WILSON, BUCKAROOS' CATCHER, LEADS ALL BATTING

Ends Last Series With Average of .500; Pembroke a Close Second.

Pendleton's two catchers, Wilson and Pembroke, were the leading batters of the series last week, the former's stickwork netting him an average of .500 and the latter clouting the sphere for .429. Both played in four games, Wilson having taken an outfield position in two. Besides these two players, there were four other Buckaroos, Mensor, Augustus, Teek and Nadeau above the .300 mark at the conclusion of the series. Rader, who has been leading the team, fell down considerably, so many south-paws working against him. The entire team batted .289, which is going at a good clip.

Scott, the new backstop, who has just been traded to Boise, led his teammates, touching up the local twirlers for a .375 average, while Luttrell, the Boise castoff playing at third for the Pippins, followed with .360. Walters was the only other one of Bradley's men to beat the .300 mark. The team average for La Grande was .224.

The visitors were outfielded as well as outbatted, the two averages being .943 and .914. The following are the individual batting averages:

BOISE TEAM PLAYS FIRST GAME HERE

This afternoon commences the sixth straight week of the Western Tri-State season and Pendleton mixes for the first time with Boise on the home grounds. Fresh from giving Walla Walla a drubbing, Dad Gimlin and his bunch of sparklers arrived on the early train this morning and are confident of taking the series from the Buckaroos who are now one-half game ahead of them.

Boise enters upon this series minus Killings, the star twirler recently purchased from Salt Lake. However, despite the purchase, it was discovered that Missoula had a waiver on him and he was withdrawn from the Irrigators. Gimlin is also without Carl King, his alternate catcher, having traded him last night to La Grande for Scott, the hard hitting backstop who captained the Pippins last week. Gimlin states that he will work Scott in the outfield this week.

The Buckaroos enter the series with only three pitchers and short an outfielder, Jimmie Mensor being troubled with an abscess on his foot which will keep him out of the game for a couple of days. He had it lanced last night and left this morning for Pilot Rock out from which burg he will spend his vacation angling.

That La Grande with the services of Jack Barry as manager, will soon start on an upward climb is the prediction of Gimlin. While in La Grande for a short time last evening, Gimlin declares he was given to understand that the fans of that city have subscribed $5000 in cash and intend spending it all on a team. Barry himself draws $300 a month, he states. Just how the Union county club can be thus lavish and make a pretense at staying within the salary limit is not explained at this time. Gimlin declares he is now $20 under the limit and intends to remain under $1200 whether he wins or loses. "My club will not stand for a violation of this provision," he declared this morning. "I was told to get any players I could with that amount of money but if more were required to leave them alone."

The Boise team is accompanied by Green, the sporting writer of the Boise Statesman, and to him the East Oregonian is indebted for the following batting averages for the Boise players during the last two series:

BARRY OF SEATTLE TO MANAGE PIPPINS

La Grande, Ore., June 11.—J. C. (Jack) Barry, until recently manager of the Seattle club in the Northwest-ern league, yesterday took over the management of the La Grande club in the Western Tri-State league. The contract between Mr. Barry and the local nabobs of baseball is the fruit of a careful scrutiny of the Northwest managerial forces wherein Barry's face loomed the most portentous and most accessible. The veteran manager comes from Seattle to take sole management of the La Grande club in an endeavor to pull the cellarites out and start them toward a higher plane. Just how it will be done is yet to be ferreted out by Mr. Barry—he knows nothing of the local conditions, knows but one of the players, Southpaw McIvor, and has a vast amount of detail to digest. For all that he will wade into the momentous task as rapidly as possible and this afternoon will get his first taste of Tri-State ball when he handles the managerial reins against Walla Walla.

Salary Is Fancy.
Seattle, Wash., June 11.—That Barry should take the management of the La Grande club came as a sort of surprise to himself and his friends in fact, he hardly expected that his offer would be accepted. A day or so ago a telegram came from the owners of the La Grande club, which is in a league composed of Walla Walla, Pendleton and Boise, asking him for his terms. Without giving the matter much thought, Barry had a reply sent naming a rather fancy salary and calling for some ready cash. The next thing he knew he was snapped up by wire and the cash was on its way to Seattle. The upshot of the matter was that Jack left to take charge of his new club. His family will remain in Seattle for the present.

GENERAL DELIVERY USED FOR IMMORAL PURPOSES
J. H. Callanan Declares Postmasters Should Try to Check 50 Per Cent of It.
Rochester.—The New York State Postmasters' association met in convention here and James H. Callanan, the president, delivered the principal address. Among other things he said: "Approximately 50 per cent of the persons calling for mail at general delivery windows of city postoffices do so for illicit purposes, and a large proportion of them give fictitious names. The general delivery privilege is becoming an instrument for the furthering of immorality which the postmasters of New York should check to the fullest possible degree. We all know that the general delivery privileges are very greatly abused. It is our duty to check to the fullest degree, even if we cannot prevent entirely, young men and women and even adults from using the general delivery to advance immorality. "Two decided improvements which this association has discussed and urged have been authorized during the last six months. I refer to the present certification of three names to postmasters in the appointment of rural carriers and the authority given us to suspend clerks and carriers at once without going through a lot of red tape and delay."

BLAMES R. R. FOR LYNCHING; CARRIES MOB TO GET MAN
Washington, D. C.—Whether a railroad that carries a mob to town to lynch a man is liable to damages to the victim's widow and children is a unique point to be brought before the supreme court of the United States. The case will be preented tomorrow, with a request to review. Mrs. Annie May Rogers and three children sued the Vicksburg, Shreveport & Pacific Railroad company on charges of having carried by special train a mob from Monroe, La., to Tallulah, where Rogers was lynched. He had been charged with murdering a man and was about to be released on the ground that he had been tried once before on the charge. The lower federal court held that as a matter of law the railroad might be liable.
