156 TOWNS IN U. S. GOT LIBRARIES DURING 1911

Nearly Every State Profits from $2,326,370 Given Away by Carnegie.

Chicago.—The American Library association has issued in its March bulletin, published in Chicago, a detailed list of the important gifts and bequests to American libraries during 1911. The total cash donations amounts to $2,324,822.69, which is nearly $1,500,000 more than was given in 1910.

Of this amount Andrew Carnegie gave $2,326,370, which is more than double the amount donated by the ironmaster to libraries in the previous year. One hundred and thirty-six towns and cities in the United States and twenty-eight in Canada were the recipients. The majority are in the middle west and south and in the province of Ontario, although nearly every state in the union is represented in the list.

Gifts other than money include 65,575 volumes, six sites for library buildings and seven buildings presented for library purposes.

Against Free Lunches.
Peoria, Ill.—One hundred and fifty-seven saloonkeepers of Peoria have petitioned the city council to pass an ordinance abolishing free lunches in saloons and providing for a fine of from $10 to $100 for failure to do so. TITANIC VICTIMS RECOVERED, AND AGAIN GIVEN TO OCEAN questioned members of the crew. They apparently were frightened and afraid to talk.

A dock steward, who refused to give his name, denied that any of the millionaire passengers offered the sailors money for seats in the life boats.

The caucus room was so full when the inquiry began that Ismay and Franklin were forced to stand several minutes before seats could be found for them. Chairman Smith was barely able to squeeze his way in.

Senator Smith announced that foreign witnesses will be heard first so they may return to England with undue delay. This means that survivors of the Titanic crew will be heard before the other survivors.

Franklin said: "Despite my efforts absolutely no information was received from the Titanic until 6 o'clock Monday night. At one o'clock in the afternoon I received a message from the Olympic that the Carpathia had picked up twenty of the Titanic life boats, filled with passengers. We gave this information to the public, explaining they were only rumors.

"At 6:25 I received the first definite information, in a message from the Carpathia. It read, 'Carpathia reached Titanic's position at day break and found boats and wreckage. Only 675 were saved. Carpathia returning to New York.'

"The message was signed by Captain Haddock. I was thunderstruck by the news and called up some of the directors of the company, including J. P. Morgan, jr. I then gave out the news to press associations and newspapers."

"Franklin admitted he had received a message from Ismay, aboard the Carpathia reading:

"It is most desirable that survivors of the Titanic crew be returned home as early as possible. Suggest the Celtic be held so they can get aboard. I propose returning with them. Please send clothes, including shoes.

Parliament Investigating.
London, April 22.—Declaring a statement by President Buxton of the Board of Trade, in the house of commons in regard to the Titanic disaster was unsatisfactory, Labor Leader Crooks demanded that full details, in regard to the disaster, be started in the house of commons tonight.

EXPENSIVE GRADUATION GOWNS ARE CONDEMNED

Educators in Cincinnati Oppose Costly Garments for the Girl Graduates.
Cincinnati.—The Union Board of high school, embracing all the high schools of this county, has passed a resolution condemning expensive gowns worn by most girl graduates at commencement.

It nominated School Superintendent B. F. Dyer and two principals as a committee to report the cost of preparing a suitable gown which might be specified as the correct graduation dress.

Members of the board say that a gown can be made for $3 to answer all purposes. Dr. J. M. Witherow, who offered the adopted resolution, says too much bitterness exists among the young women because many cannot afford dresses of such material as others get.

Teachers of dressmaking at Woodward high school say they favor this resolution.

The $15 Watch for Business and Professional Men

Doctors, lawyers, preachers, merchants, bankers, editors, politicians, candidates for offices and traveling men—take notice.

A dollar alarm is good enough for measuring your sleeping hours but if you want other folks to respect the value of your time you must give them some evidence that it is valuable. Don't measure your real life, your working hours, with a miniature alarm clock fitted in a tin case, with a paper dial.

Own a real watch. You'll find a many sided satisfaction in it. I don't know where you can buy more watch value for $15.00 than I offer.

Your future watch is an Elgin, guaranteed by the makers and me.
