The Human Heart

The heart is a wonderful double pump, through the action of which the blood stream is kept sweeping round and round through the body at the rate of seven miles an hour. "Remember this, that our bodies will not stand the strain of over-work without good, pure blood any more than the engine can run smoothly without oil." After many years of study in the active practice of medicine, Dr. R. V. Pierce found that when the stomach was out of order, the blood impure and there were symptoms of general breakdown, a tonic made of the glyceric extract of certain roots was the best corrective. This he called

12 YEAR OLD GIRL MUSICAL WONDER

Local music lovers listened last evening to a testimonial concert by little Miss Atla Elaine Elmer at the studio of the Royal College of Porpora in the Association building. The little girl is but 12 years of age and is a musical wonder. She is a resident and formerly received instruction from Prof. Charles O. Blakeslee in Nampa. Miss Elmer is now visiting with her relatives in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Knapp, and the program last evening was given after but a few days' preparation on her part. So talented is the little Idaho girl that she is not only a wonderful player for her years, but has also written piano and violin selections that were given last evening. She is declared by Prof. Blakeslee to be far more advanced than most music students ever become and last night the degree of master of genius and inspiration was conferred by the Royal College of Porpora.

LOWELL PROMISES SUPPORT, SELLING

Portland, Ore., April 25.—Assurance that Stephen A. Lowell of Pendleton, one of the defeated primary candidates for the republican United States senatorial nomination, would support him, was received by Ben Selling, who won the nomination. Lowell pledged his support to Selling in a personal congratulatory letter mailed from Pendleton Monday. In the letter Lowell said:

"I congratulated Mr. Calk six years ago upon his nomination as candidate for senator, and then found that his supposed victory was Dead Sea fruit, therefore I have waited in your case until the result of the election seemed unchangeable.

"Permit me now to extend congratulations and to assure you of my support. I have been a candidate against you, and am defeated, but I have played the game long enough to accept defeat as smilingly as victory. At this juncture in public affairs it seems to me important to public interest that the results of the primary be accepted in good faith by all republicans—all men who believe in the substantial principles of equality in opportunity for which the party was founded. It may have drifted away from its landmarks, but it is yet the party of the plain people. It will do justice in the end."
