.)
Hermiston, Ore., April 13.—Bishop Paddock of the Episcopal church is visiting his people here. Last evening services were held at the H. M. Company hall. The bishop gave a very interesting and instructive talk. Several children were baptized and several adults taken in the church by confirmation.

Very few settlers have as yet accepted the graduation of the water right payments. It is expected, however, that as the time for payment comes that about 50 per cent of the people will accept the new contract. R. A. Stewart and son are putting out several acres in orchard this week. They own about 160 acres of land under the project.

Tragedy in a Circus.

Vienna.—A horrible tragedy, the result of jealousy, is reported from Flum, where a circus is now giving performances.

Two German artists Josef Krammer and Franz Kann, appeared in a trap-act. Krammer's sister, who was in love with Kann, but whose affection was not returned, as the artist preferred her sister, loosened a rope before the beginning of the performance.

As a result of her act both performers fell from a great height to the ground, being killed on the spot.

Bulldog Kills a Tiger.

Unintentionally, South Africa.—A bull dog killed a tiger in a fight near here a few days ago.

The tiger had taken refuge in a cave on a farm at the foot of Winterhoek mountain, in Cape Colony. A bulldog was secured and it at once rushed into the cave. A desperate struggle ensued. The dog was badly wounded by the tiger's claws, but it caught the tiger by the throat and did not let go until both rolled over as if dead.

In a few minutes the dog came around, but the tiger, which measured eight and a half feet, was dead.

C. L. Parsons, secretary and treasurer of the C. H. Ward Drug Co., Pasadena, Calif., writes: "We have sold and recommended Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for years. We believe it to be one of the most efficient expectorants on the market. Containing no opiates or narcotics it can be given freely to children. Enough of this remedy can be taken to relieve a cold as it has no nauseating results and does not interfere with digestion." For sale by all dealers.

BATTLESHIPS FOR CANADA.

Montreal.—The government organ in Quebec announced that Canada will order two super-dreadnoughts while the question of the complete character of the dominion navy is being discussed by the Canadian minister of marine, and the British admiralty. This is regarded in political circles here as an effort to test opinion in Quebec which has been against Canada's contributing to the British navy or building one of her own.
