NOTICE TO DEMOCRATS.
To the Central Committeemen of the Democratic Party of Umatilla County:
Gentlemen:—This is to notify all of you who were not present at the meeting held here in Pendleton, Wednesday, 24th instant, that another meeting will be held at my office in the Smith-Crawford building on Saturday, 27th instant, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at which time a chairman and secretary will be elected for the next two years.
It is very important that as many of you attend the meeting Saturday as can conveniently do so.
You will remember that several weeks ago I resigned as chairman. I have now been elected as one of the five presidential electors on the democratic ticket and I do not want to be re-elected chairman. I have held this office for four years. I hope that you will take an interest in this matter and elect some good, active democrat as my successor; also that some good, active person will be elected as secretary. This is a democratic year and it behooves all of us to get busy and take an active part in the forthcoming campaign.
Yours truly,
WILL M. PETERSON.

Frees Prisoners on Birthday.
There are two days of the year on which Police Judge Thomas Fitz Gerald removes the mask of sternness from his countenance and allows the more merciful qualities of his nature to shine forth. These days are Christmas and his birthday and happy the unfortunate who happens to be confined in the city jail on either one of these days, for to him is extended an undesired clemency. Today the judge is celebrating his birthday, and in accordance with his custom, ordered the four inmates of the municipal bastille to "go free and sin no more." Needless to say, they were a grateful four and expressed the wish that the judge could have 365 birthdays in the year. "Heap good judge," is the way "Ti-co-ne, the old Indian offender, expressed his gratitude.

THE $15.00 WATCH FOR WOMAN

Some folks think a woman's watch is merely a decorative piece of jewelry—to be worn only on festive and formal occasions and stored the rest of the time in the back of the top drawer of the bureau—underneath the handkerchiefs—where the burglars can't find it.
This is not that kind of a watch.
It's an Elgin. The word ELGIN is an expression commonly used to describe timekeeping.
You should give your wife one of these watches—she'll use it all day from the time she gives the breakfast eggs a three minute boil until she puts the children to bed. It will help her to bring order into all workings of the household.

EXTRA MADAME SARAH BERNHARDT = EXTRA
The World's Greatest Actress in Her Greatest Success CAMILLE
Twenty-Five Hundred Feet COSY THEATRE Fri. and Sat., April 26-27
SPECIAL NOTICE: This is positively the first and only appearance of Mme. Bernhardt in motion pictures. In "CAMILLE" you have your only opportunity of seeing this world renowned actress.

Of this "Camille" the London "Telegram" says: The finest star in Madame Bernhardt's crown as all the world knows is her Marguerite Gauthier. Surely she never played the part more finely than now. The scenes are essential in every liberal theatrical education. No one has ever denied her conquering fascination. Can one ever praise too much that wonderful last scene, its pathos and passion, its fire and tenderness, its infinitely pious beauty? Who in our day but Madame Bernhardt has ever been so vivid? Who has had the power so to reveal the passion of the soul through the dying body's frailty?
It is the supreme dramatic masterpiece of the age.

TO OUR PATRONS—On account of the tremendous demand for these films, we were obliged to pay an enormous sum for the privilege of using them, therefore we are obliged to raise the price of admission to
15c and 25 Cents
in order to break even.
In all the world no other picture to equal these. At the summit of her glory Sarah Bernhardt has conquered the new world of the Photo Play in "Camille," her finest role and the most popular drama in the history of the theatre.
AFTERNOON AND EVENING.

Consider:—Bernhardt has reigned for years the undisputed sovereign of the stage, history offers no parallel to her popularity. As late as this winter London went mad over her Camille. The critics deplored the weakness of their adjectives. So immense was her drawing power that for playing the last scene of "Camille" alone she was paid $10,000 per week. Think, then, what it means to have "Camille" incarnated by Bernhardt in motion pictures. Ever since the beginning of the motion picture art, it has been the dream of the studios to have Bernhardt for a subject. For years she resisted gold and entreaties. She consented only when convinced that the projective would be worthy of her glorious self.
