AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum.

Program for Friday's change. An extra good program for Friday's change. Four full reels of the best pictures.

1. Captain Jenks' Diplomacy. Vitagraph. Captain Jenks (John Bunny) has a happy way of making everybody happy. He brings about a happy reconciliation between father and son. The easiest way is the best.

2. Unwelcome Love. Pathe. A young girl in the office of a foundry is caught in an elevator shaft and is rescued by one Burns. Burns loves the girl, but the proprietor's daughter loves Burns and she seeks to do all the harm she can to every one who comes between her and Burns.

3. The Redemption of "Greek Joe". Selig. A true story of life in Alleghany coal mines. A mine explosion story that has many thrilling situations.

4. Wanted—A Wife. Melies. Tired of bachelor life Tom advertises for a wife and receives a favorable answer from a pretty girl. Tom's friends hear of it and when the girl arrives by train they smuggle her away and substitute a homely cook. Tom is discomfited to be sure, but in the end how he puts one over on the boys is a winner.

The Pastime.

Friday's change of program. The home of good pictures.

"His Father's Son." Vitagraph. A picture telling a story in which two interesting characters figure. A father played by Phillips and a son, played by Williams. There is a mother also a sweetheart in the picture. Brought up in luxury, Dick Livingston has every chance of sowing his wild oats. His behavior angers his father and he refuses to have anything more to do with him. Gives him $5000, tells him to depend on himself in the future. The whole portrayal is dramatically intense and brings before us one of life's truths more convincing than fiction.

"All in the Family." Essanay. Originality of story, vital interpretation and many phases that create roars of genuine hearty laughter, all combine to make this comedy drama a feature.

"The Spanish Cavalier." Edison. A picture suggested by the ever-popular song, tells a story abounding in romance and adventure. The cavalier goes away to the Spanish wars and the girl is true. She will not give her love even to a powerful lord and gets into dire trouble, is held by the Inquisition as a witch. Her lover is warned and returns to rescue her.

"Laughing Gas." C. G. P. C. This story is a scam from beginning to end.

Cosy.

Friday and Saturday, in addition to our regular program, Prof. Parks, the celebrated Alaskan explorer, will deliver a splendid illustrated lecture on the "Wonders of Alaska." This is easily worth the price of admission, and look over the rest of our program, it's great.

"Through Flaming Gates." Rex! Sensational fire picture, in which the wonderful emotional actress, Miss Marion Leonard appears at her very best. The mother had set her heart on going to ball; father was gone but would likely be home at any time, so she left the child alone. The house caught fire and here follows sensational and thrilling incidents in quick succession with a deeply emotional ending. It's a wonderful feature.

"After School." American. A western story picturing life on a western ranch and which tells a pretty story of a western school teacher and an attempted sacrifice which fell flat.

"The Chief's Downfall." Imp. Amusing story of a chief who posed as a count and got away with it—for awhile.

"Gaiety Weekly." England's new war aeroplane, championship skating contest at Moscow, New York dog show, train jumps through the bridge, bridge building while you wait, champion lady skater of the world, exciting hockey match, new German submarines, the world from an aeroplane, feats of the fakirs of India, strikers go to Washington, the fashions and lots of other events.

"A Change of Stripes." Imp. A whirlwind of fun. The convict was the means of trouble to a party of automobilists.

Coming Sunday and Monday, the ill-fated Titanic just got out and after starting on her fatal voyage. Showing cabins, lifeboats, crowds on ship and dock, Captain Smith on the bridge and many notables who were on board.

Parkes Wonders of Alaska.

Prof. W. Parkes, who gives his illustrated lecture on Wonders of Alaska tonight at the Cosy theater, comes highly recommended by the press of the country, and his short snappy tales of thrilling experiences with mighty icebergs and seven years of adventures in the far north are said to be scientific, educational and oftentimes intensely amusing. Theatrical managers throughout the country have always raised the price for this attraction. Although this lecture is in addition to the regular program, the manager of the Cosy theater says no, 10 cents to everybody.

The Grand.

Opening tonight, Vaudeville:

1. The musical McMillin Trio, featuring a nine year old boy violin player.

2. Sisters Beardisley, dancers and singers.

Photoplays: 1—Thirty Days at Hard Labor, an Edison prison comedy; 2—A Western Postmistress; 3—Heroes of the Mutiny.

FREE RIDE HOME FOR JAGS.

Police Board Plans Motor Car to Accommodate Westry Wayfarers.

Kansas City, Mo.—If the city council complies with department requests, the Metropolitan police will be strictly up to date.

A vehicle to be used in taking drunken men to their homes instead of locking them in the hold-over, a motor boat patrol and auto patrol wagons are some of the things that will be asked, according to statements that were made by the commissioners and W. E. Griffin, chief of police, at the meeting of the board.

Loss of Appetite is also loss of vitality, vigor, tone. To recover appetite and the rest take Hood's Sarsaparilla—that strengthens the stomach, perfects digestion, makes eating a pleasure. It also makes the blood rich and pure, and steadies the nerves.

REFORM SCHOOL FOR BOTH BOYS AND GIRLS

Salem, Or.—The discovery* was made by Governor West that the law creating the reform school intended it as a school for girls as well as boys but no steps have ever been taken to make provision for the former. The subject will be taken up by the state board with a view to carrying out the intent of the law.
