PORTLAND PREPARING TO ENTERTAIN BEST PEOPLE ON EARTH AT CONVENTION IN JULY

Portland, Ore., June 27.—(Special.)—Now that the big political conventions are over, the attention of a great part of the country will center upon Portland where the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks will begin its annual grand lodge convention on Monday, July 8.

Every one of Portland's 275,000 residents has shared in the work of preparing for the invasion of the city by the Elks. Not only have the members of the Portland lodge, who have the arrangements in immediate charge given their time and attention to the task, but business men and private citizens have assisted them materially.

Portland has raised an entertainment fund of $125,000, of which $25,000 was contributed by the local lodge, the balance by merchants and individuals. This will be spent in dispensing characteristic western hospitality to the city's guests.

Joy to Reign Supreme.

From the time the first delegate arrives until the last one departs joy and good fellowship will reign supreme. Every entertainment feature planned by the Portland lodge will be free to all visiting Elks and members of their families. The weeks' festivities really will open Sunday, July 7, with trolley trips and automobile rides to various points of scenic delight in and near Portland.

Monday will be devoted to the formal reception of the visitors and the opening of the grand lodge sessions by an elaborate musical and oratorical program in the immense armory of the Oregon National Guard.

The remainder of the week will be occupied with a series of unique attractions that will keep the whole city on the alert.

An event of Tuesday will be a spectacular electrical parade consisting of 17 brightly illuminated floats, some of them symbolical of Elkdom and others typifying life in various of the world's leading nations. This pageant was prepared by the Elks at a great cost and undoubtedly will be one of the most brilliant features of the entire week.

Excursion to The Oaks.

On Wednesday all registered Elks will be conducted on a free excursion to the Oaks, an amusement resort on the banks of the Willamette, where every concession will be opened and the antlered band allowed to roam in and out at will. A monster barbecue will be served for which fully five tons of fresh Columbia river salmon will be baked. A corps of workmen already is busy preparing the ovens for this detail.

The annual parade, which is the climax of every Elk reunion, will take place on Thursday, July 11. Advance information received from various lodges in the United States indicates that more than 25,000 members of the order will participate. James R. Nicholson of Cambridge, Mass. grand esquire of the Elks, has arrived in Portland to take charge of the parade. Liberal prizes have been offered for various features. Considerably friendly rivalry has developed among lodges on the Pacific coast for the honor of having the largest number of men in line. San Francisco, Seattle, Tacoma, Spokane, Oakland and Los Angeles are in the competition. The Portland lodge and all lodges in Oregon are barred from all contests. Prizes also will be offered for the tallest, the shortest, the fattest, the leanest and the oldest Elks, with plenty of entries in each class.

City Being Decorated.

A trip to "Council Crest," a resort on top of a hill 1200 feet high and within the city limits, together with naval parades, automobile races, an aeroplane flight and various attractions of lesser delight will be crowded into the busy week.

An army of decorators now is preparing the city in a garb of purple and white—the official Elk colors—and when the first of the visiting thousands enter Portland's gates his eyes will meet a sight such as he has seldom seen. An ambitious "Court of Honor" embracing 12 of the principal city blocks will be the most prominent scheme of ornamentation. Every public building will be attired in banners of purple and white blended with the national colors.

If you have the itch, don't scratch. It does not cure the trouble and makes the skin bleed. Apply BAL-LARD'S SNOW LINIMENT. Rub it in gently on the affected parts. It relieves itching instantly and a few applications removes the cause, thus performing a permanent cure. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by A. C. Koeppen & Bros.

CATARRH MISERIES ENDED FOREVER

The quickest, safest and best way to cure catarrh is by using a remedy that will touch the spot and do its work quickly without leaving any bad effects. Ely's Cream Balm, which is applied to the nostrils or rubbed on the throat or chest, gets right at the root of the trouble, and instantly relieves even the worst case of catarrh. In a few minutes after applied, you can feel a loosening up in the head, the pain and soreness are gone, the sense of taste, smell and hearing come back, and you feel like a different person.

Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, heals and strengthens the inflamed membranes, stops the nasty discharge which makes the breath foul and causes the disgusting hawking, spitting and blowing. Hay fever victims who are made miserable with fits of sneezing and coughing get instant relief by the use of this simple remedy.

Don't suffer with catarrh another day. Ely's Cream Balm will relieve you immediately, and a fifty cent bottle will more than likely effect a complete cure. All druggists sell it.

deputies to find the photographer, but he grabbed his camera and fled.

No Counterfeit Tickets.

The most remarkable thing in connection with the convention so far is that no one apparently has tried to counterfeit the admission tickets. Chicago convention visitors were beset with sharpers selling spurious pasteboards, and joke "passes," but the democratic admission cards are the most ornately engraved that have yet been in use at a convention, and the police have yet to find any imitations.

Brokers' prices today for tickets were $5. They have been charging $15, but with few takers.

Show Tickets for Elevator.

You have to show a ticket to get aboard the elevators at the Emerson hotel during the rush hours. Moreover, the management has partitioned off the lifts so that one has to stand in line to get aboard. Only guests who produce credentials from the hotel desk are permitted on three of the four elevators.

Once more is Colonel John I. Martin, perpetual sergeant at arms for democratic convention, in his glory. Nobody can ever hope to equal the eclat with which Martin holds down his job, or, which is more to the point, with more efficiency.

Today Colonel Martin had his hands full. It was hot and the colonel is a fussy person who perspires freely. In the middle of the session it was observed that the sergeant at arms had used four handkerchiefs mopping his fevered brow. All four were carefully hung out to dry on the railing that boxes off Martin from the rest of the stage.
