Pretty Mothers

Health is the foundation of all good looks. The wise woman realizes this and takes precautions to preserve her health and strength through the period of child bearing. She remains a pretty mother by avoiding as far as possible the suffering and dangers of such occasions. This every woman may do through the use of Mother's Friend, a remedy that has been so long in use, and accomplished so much good, that it is in no sense an experiment, but a preparation which always produces the best results. It is for external application and so penetrating in its nature as to thoroughly lubricate every muscle, nerve and tendon involved during the period before baby comes. It aids nature by expanding the skin and tissues, relieves tenderness and soreness, and perfectly prepares the system for natural and safe motherhood. Mother's Friend has been used and endorsed by thousands of mothers, and its use will prove a comfort and benefit to any woman in need of such a remedy. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers, which contains much valuable information.

Mother's Friend

BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.
A steamship disaster like that of Monday, the young wife refuses to go in the boats, declaring that she will live or die with her husband, says the Pittsburg Dispatch. To most men the natural law that their wives and daughters should be saved from danger at the cost of fiction seemed almost beyond reality. But the sinking of the Titanic presents not one, but several cases of this heroic choice of wives to die with their husbands rather than leave them.
The case of Mr. and Mrs. Isador Straus was the most notable. When Mrs. Straus found that her husband would not be allowed in the boat she stepped out of it, preferring to die with him rather than live without him. A Mr. Allison is reported to have been accompanied by his wife and daughter, and they refused to be rescued rather than let him die alone. There are indefinite reports of a dozen similar cases, all of them representing a brilliant example of love and self-sacrifice that is a bright contrast to the matrimonial faithlessness that furnishes commonplace sensations.
While we prize these shining exhibitions of love as an offset to the social discredit or disregard for the marriage tie, it is necessary to add that a cold, dispassionate judgment will recognize that it is wiser for the wife to accept her chance of life though the husband can not. She is not bound to die because the husband is. Beyond that, however remote the husband's chance for escape, it is more if he has only himself to fight for than if his wife be with him. In such a situation, however, women may easily ignore the calculations of reason, and those who elected to go to death presented a lofty ideal of love and devotion, the loftier for its comparative rarity.
The talk of the necessity of war between the United States and Mexico seems idle. The trouble will no doubt be adjusted without interference by this country and if interference should prove necessary it would not be a war. A squad of good American policemen could settle the trouble.

THE MEN WHO WENT DOWN.
Peasant and merchant and millionaire
Soldier and scholar and man of the sea,
Mourning by the world, they are resting where
No towering monument ever may be;
But the waves that go rolling above them there,
Where the pitiless fogs hover over the tide,
Shall never efface and shall never impair
The glory they gained when they manfully died.
With only an hour in which to pray
Where Death had found them and would not wait,
They sent the young and the weak away,
Intrusting them to the whims of Fate;
Robbed of hope, they had strength to stay
While the helpless ones and the women went,
And the dark sea, rolling till Judgment Day
Is their ever-enduring monument.
—S. E. Kiser in Chicago Record-Herald.

THEY ARE WELCOME VISITORS

The work of the Sunday school people now assembled here is of such a nature they are welcome visitors indeed. It is the primary duty of the Sunday school worker aside from extending the faith to guide the steps of little children in paths of right living and right thinking. The Sunday school teacher strives to encourage her followers to love the clean, the beautiful and true and to dislike the things that are bad and ugly. She exerts a wholesome and elevating influence and her influence is exerted at a time when child character is being formed. Therefore much good is accomplished. The world scarcely appreciates the wide good that the Sunday school does. Millions of young people grow to manhood and womanhood with their ideas of right living more firmly formed because of early associations in the Sunday school class rooms. The Sunday schools do the most effective work that is carried on in the name of the church. The work is effective because it is easier to train than to reclaim, because "as the twig is bent so is the tree inclined."
The East Oregonian knows that the people of Pendleton appreciate the presence in this city of the Sunday school workers and wants them to enjoy their stay. If there should be anything lacking about the arrangements for their accommodation and entertainment the mistakes will be of the hand and not the heart.

DEVOTED WOMEN.

Greater than the chivalric story of the men who went down with the Titanic in order that the lifeboats might be filled with women and children is the tale of devotion of those women who refused to leave their husbands and gave up their chances of escape in order to stay with their loved ones.
Many newspapers throughout the world are commenting upon the wife's devotion shown by Mrs. Isadore Straus and other women who refused to enter the boats though they had opportunities to do so.
In De Morgan's best story the climax is attained at the crisis when, in

$100 REWARD. $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

THE REALM FEMINE

Heart Cookies.
When making plain cookies I add a quarter of a pound of melted chocolate to the batter, after using half of it, and make two kinds of cookies. Sometimes I cut both kinds with a heart cutter, and after they are baked join them with a thin sugar icing.
My Favorite Doughnuts.
To one cup of granulated sugar add one and one-half cups sweet milk, one cup mashed potatoes, one butter (melted in potatoes) the size of an egg. Mix well, then add five level teaspoons baking powder, a pinch of salt and just enough flour to roll. Flavor with nutmeg.
These are fine.
Filled Cookies.
Take one cup of sugar, one-half cup each of butter and milk, one egg, three and one-half cups of flour, two teaspoons of cream of tartar, one teaspoon each of soda and vanilla, and a little more flour if needed to roll thin. Put the cookies in the pan, place a teaspoon of the filling on each, not letting it come quite to the edge, then put another cookie on top. Bake in a quick oven, taking care not to scorch the cakes. They require longer baking than for single cookies.
For filling for cookies take one-half cup each of sugar and water, one teaspoonful of flour, and one cup of chopped raisins, figs or dates, or a portion of each. Cook until thick, stirring to prevent burning.

This filling is nice for layer cakes also.

Cornmeal Potpie.

Cut into small slices about one pound of pork or chicken (or both mixed), add a little salt and boil until tender; scald one quart of cornmeal, add salt and flour, tablespoon of butter; stir into this a handful of flour and two beaten eggs and into this pour enough broth to make a batter. Now take a half cup of tomatoes, add little butter and two teaspoons of chili powder, and cook until well done. Add this to the meat and mix well. Now line some pie pans with the meat mixture, then put in the meat, mix into layers as for chicken pie, bake slowly, and when nearly done dress over with butter.

Rolls Apple Dumplings.

Peel and chop fine tart apples, make a crust of one cup rich butter-milk, one teaspoon soda and flour enough to roll. Roll half an inch thick, spread with the apple, sprinkle well with sugar and cinnamon, cut in strips two inches wide, roll up like jelly cake. Set the rolls in a dripping pan, lay a teaspoon of butter on each, put in a moderate oven and bake them often with the juice.
Serve with cream.

Mock Angel Food.

Take one cup milk, one cup flour, one cup sugar, two teaspoons baking powder, pinch of salt, whites of two eggs beaten stiff. Heat milk to boiling point. Sift together flour, sugar, salt and baking powder several times. Stir in hot milk and beaten whites of eggs. Do not flavor cake or grease baking pan, but flavor icing.
This recipe closely followed can be compared with any real angel food. It should be beaten about 20 minutes in hot oven, not too hot.

Strawberry Mousse.

In one bowl crush ripe strawberries to a pulp and in another whip confectioner's cream to stiffness, adding a little sugar. Put the mashed strawberries and their juice into the whipped cream, stir together thoroughly and pack brick molds with the mixture. Cover the molds completely with cracked ice and allow to stand for four hours.

A Mother's Care.

A careful mother will not give her child a medicine without knowing it is pure, contains no opiates, and has healing and curative qualities. Such a medicine is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for croup, whooping cough, bronchitis, and all affections of the throat, chest and lungs. Best and safest for children and grown persons. Contains no opiates. For sale by all dealers.

In cases of rheumatism relief from pain makes sleep and rest possible. This may be obtained by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. For sale by all dealers.

SOCIAL FUNCTION, BALL AT STANFIELD

BIG TIME IS PREPARED FOR AT DEDICATION OF HALL

New Auditorium to Be Fittingly Put Into Service With Program Under Auspices of Hustling Commercial Association.

On Thursday evening, May 2nd, the fine, large hall occupying the entire second floor of the handsome new concrete business block being completed by Dr. G. E. Watts will be formally opened to public use and enjoyment, with the most comprehensive and elaborate social function ever held in this part of the county. It will be a splendid ball given by the Stanfield Commercial Club, and for the benefit of the club.
The Commercial Club has long desired to entertain its friends from the county and from other towns in this county and elsewhere. Prior to the completion of this magnificent new building, however, there has been no room suitable.

The hall will be beautifully decorated especially for the occasion by the committee of ladies who have been invited by President Sloan to assist the club in that capacity.

The new hall has a polished maple floor. The music will be especially good the music committee having secured eight pieces of the United Orchestra of Pendleton, for the occasion.

A very large attendance is expected from the other towns in the county and every effort will be made to have the event so well arranged and managed as to insure the utmost of pleasure to all who are present.

Mayor Jas. Kyle of the arrangements committee, was in Pendleton today arranging for a special train which if secured, will leave Pendleton about 7 o'clock in the evening, returning at the close of the ball.
The arrangements committee is composed of the following well known citizens of Stanfield, Frank Sloan, president; G. L. Hurd, secretary; J. M. Kyle, mayor, and R. A. Hoite.
Those on the music committee are

Prof. Frank Caruth, A. W. Gray and P. H. Buchholz.

Through the courtesy of Dr. Watts the use of the hall has been donated to the Commercial Club so that the club treasury may profit the more.

When a medicine must be given to young children, it should be pleasant to take. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is made from loaf sugar and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it pleasant to take. It has no superior for colds, croup and whooping cough. For sale by all dealers.
