FOLKS PAST FIFTY MUST USE CASCARETS

What Glasses are to Weak Eyes, Cascarets are to Weak Bowels—A 10-cent Box Will Truly Amaze You.

Most old people give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles.

So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without arm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

quite ill for several days, is now convalescing.

Mrs. G. W. Patterson and Miss Leah Patterson left this morning on the local for their home in Portland. They have been the guests of Mrs. E. N. Wheeler for some weeks.

Is there anything in all this world that is of more importance to you than good digestion? Food must be eaten to sustain life and must be digested and converted into blood. When the digestion fails the whole body suffers. Chamberlain's Tablets are a rational and reliable cure for indigestion. They increase the flow of bile, purify the blood, strengthen the stomach, and tone up the whole digestive apparatus to a natural and healthy action. For sale by all dealers.

ASTOR REMEMBERS BOTH WIVES IN WILL.

Multi-Millionaire, Victim of Titanic, Leaves Estate of $150,000,000—Son Chief Inheritor—Instrument to be Read This Week.

New York.—Some time this week the will which Colonel Astor made just prior to his marriage to Miss Madeline Force last September, will be opened and read before the members of Colonel Astor's family.

This instrument is now in the possession of the legal firm of Carter, Ledyard & Milburn, of 54 Wall street, Edmund L. Baylies, of the firm, is said to be the one who will handle the probating of the will.

$150,000,000 in Estate.
It was learned from one who is in the best position to know the provisions of Colonel Astor's will, but who would not permit the publication of his name, that the total value of the estate left by the multi-millionaire who went down with the Titanic will be conservatively about $150,000,000.

This included the body of the original Astor estate, the accretions made through Colonel Astor's own investments and the personal estate willed to him by his mother, Mrs. William Astor.

Both Mrs. Madeline Force Astor and Mrs. Ava Willing Astor, Colonel Astor's first wife, are provided for under the will.

Son Chief Inheritor.
Vincent Astor will be the chief inheritor under the instrument left by his father. Muriel Astor, the daughter by his first wife, and whatever posthumous issue may be born of the second marriage will be amply provided for, according to the statement made today.

By the terms of the will it is authoritatively stated that Mrs. Madeline Force Astor has been left a life interest in the great Fifth avenue mansion, which she will continue to occupy. The will also makes full provision for the upkeep of the Astor residence during the life of Mrs. Astor.

The Choir Recital for the benefit of the choir of the Church of the Redeemer was given last evening at the home of Mrs. Edwin P. Marshall and was a most gratifying success, both financially and socially. The recital was arranged by the choir committee consisting of Mrs. J. R. Dickson, Mrs. Charles Quinney and Mrs. G. W. Phelps, and the program was given by the members of the choir assisted by Mr. Odessa Sterling of Walla Walla. The final number on the program was the composition by Mr. Elias Blum of the faculty of Whitman College, and as executed most beautifully by Mr. Sterling was a great treat to the music lovers present. The following is the program:

- Who is Sylvia..... Schubert
- Mr. John Dickson
- Woodland Croon Song..... Clutman
- In the Garden of My Heart..... Roma
- Mrs. Roy Alexander
- I Hear You Calling Me..... Marshall

- Danse Negre, opus, 58, No. 5.....
- Dialogue, opus, 72, No. 5..... Cyril Scott
- Capriccio, opus, 11 (new)..... Tchaikowsky
- Elias Blum
- Mr. Sterling

Largest of the week's social functions and one of the most delightful of recent afternoon events was the bridge party on Tuesday afternoon at the beautiful home of Mrs. Charles Greulich on North Main street, Mrs. Greulich and Mrs. J. N. Burgess being hostesses. Invitations had been issued to sixty-five and the large rooms were crowded with handsomely gowned matrons. Eleven tables played at bridge during the afternoon, Mrs. John F. Robinson and Mrs. Fred Earl capturing the score trophies. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of play. The guest list of the occasion includes the Mesdames R. Alexander, Roy Alexander, Nesmith Ankeney, Ben S. Burroughs, Ben L. Anshroughs, Charles Bonney, Wilson E. Brock, Charles Hamilton, C. K. Cranston, Frank Frazier, Lawrence G. Frazier, J. S. Gerard, Fred E. Judd, James Johns, G. I. La Dow, Wesley Matlock, William McCormack, A. J. McAllister, A. C. Hampton, Lee Moody, house, Mark Moorhouse, Laura Nash, Will Moore, Harry Reese, W. C. E. Pruitt, Aura Raley, G. M. Rice, John Montgomery, R. H. Raymond, Robert N. Stanfield, John F. Robinson, Charles M. Stype, Verklilat, W. L. Thompson, E. T. Wade, Sam R. Thompson, George Hartman, Jr., Tom Thompson, Henry Latz, Leona Thompson, Fowler, George Peringer, T. C. Taylor, Lina T. Sturgis, Gilbert W. Phelps, F. E. Lyvengood, Henry Collins, Will McKinney, Robert Forster, C. P. Bishop, Augusta Moule, A. L. Schafer, J. B. McCook, Thomas Vaughan, E. B. Aldrich, Lee D. Drake, A. W. Nye, C. F. Colesworthy, R. E. Ringo, Fred Earl, Edwin P. Marshall, A. D. Sloan and the Mesdames Edna Gates, Harriet Young and McNette.

A May Day wedding of much interest to Pendleton people occurred on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock when Miss Paralee Hatley was united in marriage to Mr. Charles W. Meighan at the home of the bride's parents, 303 Garfield street. The wedding was a very simple and quiet one, only the parents of the bride and the mother of the bridegroom witnessing the impressive ceremony which was performed by Rev. Charles Quinney, rector of the Church of the Redeemer. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hatley, Jr., and has lived the greater part of her life here in Pendleton. She was a very popular and charming member of the younger society circles and her marriage is regretted only because it takes her from the midst of life-long friends. Mr. Meighan is a young newspaperman of much experience and until recently was editor of a local paper. Though his residence in Pendleton was only of a year's duration, he made a great many friends here and both he and his bride were the recipients of a profusion of felicitations and well wishes prior to their departure yesterday evening for Weiser, Idaho, where Mr. Meighan has just been chosen as secretary of the Commercial club.

Lovers of real music were given another rare treat and another demonstration of the truth of genius and inspiration when the Royal College of Porpora presented Mr. John Rothlisberger Braden in a graduating violin recital, Wednesday evening. Mr. Braden's reputation as a violinist of great ability called forth an appreciative audience that responded to the beautiful rendering of the evening's program with enthusiastic applause. The brilliant numbers and the simpler exquisite melodies were played alike with artistic finish, the Dvorak Humoresque and the Drdla Souvenir being especially appreciated. The climax of the evening was de Berlioz's Concerto VII, which was received with prolonged applause. Mr. Braden responded generously to encores throughout the evening. Professor Charles Ovid Blakkelee assisting, Mr. Braden, delighted the audience with a masterly interpretation of the Liszt Rhapsodie VI, responding to encores with a beautiful improvisation. Three vocal numbers, also, were given by Professor Blakkelee, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. John Ross Dickson. The studio parlors were decorated with a profusion of spring flowers, adding to the beauty of the evening. Mr. Braden's recital marks the third of a series given by the Royal College of Porpora, Mrs. John Ross Dickson having appeared in song recital and Alta Elmer, the child genius, in testimonial piano recital. The degree of Bachelor of Music was conferred upon Mr. Braden who is retained as violin instructor by the college. The program Wednesday evening include the following numbers:

- 1. a. Adoration..... Borowski
- b. Humoresque..... Dvorak
- 2. Rhapsodie VI..... Liszt
- 3. Concerto VII..... de Berlioz
- 4. Two Sons—
- a. To a Water Lily..... Grieg
- b. The Princess..... Grieg
- 5. a. Liebestraum..... Liszt
- b. Souvenir..... Drdla

Mrs. Clark Nelson was hostess this week to the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge Club, Mrs. Fred Earl capturing the prize in the play.

The North Side Bridge Club met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Greulich. The trophy for high score was won by Mrs. Henry Dickson Jones.

Mrs. Francis Pope of Walla Walla, who recently returned with her husband, Captain Pope, from a sojourn in the Philippines, visited during the week at the home of her brother, Nesmith Ankeney.

Mrs. J. Roy Raley arrived home the first of the week from Portland where she had been visiting since her return from Los Angeles.

The members of the Modern Brotherhood of America had an enjoyable time in Eagles-Woodman Hall Thursday night. Dancing was the order of the evening.

Friends of Miss Pansy Ireland in this city will be interested to know of her marriage in Portland during the week to Jack E. Shoelenger. Miss Ireland was formerly a Pendleton girl and is a graduate of the local high school but about a year ago she moved to Portland with her parents. She and her husband will continue to reside in the Rose City.

The Busy Bee Club spent a delightful afternoon Tuesday with Mrs. Smith on Stonewall Jackson street.
