ALASKAN SCENES AGAIN ENJOYED

Without doubt the films being unrolled at the Oregon theatre by Beverly B. Dobbs are the greatest natural moving pictures ever taken and the Pendletonian who misses the exhibition misses one of the most instructive as well as one of the most entertaining attractions that has been in Pendleton during the season. Two of his series have already been given, this afternoon the public schools have been dismissed that the children might see these educational pictures and tonight will be the last opportunity for a local audience to secure the treat.

Depicting as they do the scenic wonders of Uncle Sam's richest and least known domain and some of the daily sights which meet the eye of a traveler in Alaska, they are rich in interest and a source of never ending delight to the untravelled person. The immense ice fields, the great, unbroken expanse of white, the bleak, barren mountains, the torrential streams choked with flocks, the native Esquimaux in their igloos, in their dances, on the hunt or about their

MRS. LARAMORE TELLS TROUBLES

Lady in Goodwater Describes Her Distressing Experience and Tells How She Was Finally Relieved.

Goodwater, Mo.—"Ever since I was a little girl," says Mrs. Riley Laramore, "I was a great sufferer from dyspepsia. I suffered misery after eating, and had terrible heartburn.

I thought I had to suffer this way as long as I lived, but when I began to take Theodor's Black-Draught, in small doses, every night, the heartburn was all gone in a few days, and I could eat without distress.

I took two small packages in all, and although that was some time ago, the dyspepsia has not returned.

I speak a good word for Theodor's Black-Draught whenever I have the opportunity."

If eating causes distress, we urge you to try Theodor's Black-Draught. It cleanses the system, helps the stomach to digest its food, regulates the bowels, and stimulates the liver.

It acts gently and is without bad after-effects. Try it. Price 25c.

Orpheum.
An exceptional good program for Tuesday's change. Four full reels of the best pictures.

1. "The Root of Evil." Biograph. The daughter of a wealthy man has clandestinely married his secretary. Her marriage is discovered by her father's confidential adviser, who is an unscrupulous villain who hoped to marry her himself, simply to obtain the father's wealth.

2. "David and Saul." Pathe. This old Bible story needs no introduction. It is not, however, the story of David and Goliath, but the tale surrounding the time when David had Saul at his mercy and only cut off a portion of Saul's garment.

3. "The Surprise Party Surprised." Lubin. A surprise party is pulled off on Ruth Masson, daughter of Farmer Esenay. A stirring, gripping western drama featuring Mr. J. M. Anderson in a freshly interesting four cornered story of love and jealousy.

John Marson and wife. As each of the merry visitors hand in their good things, the baskets are put away in the store room. Little Pearl, the eight-year old sister, wants to know all that is going on, but it told that little girl's must not be too curious. Presently a wagon load of little orphans breaks down at the door and Pearl invites the bunch of kiddies into the house. She thinks that they look rather forlorn and hungry. She takes them to the store room and sets them all busy at the baskets. The surprise party is done out of their supper but look upon it as a joke and mother takes the kiddies up to the spare room and tucks them away comfortably in bed.

Musical program:
1. Royal March of Italy, Gabetti.
2. Garibaldi's March, Jongorara.
3. Selection from Carmen, Bizet.
4. Santa Lucia, Gordiniani.
5. L'Addio a Napoli, Cottrau.

The Pastime.

The home of good pictures. Tuesday's change of program, "The Banker's Daughter," Kalem. A modern and thoroughly original drama. It has a novelty, the chase in iceboats by police of a defaulting bank cashier. The means the banker's daughter and her lover, the teller, took to stop the run on the bank, when the thefts became known are quite convincing, and the story has many points of fresh interest.

"An Arizona Escapade." Essanay. One of those thrilling western melodramas that keep you clutching the seat with a gulp in your throat and your heart pounding like a trip-hammer. Love, hate, revenge, thrilling ride, villains vanquished, happy ending.

"The Rival Constables." American Pathe. In a suffragette town a woman is elected constable, but the old constable refused to give up his badge. About that time, old Hiram Peckwith loses some chickens and the rival constables start on a man hunt which gives rise to many laughable situations.

"The Song of the Gypsy." Eclipse. This is a simple little story, away out of the beaten track. The actress who appears as the gypsy maid is an artist from toes to finger tips.

"Karlberg (Sweden) War School Exercises." Decidedly entertaining.

Musical program:
No. 1—Payera. Spanish Dance. M. L. de Tejada.
No. 2—Quand L'Amour Refleurit. Waltz. Chemieux.
No. 3—Zacatecas. March. G. Conchina.
No. 4—National Airs of Mexico. Medley. R. M. Toledano.

Cosy.
Wednesday and Thursday another dandy program with lots of excitement, thrills and laughter.

"The Land Baron of San Tee." American. A sensational western story full of startling events and strong situations. The owner of vast estates and a big dam, orders the water cut off from the valley and the people suffering for water capture the land baron and torture him in an extremely sensational manner to make him relent. There's life and hustle enough in this one to suit everyone.

"Far from the Beaten Track." Imp. Taken in the lonely north woods at Hudson Bay. A powerfully told story of a wife's loneliness in the wintry solitudes and a husband's heroic sacrifice for her happiness. It grips.

"Surelock Jones, Detective's" Chanhouser. Here's something funny. A very laughable, jocular, gloom-chasing burlesque that will cure the blues. The extraordinary methods employed by this "great" man and manner in which his deductions reacted on himself are the very limit of fun.

"A Wife's Discovery." Champion. More fun. Hubby wrote to his man friend Jesse and began the letter, "My Dear Jess." It seemed a compromising letter when wifey found it, but subsequent events made it even more so. It will make you laugh.

MILLIONAIRE'S SON FINED FOR SPEEDING

Chicago, Ill.—Louis F. Swift, son of Louis F. Swift, wealthy meat packer living at Lake Forest, was fined $15 and costs by Municipal Judge Uhler in the Sheffield avenue court on a charge of speeding.

Swift was arrested at North Clark street and Estes avenue by Motorcycle Policeman H. B. Donnelly, who testified he was speeding twenty-five miles an hour.

When asked his age by Judge Uhler young Swift blushed and stammered and said he didn't know his correct age. He said he thought he was born in 1891, 1892, 1893 or 1894. Swift was accompanied by a man who refused to make his identity and who paid his fine.

"Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation."

Contagious Blood Poison, as the name implies, is an infectious blood taint which may be communicated from one person to another. Its virus is of a most insidious nature, multiplying from an insignificant germ in the blood until it becomes a thorough systemic poison. So powerful and dangerous is this terrible blood plague that no time should be lost in trying to drive it from the system. It should not be temporized with, but should be killed as one would a deadly serpent on the pathway. The first manifestation of Contagious Blood Poison is usually a tiny sore or pimple, but it rapidly spreads, and in a short time the entire body shows its presence in the blood. The mouth and throat ulcerate, glands in the groin swell, the hair begins to come out, copper-colored spots appear on the body, and frequently running sores and ulcers break out on the flesh.

A condition of such serious nature requires proper treatment. Not only must the disease be driven out, but the system which has been weakened by the powerful poison must be built up, before health can be restored. The question of most importance therefore is—what medicine has proven by actual results its superiority as a blood purifier? We claim this distinction for S. S. S. because of its successful record for more than forty years.

S. S. S. cures Contagious Blood Poison by purifying the blood. It goes into the circulation and removes the last trace of the infectious virus, acts with fine tonic effect on the stomach, bowels, kidneys, and other portions of the system, and thus makes a perfect as well as a permanent cure. S. S. S. is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, each of which has a specific action on the system. Not a particle of mineral or other harmful substance enters into its composition. S. S. S. is perfectly safe for any one, and instead of upsetting the stomach, as mineral medicines often do, it tones up this important member, and makes digestion easy. Thousands have cured themselves of Contagious Blood Poison by the use of S. S. S., and if you will write and request it we will send you, without charge, our Home Treatment Book which will give you all necessary information for crushing out the life of this serpent-like poison and curing yourself at home. We will also give you free any medical advice you may wish. S. S. S. is sold at drug stores. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.
