'HIKING' ELKS PASS THROUGH PENDLETON

TRIO FROM MISSOURI FOOTING IT TO PORTLAND

Walk Twenty-two Hundred Miles to Attend National Convention of Antlered Herd in Rose City—Resume Their Journey Today.

Brown as a tanned hide but in fine health and high spirits, C. D. Stone, F. S. Lyon and H. F. Clark, the three Elk hikers who are walking from their home in Brookfield, Missouri, to Portland to attend the national convention of their order, arrived in Pendleton at 5 o'clock Wednesday from Meacham, where they had spent the night. Yesterday they rested before starting on the last 200 miles of their 2200-mile trip and were guests of the local lodge No. 288. This morning at 8 o'clock they again took the track and plan to spend the night at Stanfield.

The three men, together with another member of Brookfield lodge No. 874, C. G. Johnson, left their home on April 8 with the announced intention of hiking to Portland for the convention. They did not undertake the trip on a wager but only in a spirit of adventure. While discussing the Portland convention in their lodge hall one evening, one of the trio remarked that if he went he would have to walk. Three others took him at his word and the trip was planned. Johnson, after being on the road twelve days, was forced to abandon the trip at Strang, Nebraska, because of sore feet, but his three companions kept on and have come this far without suffering any ill effects of their strenuous mode of travel. This is their 73rd day away from home and they have walked approximately 1975 miles. They plan to enter Portland on July 4, on which night the Portland lodge is planning to hold a reception for them as the opening of the grand convention.

The three hikers were met at the Mission Wednesday by members of the local lodge and that night were entertained at the club rooms. Umattila will be their stopping place tomorrow night and while in the seaport of the county they will be guests of Pete Tillson, being close friends of Tillson's brother in Missouri.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum.
An exceptionally good program for Friday's change. Four full reels of the best pictures.

1. The Redemption of Ben Farland. Vitagraph. There are enemies and enemies. Ben has two. He gets the best of them and redeems himself in the estimation of his sweetheart, winning her love and respect of others.

2. A Close Call. Biograph. A couple of street fakers, fall to draw a crowd, so decide to change their act. One of them blacking up and singing con songs. This might have proved a good drawing card had not the one blackened up been mistaken for a colored fellow who was suspected of kidnapping a child.

3. Helen's Marriage. Biograph. Helen and Tom try to elope, but papa catches them and drives Tom away. At first Tom's friends at the club give him the laugh, but next day when he tells them of a plan he has they all help him carry it out.

4. Her Convict Brother, Kalem. An intense drama of modern times featuring Miss Hazel Neason. The escape of her brother, who is serving a term in prison for a crime committed by another, to her summer home. How she saved him when her husband mistakes for an intruder.

5. Their Hero, Edison. A refreshing comedy depicting the infinite idealism of two college boys for "their hero," a warrior of the football fields. Though they meet their hero with adversity their worship continues and he proves himself worthy of it.

The Pastime.

The home of good pictures. Friday's change of program.

"Honor and the Sword." Lubin. Tom Sage, son of a millionaire, marries against his father's will, Judith Dexter, an actress. He is turned adrift and gets employment at a jewelry store. One day he is entrusted with a valuable package of diamonds to take to a customer. On the road an old enemy surreptitiously obtains the jewels, then goes to Judith and offers to give them up if she will go with him. It is her husband's honor or her own. She is a swordswoman and is willing to fight the villain for the gems. Here follows a spirited and thrilling fencing match in which she wins, saving her honor as well as her husband's.

"When the Fire Bells Rang." Biograph. They are brothers—one is a member of the village fire department the other the property man at the "opera house." A traveling dramatic company arrives and, in putting on a Roman tragedy, needs twenty "sappers" to play "Roman soldiers." Props engages the members of the fire company to help out. Everything goes fine until the fire bells ring cut an alarm, then—well.

"The Furs." Biograph. Mother-in-law objects to her extravagance, but wife gets the furs. To tell more of this story would spoil the surprise pulled off in the comedy.

"The Pilgrimage." Kalem. It's not often that a picture, illustrating a great poet's idea, is so successful as this one. It is an unusually commendable picture.

"The Sheriff and His Man." Essanay. Tremendous in its appeal, this great western drama is one of the finest G. M. Anderson has ever offered. A real feature.

Cosy.

Friday and Saturday, another sensational "101" Bison, in two reels. "The Crisis," (two reels) "101" Bison. This is the best "101" that we have had. A troop of U. S. cavalry, a tribe of Indians, and a big bunch of cowboys take part. Also the pony express riders are shown changing horses on the run. The theme of this great western picture is one of great heart interest, as it tells of a young man's regeneration when confronted with the crisis of his life. The settlement was attacked by Indians and the minister and his family are aiding in the defense. His dissipated son, the cause of much sorrow to all the family, realized that sooner or later they would be overpowered by the savages and he decided to risk a somewhat worthless life and try to reach the fort for aid. He made a sudden dash through the astonished Indians, grabbed a horse and got away, reached the fort and brought the soldiers. His latent manhood was awakened by this heroic act, and the happy parents realized that they had a son redeemed. It is full of big, stirring events that thrill.

"Tommy Becomes a Toreador."

Gaumont. Showing a bull-fight that's very exciting. Tommy a butcher boy, pretended to be a toreador in order to win a girl and a fortune. It will cause roars of laughter. "Falling Leaves." Solax. They said sister would die when the leaves fall, so the little Frisbie stole into the garden and tied the leaves on the trees. A beautiful story with a happy ending.

"Jimmie is near-sighted."

Gaumont. The clever boy actor, little Jimmie, will tickle you in this happy comedy.

At The Grand.

An Orpheum act. Law & Keith, a very classy musical singing act, presenting a scene in a metropolitan music store, opened last night for three days only. Their act is entirely out of the ordinary. Mr. Keith (the sweet melodious singer) had the audience spellbound. He had to answer to several encores. Miss Law, the accomplished piano player, made a decided hit with her clever accompaniment while her musical number well received. The finish with their mysterious dance, although not quite new, was very pleasing.

This is a very classy act and one of the best seen here for quite a long while. Don't miss it, only here three days. Since only one act is on the bill the price of admission is 15c. Don't miss it.

A dog 5,000,000 years old has been found. The world would be happier if most dogs were that old, or more.

Newsy Notes From the Sporting World

WALLA BEARS BEARS DEFEAT IRRIGATORS

Walla Walla, Wash., June 21.—Kelly's curves were as puzzling to the Boise team as a railroad time table is to the average traveler and the Bears took the Irrigators into camp at Sportsman's park for the third time in three days yesterday morning to the tune of 5 to 2.

The elongated Hibernian who tosses for the local club had the visitors shut out until the ninth inning, when, with two out, he walked Jansen and Fox, neither of whom had been on base in the previous innings. Mays, who batted for Smith, followed with a three-base slam down the right field foul line, scoring both runners and giving the Irrigators the only tallies made by them during the game. The rally stopped right here, however, Lundstrum ending the game by retiring Childers to Thompson.

A twirler with that rather uncommon name, Smith, did the twirling for the Glimin tribe, and while he allowed but five hits, the local club, aided by bobbles of Boise team, succeeded in bunching these hits sufficiently to secure five runs.

NOW FIGURE UP COFFINS, THEN WE'LL QUIT DYING

New York.—According to Carl Werner, an authority on the tobacco trade, nearly 22,000,000 cigars and about 24,000,000 cigarettes go up in smoke daily in the United States. Mr. Werner estimates that the money paid by smokers of the United States for cigars alone in one year would more than pay for the building of the Panama canal and leave a good many millions over. The annual cigarette bill of the nation is estimated by Mr. Werner at $50,000,000.

DON'T PULL OUT THE GRAY HAIRS

A Few Applications of a Simple Remedy Will Bring Back the Natural Color.

"Pull out one gray hair and a dozen will take its place" is an old saying, which is, to a great extent, true, if no steps are taken to stop the cause. When gray hairs appear it is a sign that Nature needs assistance. It is Nature's call for help. Gray hair, dull, lifeless hair, or hair that is falling out, is not necessarily a sign of advancing age, for there are thousands of elderly people with perfect heads of hair without a single streak of gray.

When gray hairs come, or when the hair seems to be lifeless or dead, some good, reliable hair-restoring treatment should be resorted to at once. Specialists say that one of the best preparations to use is the old-fashioned "sage tea" which our grandparents used. The best preparation of this kind is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of domestic sage and sulphur, scientifically compounded with later discovered hair tonics and stimulants, the whole mixture being carefully balanced and tested by experts.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is clean and wholesome and perfectly harmless. It refreshes dry, parched hair, removes dandruff and gradually restores faded or gray hair to its natural color.

Don't delay another minute. Start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur at once and see what a difference a few days' treatment will make in your hair. This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.
