INFORMATION ON EMMER AVAILABLE

To the Editor: In your issue of yesterday I notice that Mr. Hurd of Stanfield is making a laudable attempt to test the adaptation of the grain, black emmer, to the semi-arid lands in his vicinity. Farmers who desire further information as to this Russian importation might do well to communicate with B. C. Buffum of Worland, Wyoming. He is said to have successfully experimented with it, and to have developed an improved winter variety by crossing with winter wheat. The grain may be just what is wanted in the dry lands north of Echo in this county, where the soil is rich but the moisture limited. The literature upon this cereal tells us that black emmer is a strictly winter grain, having the appearance of barley, but having about the same food value for stock as wheat, to which it seems to be a near relative. It requires little moisture, yields often as much as seventy bushels to the acre. It is a northern production and will stand severe cold. I trust that others will emulate Mr. Hurd in this test and that the agricultural department of the government may be appealed to for added information. Respectfully, STEPHEN A. LOWELL.

SISTERS SERVE 50 YEARS.

Reformed Church Honors New York State Women for Teaching Record. Nyack, N. Y.—Nyack is proud of the Misses Katherine and Sarah Vanderbilt, who have achieved two records which probably will stand for all time. Record No. 1—They have gone to the Sunday school of the Reformed Church and taught in the infant class for fifty years. Record No. 2—They have not missed a Sunday in the half century. In honor of this fidelity to public worship a reception was held in the church and was attended by more than five hundred people. Resolutions were adopted thanking the Misses Vanderbilt for their past services. They resigned on March 24. During the evening resolutions were also adopted thanking Truman H. Baldwin for acting as superintendent for twenty-one years. Baldwin has also resigned.

No Appendix: Lost Temper. Munice, Ind.—That there is some weird, strange connection between the appendix and good temper is the belief set forth by Mrs. Nettie Franklin, suing Arthur Franklin for divorce after thirty-four years of married life. For twenty-nine years, she says, she and her husband lived together happily, and then he was attacked with appendicitis. In an Anderson hospital the appendix was removed, and after that his whole disposition changed, she sets forth in her complaint. With the loss of his appendix he grew moody and sullen, she avers, found constant fault with her, sometimes ignored her and even refused to pass food to her while at the table. Franklin is represented by an attorney, but will not contest the suit.

COMMISSION PLAN PAYS.

Iowa Town, Under New Rule for a Year, Records Economy, Progress. Marshalltown, Ia.—The city has just completed its first year under the commission plan of government. Reports covering the period show that the commission has surpassed the old administration in the economical and aggressive administration of the city's business. In spite of the fact that the commission issued $25,000 worth of bonds to take up unpaid warrants issued by the old administration, it reduced the city's debt from $85,367 to $75,325, a reduction of $10,042. The commission shows an increase of $15,064 in cash on hand at the end of its first year, as compared with the close of the last year of the old administration. The receipts from the city water plant have increased from $33,265 to $36,589 in the year by active work on the part of the clerk in collecting water rents. The city has put $22,239 into permanent improvements.

The women of this city are interested in the dance-hall problem, and an effort is being made to improve conditions. The weekly dances in the public dance halls have been discontinued, and the women have to provide some other innocent amusement to take their place.

LESS INFANTILE PARALYSIS.

Reported Cases in United States 5861 in 1910 and 1933 in 1911. Washington.—A statement issued by the United States Public Health and Marine Hospital Service shows that whereas there were 5861 cases of infantile paralysis reported to him in 1910 only 1933 were reported in 1911.

During 1910 he received reports of 950 deaths, and during 1911 440 deaths from this disease. The disease has been present during the last two years in all sections of the country, including Alaska, where the disease was reported in 1910 at Douglas, Chicago and Yakutat. In Delaware, Iowa, Massachusetts, and Pennsylvania, where the disease was prevalent in 1910, few cases were reported during 1911.

GIRL SHOOT RAPIDS IN TINY, FRAIL SKIFF

Miss Andrews Rescued and Held for Insanity; Men See the Perilous Voyage. Redding, Cal.—A young woman from San Francisco who refuses to give more of her name than "Miss Andrews" is held in the insane ward until friends can be located. She was captured as she was making a wild boat ride down the Sacramento River from Kennett in a channel that an experienced boatman would not chance in such a frail skiff. Miss Andrews has been employed as a domestic at the Shasta Springs hotel, near Dunsmuir. Before daylight she went to the river bank, got into a skiff and whirled away among rapids and rocks to the southward.

Awakening to a sense of her peril she screamed for help. A dozen men headed by the night watchman, ran down the track, keeping her in view in the river. At Coram, three miles south, the boat drifted into an eddy and swirled around and around until the rescuers arrived and took Miss Andrews to dry land. She was brought to Redding this afternoon and locked up in the insane ward. Miss Andrews is about twenty-five years old. She declares that she is not insane—only despondent.

Fore soreness of the muscles whether induced by violent exercise or injury, Chamberlain's Liniment is excellent. This liniment is also highly esteemed for the relief it affords in cases of rheumatism. Sold by all dealers.

Ban on Banker and Lawyer.

Sioux Falls, S. D.—At a meeting held by farmers living in the vicinity of Battle, twelve miles north of Sioux Falls, it was decided that they would not give their indorsement to any candidate for congress who was a lawyer or a banker. As there are only two republican candidates for congress in this district, one a banker and the other a lawyer, the farmers will make an effort to put a third candidate in the field.

FEAR OF WAR IS CONSUMING HOMES

STARTLING FACTS REVEALED BY A PEACE BULLETIN

War Debts of Europeans Has Grown to Twenty-six Billion Dollars Within Last Century—All Nations Burdened.

Washington, May 2.—The fear of war is consuming the homes of the rural and village populations of Germany, France, Great Britain and the United States in a single generation, according to a bulletin on the school observance of Peace day, which is soon to be issued for free distribution by the United States bureau of education.

In discussing the cost of war, the bulletin says in part: "War debt began with the nineteenth century. Not until the establishment of constitutional government had nations any credit in the world of finance. The bond of a king was notoriously bad security. Since 1800 the war debts of the nations have grown by leaps and bounds. That of Europe as a whole amounts to more than $26,000,000,000, bearing interest at the rate of $1,150,000,000 per year. All these endless caravans of ciphers represent sums which have never been paid, will never be paid, can never be paid, so long as the present system of national armament goes on. For practically the entire amount now raised by taxation in civilized nations go into the support of armies and navies. The United States, in splendid isolation from old entanglements without an enemy in the world, and bound by ties of blood and commerce to all civilized nations, spends 73 per cent of her income in this way. The civil, or non-military, expenditures of Europe are so small as to be negligible.

"At the present rate of expenditure the four countries of Germany, France, Great Britain and the United States will spend in the next 40 years, the life of one generation, for the support of armies and navies an amount sufficient to build 20,000,000 country and village houses at an average cost of $250 each. With father, mother, and four children in each of these houses they would furnish homes for 120,000,000 people, which is more than the total population of these four countries living in villages and the open country. Thus the fear of war is consuming the homes of the rural, and village population of these great nations in a single generation.

It is estimated that the total direct cost of the armies and navies of the world each year in time of peace is $2,500,000,000, which equals the total valuation of the wheat and corn crops of the whole of the United States."

The bureau of education's bulletin, which is entitled "Peace Day," contains suggestions and material for the observance in the public schools of the occasion, which comes on May 18. The bulletin was compiled and in part written by Mrs. Fannie Fern Andrews, secretary of the American School Peace League.

ENGINEER ON RANCH NEAR PASCO KILLED

Caught in Belt on Gasoline Engine, He Is Hurled Against Rock. Pasco, Wash.—William Klentzke met his death as the result of fracturing his skull while working over a gasoline engine used on the Cox Investment Company's ranch near here. He was engaged in soaping the belt of the engine and instead of working on the belt away from the fly wheel, it is said he worked toward the wheel. His hand was caught in the belt and he was thrown a distance of 12 feet, his head striking a rock, fracturing the skull. Dr. L. P. Murphy was hurried to the scene, but upon arrival found the man had died almost instantly. The body was brought into the city for burial. Klentzke leaves an aged mother, whose sole support he was.

STRANGER ATTEMPTS SUICIDE AT SUMPTER

Sumpter, Or.—A man giving the name of J. Kelly attempted to end his earthly troubles here last night but was prevented by prompt medical aid. In a note he had written he said he was a nameless wanderer without funds and no prospect of work, and therefore better off dead. He came here a few days ago looking for employment but also demonstrated that he was partial to intoxicants. He is out of danger and says nothing about making another attempt on his life.

Children sixteen years old and under must be home when the bell tolls, by the terms of the ordinance the mothers will ask the council to pass. Aurora has had a 9 o'clock curfew law for several years. It was enforced for a few months, but as the city grew larger the custom of ringing the bell every night at 9 o'clock died out.
