RECORD FRUIT CROP EXPECTED, MILTON

Milton, Ore., May 7.—Great preparations are being made for the handling of the fruit crop in this section of the valley. Fruitgrowers are satisfied that there is little danger of frost this late in the season. Even though there has been a great deal of rain and the crop generally held back, all indications are that the cool, moist

JUST TRY A TEN CENT BOX OF CASCARETS

Insures You for Months Against a Sick Headache, Biliousness, Constipation or a Bad Stomach.

Put aside—just once—the salts, cathartic pills, castor oils or purgative waters which merely force a passage through the bowels, but do not thoroughly cleanse, freshen and purify these drainage or alimentary organs, and have no effect whatever upon the liver and stomach.

Keep your sinuses pure and fresh with Cascarets, which thoroughly cleanse the stomach, remove the undigested, sour and fermenting food and fowl gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poisons in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never gripe, sicken and cost only 10 cents a box from your druggist. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never have headache, biliousness, coated tongue, indigestion, sour stomach or constipated bowels. Cascarets belong in every household. Children just love to take them.

weather has been of benefit, in that it has prevented the opening of the buds while there was danger of frost.

Prominent fruit men of this section state that the prospects are good for the heaviest crop this valley has ever had, especially peaches, plums and apples. Some days ago it was stated that the aphids were about to injure the peaches, but it is thought that this is a mistake, as the buds are too far along to be injured by them. Of course, it may be that harm has been done by this insect in a few of the orchards, but it has not yet come under the observation of the fruit men of this city.

It has been estimated that the growers of this section will have to pull off, in thinning, 80 per cent or more of the peaches that will be on the trees. This will be a greater and more expensive job than gathering the fruit for shipment, as it usually requires two or three thinnings.

Two years ago, the earliest season in the history of the valley for strawberries, was about a month earlier than the present one will be. That year the local Fruit Growers' Union shipped the first car of berries on the second day of May, and before that time for two weeks had been sending out several crates a day to local towns. There are large berries on the vines now, and with a few days' sunshine will mature very rapidly.

COLORED MAN SHOTS AND KILLS HIS WIFE

Portland, Ore.—Arthur Hamilton, colored, shot and killed his wife, Fanny Hamilton, at 145 Twelfth street, while Mrs. Hamilton was standing at the gate of a rooming house, where she has been living since she has had trouble with her husband. The shooting occurred just as the woman was returning from the theater with J. T. Stephens of 522 Washington street.

After firing the three shots, all of which entered the woman's body, Hamilton fled down the street and was arrested by Patrolmen Evans and Gouldstone at Seventh and Flanders streets and later, after having been taken to police headquarters and then to the morgue, where he viewed the remains of the dead woman, he made a full confession of the affair, which was transcribed and signed by him. Attorney Lew Dawley was retained to defend the man, and when the case came up before Judge Tazewell preliminary hearing was waived and the man was bound over to the grand jury.

Is there anything in all this world that is of more importance to you than good digestion? Food must be eaten to sustain life and must be digested and converted into blood. When the digestion fails the whole body suffers. Chamberlain's Tablets are a rational and reliable cure for indigestion. They increase the flow of bile, purify the blood, strengthen the stomach, and tone up the whole digestive apparatus to a natural and healthy action. For sale by all dealers.

TRANS-OREGON LINE WANTS LABORERS

OREGON EASTERN RAILROAD BUILDING SOON TO START

Two Thousand Men to Be Sent Into Malheur Canyon District Grading Camps to Rush Construction Work on New Road.

Vale, Ore., May 7.—Between 2000 and 3000 railroad laborers are to be rushed to Vale and into the Malheur canyon railroad camps on the Oregon Eastern, according to reports being given out here from railroad men who are keeping posted on construction work on the new trans-Oregon line. Information is that the army of railroad laborers will be sent to Vale even before the general budget of railroad appropriations is made known to the general public.

At present the railroad building west of this city is moving slowly, but surely, delay being due to a lack of money, the first appropriation for this work having given out. However, practically all of the first 1-5 miles of grading from this city is completed and the big cut, 68 feet deep and 1605 feet in length, at mile post 15, will be completed within another week.

At the big 2600 foot tunnel, between mile post 39 and 40, the operations are well under way and the air drills have already penetrated 60 feet into the rocky mountains. The work here has been tedious, especially the construction of the approach, as the rocky bluff has had to be torn down to a height of 200 feet in order to properly build the eastern entrance to the tunnel. Considerable work has also been done on the western approach and portal on the other side of the mountain.

The high water stage of the Malheur river in the narrow rocky gorge, has been one of the causes for the slow operations and has made hauling of supplies to the Malheur camps difficult. The river must be forded nearly 20 times and several of these fording places are dangerous, as the water is deep, swift and over the horses' backs. Six or seven fine animals have been lost since the first of the year, while fording the Malheur river. At present the river is two feet higher than it was a few weeks ago, on account of the recent downpour of rain. And the large amount of snow still in the mountains is causing more anxiety to the railroaders and freighters.

In order to eliminate some of these risks and losses, between half a mile and a mile of wagon road is being built along the edge of the rocky precipice, near the Wasatch camp at mile post 37. The work is tedious and costly, as the road must be cut into soft rock, but it will do away with two of the worst fording places, where so many horses and mules of freighting outfits have been lost.

POSSES PURSUING OFFICER'S SLAYERS

Heavy Firing Heard Near Clinton and Believed Fight has Started.

Vancouver, B. C.—Despatches from Ashcroft, B. C., state that three posesses, all heavily armed, are in pursuit of Moses Paul and Paul Quintana, the murderers of Constable Kindness and two others, who escaped from the old log jail at Clinton, and that a pitched battle is expected before the desperadoes are captured. Heavy firing has been heard south of Clinton and fears are felt that the murderers have invaded one of the lonely ranches in the district in their search for food.

The fugitives are dead shots and it is expected that loss of other lives will occur before they are taken or disabled.

HARMONY PETITIONS ARE FREELY SIGNED

ALL OREGON REPORTED TO BE SUPPORTING MEASURES

Volunteer Circulation in Each of Thirty-four Oregon Counties Meeting With Encouragement in Furthering Good Roads.

Portland, Ore., May 7.—All Oregon is working for the road bills. Hundreds of signatures for the six harmony highway petitions are being secured by volunteer circulators in each of the 34 counties. This activity is in advance of "Good Roads Day," on May 11, set aside by proclamation of Governor West. On "Good Roads Day" the commercial and other organizations of each community have been asked to assemble, study the bills and sign the petitions.

Enthusiastic reports were received in good roads headquarters from Washington, Harney, Clatsop, Josephine and Clackamas counties. These bore out previously received reports of work going forward in other counties.

The fact that the harmony highway petitions will distribute the cost of roads equally among cities and county districts, where before the county road districts have paid all the cost, has been received with great popular approval. The plan for state bonds limited in the aggregate to 2 per cent of assessed valuation, so that roads may be paid for out of increased business caused by the building, is also proving a popular plan. That the building, locating, and directing of road construction is left entirely in the control of each county whether state aid is accepted or not, has won appreciation from the apparent majority who would rather see the highway commissioner placed in an advisory position than dictatorial. This is the position proposed in the harmony highway bills. A plea for highway construction that leaves the issue to each county as a unit, yet provides so attractive and practical a system that roads by it will be built uniformly throughout the state, has multiplied the supporters of the bills.

There are a great number who greatly dislike to have to plunge from the well built highways of the progressive county into the mudholes of an unprogressive county. The statewide good roads association has adopted from the national organization arguments which further establish the value of the building system proposed by the harmony measures.

"Improved roads will bring—
"Better schools and greater attendance.
"Better health and quicker medical attention.
"Better farms and more cultivated land.
"Better crops and cheaper transportation.
"Better economic conditions and more producers.
"Better social conditions and less isolation.
"Better church attendance and better citizens."

JUDGE CALLS PECK'S REPLY TO GIRL'S SUIT "SCANDALOUS"

New York.—Professor Harry Thurston Peck, formerly head of the Latin department of Columbia university, met with serious setback in his defense of the suit brought against him by Miss Esther Quinn for $50,000 for alleged breach of promise.

Holding that certain matters set forth in Peck's answer are "positively scandalous," Supreme Court Justice Erlanger granted a motion to vacate and set aside the entire document.

"In action for a breach of promise," Supreme Court Justice Erlanger said, "the proposition that improper relationship of the plaintiff prior to the promise and unknown to the defendant or subsequent to the promise with another than the defendant, as a defense is fundamental. So far as the answer attempts to allege such a defense it is beyond criticism."

"The other matter in the answer following the words 'and has kept disreputable company with men' has no place in the pleading. Its character is so clearly improper as to require no argument to condemn it. Mr. Justice Bischoff, in the case of Zimmerman, on a motion to strike out scurrilous allegations, not only granted the motion but struck out the entire pleading and vacated the source thereof.

This last winter and spring I was in very poor health. I was weak and had lost all my appetite and I was all run down. As I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla my strength came back and my appetite returned. I am now well, do my housework, and no longer have that tired feeling."

SUFFERED EVERYTHING

For Fourteen Years. Restored To Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Elgin, Ill.—"After fourteen years of suffering everything from female complaints, I am at last restored to health. 'I employed the best doctors and even went to the hospital for treatment and was told there was no help for me. But while taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I began to improve and I continued its use until I was made well.'—Mrs. HENRY LEISEBERG, 743 Adams St. Kearneysville, W. Va.—"I feel it my duty to write and say what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered from female weakness and at times felt so miserable I could hardly endure being on my feet. 'After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and following your special directions, my trouble is gone. Words fail to express my thankfulness. I recommend your medicine to all my friends.'—Mrs. G. B. WHITTINGTON.

The above are only two of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which show clearly what great things Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound does for those who suffer from woman's ills.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

scandalous attacks in the records of a court can not be too severely reprobated. The motion to expunge from the answer all the matter succeeding the words above quoted is granted, the entire pleading struck out and its service vacated and set aside, with $10 costs."

Professor Peck's lawyers sprang a surprise on Miss Quinn a few weeks ago when they persuaded Justice Platsek to dismiss Miss Quinn's complaint on a technicality. But the court allowed Miss Quinn five days in which to prepare and serve an amended complaint, and it is Professor Peck's answer to this complaint that is now knocked out.
