MRS. HIRAM SWARTZ, PIONEER, IS DEAD

(Special Correspondence.)
Freewater, Ore., April 24.—Mrs. Hiram Swartz, one of the best known pioneers of this valley, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sam Conrad of Vincent, Saturday, April 20, after an illness of four months, following a paralytic stroke. Mrs. Swartz before her marriage was Mary Elizabeth Goodman and was born in Charleston county, Illinois, in 1849. At the age of seven her parents moved to Missouri and seven years later crossed the plains to Oregon, and settling on what is known as the old Hoon place. In 1864 they moved to the Willamette valley, but two years later returned to Walla Walla, where she was married to Hiram H. Swartz and lived near Vincent for many years. After the death of her husband she lived in Walla Walla until about a year ago she made her home with her daughter, Mrs. S. C. Conrad.

Besides hosts of friends she leaves to mourn her death three daughters and one son, Mrs. S. O. Conrad, Mrs. Lena Weaver, Bud Swartz, all of Vincent, Oregon, and Mrs. I. G. Robinson of Tragaria, Wash.; two brothers living, Ira W. Goodman of Walla Walla, and D. G. Goodman of North Yakima, besides three grand children. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Harper of Milton, Monday, at 10 o'clock. One of the largest corteges ever seen in this valley followed the remains which were interred in the Ford cemetery beside her husband and parents.

CONNAUGHT EASILY TELLS THE MEDALS ARE FALSE

Duke Causes the Downfall of a "Captain" at a Reception in Toronto.
Ottawa.—J. Gwaller Evans of Toronto, who is under arrest for forgery, owes his downfall to his weakness for medals and to the discerning eyes of the Duke of Connaught, who "sized them up" for fakes when Dr. or "Captain" Evans, as he called himself, stood with the army and navy veterans when the Duke and Duchess visited Toronto recently. The duke remarked to one of the officers of the corps that the man had a remarkable number and variety of medals for so young a man. Explanations were asked by the officers of the corps and he resigned immediately. Dr. Evans presented his application for membership in the corps last fall. It was not met with favor, but he was admitted to an honorary but inactive membership upon his representation that he had served with the Royal Engineers in the rank of captain. The medals which led to his trouble are now in the hands of the police. They looked all right to the ordinary observer, but not to the duke. Evans appeared on the political plat-

BOY BRIGAND A TERROR.

Bushore, Pa.—When the law, through the instrumentality of Judge Maxwell, put its hands on Peter Striney and sent him to the Eastern penitentiary at Philadelphia for from five to ten years it made short shift of a young bandit, who, by his own confession, had started on a career of crime, lured by lurid reading and a natural bent for adventure, and had not been captured as he was—and that was at the point of a pistol—this part of Pennsylvania ere this summer was over would have been infested with a band of robbers whose leader at least would have stopped short of nothing, not even murder.

Even before the court, as he stood to hear sentence pronounced, Striney, with not a little braggadocio, declared that he had spent part of his money to buy firearms, so that he would be equipped for highway robbery. His prospective fields of operations were the lonely roads of Sullivan and Bradford counties, a territory with which he was well acquainted having been reared in Sullivan county, and against him here before his last escapade, for which he is now sent to prison, he was sent to the reformatory at Huntington, for a crime committed while yet only a stripling of a boy.

Striney was sentenced by Judge Maxwell for robbing the Susquehanna & New York railroad station at Powell in broad day.

SHE GAVE UP ALL HOPE

Physicians Failed To Help Mrs. Green, But She Finally Found Relief in Cardul.

Meets, Va.—Mrs. J. C. Green of this place, says: "I suffered with womanly troubles so that I could hardly sit up. Two of the best doctors in our town treated me, and I tried different medicines, until I gave up all hope of ever getting well.

One day, I decided to try some Cardul. It did so much for me that I ordered some more, and it cured me! Today, I feel as well as I ever did in my life.

The pains and the trouble are all gone. I feel like another person in every way. I wish every sufferer could know what Cardul will do for sick women."

A few doses of Cardul at the right time, will save many a big doctor bill, by preventing serious sickness. It tones up the nervous system, and helps make pale cheeks fresh and rosy.

Thousands of weak women have been restored to health and happiness by using Cardul. Suppose you try it. You will be just the medicine you need.
