COW ATTACKS AND INJURES A WOMEN

MISS MINERVA MENDENHALL TRAMPLED BY VICIOUS BEAST

Wool Buyers Invade Echo and Secure Half Million Pounds of Fleeces for Eastern Markets—Sheepmen Storing Clip.

(Special Correspondence.) Echo, Ore., April 25.—Miss Minerva Mendenhall, who lives three miles west of Echo was quite severely injured on last Saturday by a young milk cow which attacked her knocking her down and trampling her. No help was near but her screams apparently frightened the cow which suddenly turned and fled. Miss Mendenhall was badly bruised but is able to get about now with crutches.

Wool Being Sold. Nearly half a million pounds of wool were sold at private sales in Echo this week and will be shipped east at once. The clip of Stanfield Brothers of 350,000 pounds will be sent to Boston, Mass. J. P. Dufour, a buyer of Woonsocket, R. I., bought the entire clip of John Kilkenny, 100,000 pounds, also McIntire's clip of 25,000 pounds. All the sales were made through Thomas Ross, manager of the Echo Wool Scouring Mills. The prices were not made public.

The regular wool sales day will not be held here until next month, but thousands of pounds of wool is being brought in each day and stored in the warehouses.

Miss Mable Conner of Stanfield is here learning to operate the keyboard of the E. O. L. Tel. company's office, and expects soon to accept a position as operator in the local office, made vacant by the resignation of Miss Geirgie Perry.

Wm. Hoggard of Stanfield was a visitor here Monday.

J. B. Saylor came from Freewater Tuesday and is looking after his interest in Echo and on Butter creek.

Mrs. Frank Spike and granddaughter, Elenor Spike, visited with friends in Pendleton the first of the week.

Miss Stella McCullough is visiting in Echo this week, the guest of Mrs. Ruth Young of Garden street.

ASK SUN PARLORS WHERE HOUSEMAIDS MAY COURT

Minneapolis.—Sun parlors, entered by side doors, should replace kitchens entered by back doors as places where the "hired help" may entertain their "gentlemen callers."

This is one of the many servant reforms which should be brought about according to Miss Rugna Halverson, a domestic, before the domestic science class of the Woman's Club here. In lieu of sun parlors, she declared that housewives must expect their maids ultimately to live in some central club house.

"I like to dance," said Miss Halverson who was one of the two to present the servant's side to the club women, "but what is open to me except the public dance hall? My friends, dressmakers, stenographers and saleswomen, are invited to club and private dances. Domestic servants are not so favored."

Here are some of the reforms which Miss Halverson advocated:

Mistresses to teach their children to respect the domestics.

Girls should have separate beds if not separate rooms.

Hours should be regulated.

A central club house for girls where they can entertain friends.

Mistress and girls should be on friendly terms and discuss evening entertainments.

SAN DIEGO DOES NOT WANT STATE INTERFERENCE

San Diego, Calif., April 25.—Captain John L. Sehon, city councilman and head of the police department, and Chief Detective Meyers, left today for Sacramento to see Governor Johnson concerning the free speech situation here. They bear a memorial adopted by the council, declaring that San Diego is fully able to cope with the situation and denying that city authorities handed over I. W. W.'s to the "vigilance committee" to be beaten and taken out of the county.

Even the intoxication of love may result in a headache the morning after.

CAMPANILLE DEDICATION IS IMPRESSIVE AFFAIR

Venice, April 25.—In the presence of official representatives from every city and province in Italy and practically ever country in Europe, the new Campanille, or bell tower of the famous St. Marks cathedral was dedicated. Pope Pius, in the vatican heard the speeches and cheers over a long distance telephone.

His holiness' interest culminated when the telephone transmitted to him the ring out of the new bells of the Campanille. He cried out with all the eagerness of a boy: "I can hear Marangona. I can tell it from all the rest." Marangona is the bell Pope Pius himself presented to the Campanille.

PORTLAND MEN TO BOOST SCHOOL FARMING LANDS

Portland, Ore., April 25.—One hundred and twenty-five business and professional men of Portland left today for Oregon Agricultural College to study the work and arouse interest in favor of land for schools throughout the state. They left in a five-car special, touring the vicinity of McMinnville and Sheridan this afternoon to see the resources of that territory. A dinner and reception will be tendered tonight at Dallas. They pass all day tomorrow at Corvallis.

Puts End to Bad Habit. Things never look bright to one with "the blues." Ten to one the trouble is a sluggish liver, filling the system with bilious poison, that Dr. King's New Life Pills would expel. Try them. Let the joy of better feeling end "the blues." Best for stomach, liver and kidneys, 25c. Koepfens.
