

Discouraged

The expression occurs so many times in letters from sick women, "I was completely discouraged." And there is always good reason for the discouragement. Years of pain and suffering. Doctor after doctor tried in vain. Medicines doing no lasting good. It is no wonder that the woman feels discouraged.

WOODROW WILSON'S MAJORITY IS 1584

COMPLETE RETURNS IN FROM ALL OREGON COUNTIES

Total Democratic Vote in State Primaries Was 17,956—Dr. Lane Has Plurality of Nearly Four Hundred.

Portland, Ore., May 2.—Woodrow

Wilson has a plurality over Champ Clark on the official count in Oregon of 1584 on the democratic primary vote for president. It became possible to give the final figures by the completion of the official count in Multnomah county.

Dr. Harry Lane's plurality in the state over Walter M. Pierce for the nomination for United States senator is an even 3806. In Multnomah county Lane received 2878, Pierce 692, O. P. Coshow 223 and M. A. Miller 214.

His plurality in the county was 2276 and his majority over all was 214. Outside Multnomah, Lane's lead over Pierce was 1524.

The total democratic vote of the state on president was 17,956. In the state outside of Multnomah county Wilson beat Clark 131 votes, and in Multnomah he had 1493 the best of it. As Harmon received only 656 votes in the state, Wilson has a majority over all of 898.

The only possibility of change in these figures is that some small errors have crept into the figures in transmission. There will be little, if any, deviation in the final figure to be issued from the office of secretary of state.

Wilson carried one more county than Clark, and in one county, Grant, their vote was a tie. Wilson won Benton, Clackamas, Columbia, Gilliam, Hood River, Josephine, Lincoln, Linn, Marion, Multnomah, Polk, Tillamook, Umatilla, Wasco, Washington and Yamhill.

Counties carried by Clark were Baker, Clatsop, Coos, Curry, Crook, Douglas, Harney, Klamath, Lake, Lane, Malheur, Morrow, Sherman, Union, Wallowa and Wheeler.

In the senatorial contest Lane carried 22 counties, Pierce led in nine and Coshow in two. Miller, who withdrew too late to have his name removed from the ballot, was completed with the highest vote in his home county of Linn.

Lane took the lead in Benton, Clackamas, Coos, Columbia, Crook, Gilliam, Hood River, Josephine, Klamath, Lake, Lane, Lincoln, Malheur, Marion, Multnomah, Polk, Sherman, Tillamook, Wasco, Washington, Wheeler and Yamhill.

Pierce was first in Baker, Clatsop, Grant, Harney, Jackson, Morrow, Umatilla, Union, Wallowa. Coshow was the leader in Curry and Douglas.

BANK CASHIER ROBBED EVEN THE CEMETERIES

Utica.—The entire defalcation of Frank T. Arnold, former cashier of the First National Bank at New Berlin will amount close to or exceed half a million dollars, or twice the amount first supposed. This amount includes the funds of the bank and the private securities entrusted to the banker's care by friends.

Arnold played no favorites in taking other people's money. He was treasurer of St. Andrew's Episcopal church and it became known today that the defuncting cashier had even appropriated the Sunday collections to his own use. The church is without funds Arnold having taken all in sight.

Arnold kept only one account at the bank; owing to this fact the funds of a number of organizations have entirely disappeared. The village cemetery had $900 in the bank, but no trace of it can be found. The water commissioners had $1800 in Arnold's hands, but that is gone. Then there was $6000 which was turned over to Arnold as trustee of the Beardsley estate to invest. There has also turned up another note of $10,000 which is declared to be a forgery. Arnold was also treasurer of the St. Andrew's Cemetery association which had a large amount of money left in trust for the care of burial lots. All of the association's funds have disappeared and it has no money to conduct the work this year.

WANTS IN THE STREET CLAD ONLY IN SHEET

Denver.—Dr. C. B. James, police surgeon, is not an advocate of any back to nature fads. He is not a vegetarian. Neither does he prefer a Roman toga to the garb of the twentieth century. Briefly, he is quite conventional, is partial to meat, dresses in ordinary apparel—yet early in the morning he appeared in lower Fourteenth street clad in what looked like the garb of a Caesar, and for all that lower Fourteenth street could be expected to infer Dr. James might have been a back-to-nature, a vegetarian or an exponent of the Duncanesque mode of living.

Dr. James, in brief, appeared in lower Fourteenth street clad in a sheet. It is not often that police surgeons frequent downtown streets garbed in sheets, but for Dr. James more may be said. The unfortunate situation in which the surgeon was placed was the result of a mistake and a distressing accident. He heard a gong. He was asleep at the time. He had removed his outer apparel and cast himself upon his cot. There is little or no call for the ambulance at three o'clock in the morning. When the surgeon heard the gong, however, he was instantly awake.

"That must be the ambulance," he breathed, as he gathered a sheet around him and stepped to the door. Investigation through the vestibule of the surgeon's quarters failed to reveal the presence of the ambulance in the street, so Dr. James stepped without and the door, after the manner of doors equipped with a spring catch, snapped shut.

The surgeon, clad in the sheet, stood in the street until his cries attracted the attention of the house duty man in police headquarters, and he was supplied with keys to admit him to the building.

Cushman With Walla Walla.
Walla Walla, Wash., May 2.—Despite the bad weather, Captain White and his squad of league players were out at fair grounds yesterday afternoon and put in two hours of hard practice, all the men getting a good workout in fielding and batting.

George Cushman, a former Whitman college player, joined the squad yesterday and will try out for a position in the infield. Cushman has been trying out with the Pendleton squad, but was recently let out and is trying to catch on with the local club.

Manager August Rade was in communication last night with Joe Cohn, the Spokane magnate, regarding Mauser, the twirler who was promised to the local club. President Cohn stated last night, however, that he was undecided as to whether he would release Mauser or Cochran to Walla Walla. He promised that he would probably let one of this pair go withing the next day or two.
