Newsy Notes of Pendleton

A Little Baby Girl.

An eight pound baby girl was born at 6 o'clock this morning to Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Aldrich at their home on Madison street.

Married at Pilot Rock.

William J. Brown and Miss Ella Mulkey, both of Pilot Rock, and who have several friends in Pendleton, were married this afternoon in the former town by Rev. Milnes.

Brings in Fine Cherries.

James H. Bryant of Riverside brought a generous box of Bing cherries to the East Oregonian office this morning and needless to say they were enjoyed by the office force. The cherries are of exceptionally good taste and size and a fine example of Umatilla's unsurpassed reputation for raising good things.

Three Marriage Licenses.

A marriage license was issued yesterday afternoon to Mrs. Augusta Moule of this city and Oliver P. Morton of Portland. Others were issued today to William J. Brown and Allen Mulkey, a Pilot Rock couple, and to Clifford Kinney and Grace Dickerson, both of this county.

Old Stage Driver Jailed.

Harry Wright, a pioneer stage driver of this county, was given a five days sentence in jail this morning by Acting Police Judge John Halley on a charge of drunkenness. Wright has been drinking so hard that the judge believes a period of compulsory abstinence would result beneficially to him.

Small Wreck in City Limits.

A Northern Pacific freight engine and an O.-W. R. & N. switch engine met in collision this morning shortly after 9 o'clock at the intersection of the two lines near the scouring mills.
The Northern Pacific engine came off the worst in the encounter, suffering a broken cylinder and guides.
The little collision held up traffic for about an hour. The responsibility for the accident has not been determined.

Boston Bloomers Win Game.

The Boston Bloomers, famous woman baseball team, defeated the Pendleton Bulldoggers, a pickup organization, this afternoon on Round-up Park by an eight to one score. With the exception of the third baseman, shortstop and catcher, all of the Bloomers were real females and their playing was a revelation to the Buldoggers. "Clara," the pitcher, had fine curves, and held the locals to few hits.

CHARGES MADE AGAINST GOVERNOR

Augusta, Ga., July 12.—Sensational charges of graft were made today against Governor Cole Bleas, South Carolina by Detective Reed of the Burns agency before an investigating committee of the South Carolina legislature holding sessions here. The charge was made that in one case at least, Bleas receive $2000 for executive action in pardoning a convict.

CRACK MILITARY GUARDS TO VISIT IN OREGON

San Francisco, July 12.—The Cleveland Guards, Ohio's smartest military organization 200 strong, arrived here today, for a three days visit.
From here they will go to Oregon.

Nominations Confirmed.

Washington, July 12.—The senate this afternoon confirmed the nomination of Philip J. Hickey, Jr., as postmaster at Seward, Alaska, and also confirmed the nomination of William Marshall Bullitt to be solicitor general of the United States.

tion but that he thought, with the switching of the New York delegation, he would swing the other Harmon votes and those for Underwood and lesser candidates. But he miscalcu-lated. Those Underwood delegates, and those for Foss and Baldwin never gave up hope until the last that there would be a deadlock which would result in the stampeding of the convention for their particular candidate. The Foss supporters did more advertising than any other boomers and the Underwood workers were active in convention and outside continuously, arguing that the outh has not had a candidate since the Civil War and in justice should be recognized now that they had a capable man."

Both of the Pendletonians are enthusiastic in their eulogy of "The Peerless Leader" declaring that he earned title to that name at the convention as he never had before. It was wonderful, they say, the manner in which he forswore the Clark-Murphy combination and encompassed its defeat. When he introduced his famous Ryan-Belmont-Murphy resolution, they declare the delegates and audience gasped with amazement at the audacity and boldness of the man.
Delegates from Virginia and New York kissed him, shook their fists and cursed him maliciously they say, but through it all he retained his calmness. Finally, even the most bitter enemies saw the full import of the resolution and they were forced to vote for it.

Both Judge Maloney and Mr.
Blakely declare their positive belief that at no time was Bryan working for his own nomination, declaring that his whole course of action was calculated to prevent any stampede for himself. "All Bryan wanted," said Judge Maloney, "was that the democratic party should prove itself a progressive party. He was present at the republican convention and he went to Baltimore determined that his party should not be controlled by the interests whose power was so evident in Chicago. He saw what the most of us would not see, that these same interests had their tentacles already on the democratic convention and he did what no one else could have done, when he forced loose the grasp which they had secured."

No Demand for Roosevelt.
While in Chicago, Mr. Blakely and Judge Maloney attended the republican convention and from a close view of the workings of the steam roller, declare that Roosevelt was cler-ly robbed. However, they say, since the nomination of Wilson, the third party boom has lost its force in the east. "Roosevelt men by the hundreds are declaring for Wilson," they say. "These men recognize that Wilson is a true progressive and declare that Roosevelt has a chance to prove that he stands for the progressive principles more than he does for his own advancement by endorsing the democratic nominee."

The two men have been besieged by their friends here since their return and many are the interesting stories they tell of the two conventions. Judge Maloney is so hoarse from cheering during the Wilson demonstration that his voice is unnatural.

STORK LEFT FOUR BABIES.

Mother Weighs But 90 Pounds; Infants Tip Scales at 15 1-2.

Plymouth, Mass.—Mrs. Dergelina Fuertada, aged 26 years and weighing only 90 pounds, gave birth in four children—a boy and three girls. The boy died soon after, but the girls are getting along well.

The children varied in weight, the boy weighing 5 pounds and the girls 4 1-2, 3 1-2 and 2 1-2 pounds in weight. Including the quartet Mrs.
Fuertada has given birth to five children in less than a year, the first child having born last September.

PAID TAXES ON NOTHING.

Kansasian Has Been Assessed 26 Years on Land That Doesn't Exist.

Hutchinson, Kan.—"That is what I call hard luck," S. S. Ott of Topeka told the county officials here when he discovered that a tract of land on which he had paid taxes for twenty-six years did not exist.

Mr. Ott came here to take a look at the land, which was supposed to be four miles southeast of Hutchinson. There is about two and a half acres in the tract—or, rather, was—and Mr. Ott came here to protest against an increase in valuation of $134.

When Mr. Ott drove out to the land he found only the waters of the Arkansas river. Apparently the river had eaten away every foot of the land as well as a part of adjoining land.

GETS FORTUNE, NOT A CELL.

Woman Vagrant About to be Sentenced Told She Is Heiress.

Milwaukee.—Charged with vagrancy and about to receive sentence in municipal court here, Mrs. Courtenay of New Orleans, La., was notified that she had been made heir to $10,000 and an interest in three plantations in Louisiana.

Through her attorney the charge was dismissed by the court at once and Mrs. Weatherby started for New Orleans to claim the legacy.

The sudden turn of fortune came as a climax to her marrying several years ago against her father's wishes, according to Mrs. Weatherby, who recently lost her position as nurse in the National Soldiers' Home here.

ODD LAW POINT IS RAISED.

Olympia, Wash.—That the laws provide that the widow and children of a murdered man have a right of action against the murderer for money damages is admitted, but the supreme court was asked to determine whether or not the suicide of the murdered does not bar recovery against his estate. The widow and eight children of the late John R.
Rinker brought the suit against the estate of Otis N. Weedon, who murdered Rinker March 30, 1911, and then killed himself.
