NEW LIBRARY IS UNDER DISCUSSION

HAILEY PROPERTY URGED AS IDEAL BUILDING SITE

Friends of Institution Have Already Started Agitation for New Home to Relieve Crowded Condition—Other Towns Busy.

With the city now owner of the Hailey property at the north end of the Main street bridge and directly across Main street from the Christian church, there is much speculation regarding the possible use the lot may be put to and a not to be mistaker movement has already been started by friends of the public library to urge the construction of a handsome library building there.

In discussing the proposed movement, parties interested in it point out the ideal location, which would afford an excellent view of the structure from any point on Main street. Also the crowded quarters at present used, in the city hall, will be used as material for furthering interest in the matter.

It is probable that the matter will be brought to the attention of the library board and later the city authorities.

Many new public libraries are being started in the state of Oregon. La Grande has voted a tax of $2700 a year and will open a new library on May 13.

There are new library associations at Myrtle Point, Brownsville, Joseph, Heppner and Cornelius. The following libraries, previously supported by associations, were given tax support beginning with January, 1912: Ontario, Woodburn, Springfield and Independence and Wasco county voted to establish the county library system with the public library at The Dalles, as a center.

Klamath county is also to have the county system and has applied to Mr. Carnegie for a county library building. Mr. Carnegie has offered money for a building, to McMinnville. The new building at Medford has recently been opened. Carnegie buildings are planned or being built in Salem, Ashland, Newberg, Dalles, Union, Albany and Portland.

BETTER GOODS FOR LESS MONEY

Charity or Bouquets.

Cambridge.—Should Wellesley College girls refrain from buying flowers and turn over the money they would spend in that manner to help feed the starving thousands in China?

The fair maids at that institution are considering this question very seriously as the result of an editorial in the college paper. The editorial, in part, follows:

"The writer chooses to be mercen### ary fro man economic standpoint. Do you know how much money Wellesley alone spent last year on cut flowers?

Do you know how many famine worn Chinese that would have given daily sustenance for months, since Chinese can live on three cents a day? Perhaps you think cut flowers justify, in aesthetic pleasure and benefit, their cost; and perhaps you cannot think of anything else to send your friend. Think about it."

Court Takes Missouri Tip.

Atlantic City.—"People have got to stop kicking pup dogs around even if they are only houn's," said Magistrate Williams in sentencing Angelo Ambrello of No. 2216 Atlantic avenue to ninety days in the county jail because he kicked a six months old dog into the middle of the street from the sidewalk.

QUESTIONS THEY ASK WHEN YOU SEEK JOB

Chicago.—The Rev. Dr. John T. Stone, a noted Episcopal divine, talked to the young men of his parish today on the questions asked by employers in different cities in investigating a man's personality.

"What man is worth," said Dr. Stone, "should be transposed to 'What is man?'"

"In Boston one is asked: 'What does he know?'"

"In New York it is: 'What does he get?'"

"In Philadelphia: 'Who was his grandfather?'"

"In Baltimore he is asked out to dinner."

"In Chicago it is asked: 'What can he do?'"

"There are three kinds of men: The man of yesterday, the man of today and the man of tomorrow. The first is not effective, while the last is a rainbow chaser. The man of today—right now—is the man for progress of country and government, right and truth."

But a bold man isn't necessarily brave.
