Dick Sullivan Very Low.

Dick Sullivan, proprietor of the Pendleton Dye Works, who has been in the hospital for the past ten days suffering from an attack of typhoid fever, is reported very low today and his mother and sister in San Jose, California, have been notified.

Parish Aid to Feed Crowd.

The ladies of the Parish Aid of the Church of the Redeemer announce that they will serve dinner Friday noon at the Golden Rule Hotel in order to assist in the feeding of the crowd which will be here for the 1912 Ranch show.

Twelve Men With Boise.

The following is the personnel of the Boise baseball team which arrived this morning and which is stopping at the Bowman: Gimlin, manager and centerfield; Smith, W. Fox, Mays and Blackman, pitchers; Altermatt, short stop; Lundstrum, third base; Clark, first base; Jansen, second base; West, left field; Clyde Fox, catcher, and Scott, catcher and right field.

Horses Mysteriously Disappear.

The disappearance of several horses from the city recently is becoming one of the mysteries which bid fair to remain unsolved. Six weeks ago, the horse owned by L. G. Prazier disappeared from Round-up Park and neither hide nor hair of it has been seen or heard of since. Now comes the report of the fine team of chestnuts owned by Ed Strahorn missing, and whether they were stolen or strayed away, there is no trace of them to be found.

Eight Pounder Arrives.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jess Vaughan at their home at 608 Post street, an eight pound boy.

Begins Excavation.

E. F. Averill yesterday commenced excavating on the lot which he recently purchased on Perkins avenue preparatory to building a bungalow.

Sues to Collect Money.

A. D. Rhonimus today commenced suit against E. J. Wilbur to collect $1677.50 and interest which he alleges to be due for pine timber sold by him to the defendant. Rhonimus is acting as his own attorney.

Accused of Jumping Board Bill.

R. Lee has been arrested and charged with jumping his board bill. At his preliminary hearing before Judge Parkes yesterday he asked for time to secure witnesses and will stand trial.

More Cement Walk.

Workmen have commenced tearing away the old board sidewalk on Webb and Cottonwood streets along the property owned by George Darveau and it will be replaced by a cement walk. The actual laying of the new cement walk around the East Oregonian building was also commenced today.

Band Concert Tomorrow.

On account of the fact that the 101 Ranch is billed here for Friday night, the Round-up Cowboy band has decided to give its weekly street concert tomorrow evening instead of Friday, the customary evening. The instrumentation of the band is greatly strengthened by the addition of a fine new bass drum just purchased in Portland.

Billy Taylor in Jail.

Judge Fitz Gerald sentenced Billy Taylor, popularly known as "Shine," yesterday afternoon to five days in jail. "Shine" made the mistake of filling up on liquor and then carving the air in a threatening manner with a razor. Two drunks were also given the usual sentence in police court this morning.

COMMENCEMENT FOR ST. JOSEPH'S HELD

OREGON THEATRE FILLED WITH FRIENDS OF ACADEMY

Miss Nary Krisor is Sole Graduate This Year—Bishop O'Reilly of Baker City Delivers Principal Address of the Occasion.

With the Right Reverend C. J. O'Reilly, bishop of Baker, delivering the address and with Miss Nary Krisor of this city as the sole graduate the annual commencement program for the St. Joseph's academy was given at the Oregon theatre yesterday afternoon. For the occasion the theatre was filled with the friends and relatives of the pupils and the academy and the program was well received.

The following musical and literary program was given by the pupils and several of the numbers were of exceptional merit while all testified to the class of instruction given at the academy: Selection . . . ENTERS CONVENT, BUT IS WOODED AND WON

St. Louis.—Miss Emily Clopton, daughter of a wealthy and prominent St. Louis family, who entered a convent ten months ago with the intention of devoting her life to religion, was married at her home to Lieut. Elkin L. Franklin, thirteenth Calvary, U. S. A., stationed at Fort Riley, Kan. Bishop Scannel of Omaha, performed the ceremony.

Lieut. Franklin embraced Catholicism at the request of his bride, Miss Clopton, however, is the only Catholic in her family. Her mother died when she was quite young and she was placed in the Sacred Heart Convent in St. Louis. After she left there she took little interest in social affairs and last July startled her family with the announcement that she had decided to become a nun. She selected a convent at Rochester, N. Y., in which to enter the sisterhood. Last November she made a trip to Leavenworth, Kan., and there met Lieut. Franklin and was wooed and won.
