DIAMOND DUST

Walla Walla has signed up Jack Tozer, who played second base for the Spokane Indians last year.

The La Grande team goes by the name of Pippins. Here's hoping they will be easy pickings.

Garrett has his team picked and signed now and the great majority of local fans will back it for a pennant winner.

To the minds of many of the learned fans, the Buckaroos are a better team than the Bears despite the fact that the latter took the series. Time will prove the assertion, they say.

Someone said that Augustus could field but couldn't hit the ball. Answer: For two series he tops the list in batting averages with a percentage of .325.

The five dollar fine which Umpire Knell plastered on Manager Garrett Sunday is the first that player has drawn in all his professional career, and he didn't get to say what was on his mind then.

Davolt and Mountain had to go, although both gave promise of developing. The former in particular showed signs of ability but he got off on the wrong foot and his performance was not up to that of Jimmie Menser.

All of the Pendleton players are under contract and the total of their salaries is twenty bucks under the $1200 limit. Some of the other clubs are going to experience some difficulty in cutting down to that amount.

Walla Walla is trying to pass it out that Manager Cohn of the Spokane Indians is paying the full salaries of three of the Bears. This to bring the aggregate salaries down to the $1200 mark, but the dope is pretty thin to be swallowed without a grimace.

A Walla Walla paper gives the Buckaroos credit for pilfering more bags than the Bears and assigns as the reason the alleged fact that the latter play the hit and run game. It is to laugh. Walla Walla played the hit and run game just once in two weeks and refrained from stealing bases out of wholesome respect for the whip arms of Catchers Pembroke and Wilson.

HERMISTON BEATS STANFIELD, 2 TO 1

(Special Correspondence). Hermiston, Ore., May 21.—The Stanfield-Hermiston ball game Sunday was called off in the fifth inning on account of a storm. The score was 2 to 1 in favor of Hermiston. The game was a comedy of errors.

William H. Skinner has left for Calgary, Canada, to dispose of some land and will return in about a week.

John W. Messner, of the Western Land and Irrigation company arrived in Hermiston Saturday and spent Sunday looking over the project of the company. He is greatly pleased with the work that has been accomplished by Dr. Stapish and also with the improvements on the project.

Letters have been received from Frank B. Roscoe, formerly of Hermiston, now located at Greenwich, Ohio, saying he expects to return to Hermiston this fall. He has 40 acres of land under the project.
