Are Ever at War.

There are two things everlastingly at war, joy and piles. But Bucklen's Arnica Salve will banish piles in any form. It soon subdues the itching, irritation, inflammation or swelling. It gives comfort, invites joy. Greatest healer of burns, boils, ulcers, cuts, bruises, eczema, scalds, pimples, skin eruptions. Only 25 cents at Keop-pens.

LOST PAIN AND MONEY, TOO.

Chicago.—Firm in the belief that an acute pain from which he suffered would cause his death within twenty-four hours, Bruno D. Audin, 22 years old, employed until recently in railroad construction work near Wau-paca, Wis., hurried to Chicago and deposited his savings of $26 in a bank with instructions to have the sum forwarded to his parents in Italy.

Several hours later the pain disappeared and he returned to the bank and demanded the return of his money.

The cashier informed him he was too late as a draft for the amount had been sent to his parents in accordance with his instructions.

Penniless and hungry in a strange city, Audin several hours later was obliged to appeal to the police for a meal and lodging.

TRAMP KILLED IN WRECK.

Bloomington, Ill.—James J. Luzier, of Fort Wayne, Ind., 35 years old, a tramp cigar maker, was killed in a wreck on the Illinois Central railroad 100 feet south of the bridge at Kappa, Ill. Brakeman E. M. Beckler of Freeport, Ill., was injured slightly by being thrown from the caboose. The twenty-two cars were piled up. The engine and caboose only remained on the track. The wreck was caused by a broken flange on one of the car wheels.

NURSE IS IN CHARGE OF ADAMS PATIENT

Mrs. Creg of Pendleton was an Adams business visitor Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Adams were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Rogers Tuesday.

Mrs. Holdman has been sick for the past week. Her condition remains about the same. A nurse arrived from Pendleton Tuesday to take charge of the patient.

Will Mae of Pendleton was an Adams business visitor Tuesday.

Flying Men Fall

victims of stomach, liver and kidney troubles just like other people, with like results in loss of appetite, backache, nervousness, headache, and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that as T. D. Peebles, Henry, Tenn., proved. "Six bottles of Electric Bitters," he writes, "did more to give me new strength and good appetite than all other stomach remedies I used." So they help everybody. Its folly to suffer when this great remedy will help you from the first dose. Try it. Only 50 cents at Keop-pens.

ANIMALS FIGHT FOR MAN'S LIFE

Green Bay, Wis.—A dog and a bull battled with the life of their owner, Thomas Rohan, a Hollandtown farmer, as the stake. The dog finally won, his howls as he stood over the body of his owner, attracting neighbors. Rohan had been seriously injured by the bull.

Stubbs to Talk.

Axtell, Kan., Aug. 21.—Gov. W. R. Stubbs will be the principal speaker at the Marshall county old settlers reunion which began here today and it is expected that he will take advantage of the opportunity to boost Colonel Roosevelt for the presidency and talk of his own plans for entering the United States senate. He recently got the decision over Senator Curtis in the senatorial contest.

AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum.

Interesting program for Tuesday's change.

1. "The Barrier That Was Burned."—Vitagraph. You have all heard of Rex Beach, the great writer. This is his story.

Way up north, a rough backwoodsman marries a sweet eastern girl. She rises for home and civilization. Another man offers to take her back east and writes her to that effect. She spurns the offer and decides to go alone. Her husband finds the note and accuses her of planning to go with the other man. She leaves him and tries to make her way to the nearest railroad station. Her husband follows her and finds her at night, buried unconscious beneath the snow. He lights the note and falls insensible across her body. The flame from the note is seen by a rescuing party and when man and wife recover, he begs her forgiveness and tells her the barrier is burned.

2. "A Bold Game."—C. G. P. C. An adventurer and his wife, posing as mere acquaintances at a summer resort, make an effort to trap a wealthy man into separating himself from a lot of money. The plan would have been highly successful but for the eleventh hour repentance of the wife, who confesses her share of the plot to the police, thus saving her victim, whom she has learned to respect.

3. "Over Monaco in a Hydro-Aeroplane."—C. G. P. C. A series of beautiful views of the famous European gaming resort in all its splendors.

4. "The Relief of Lucknow."—Edison. This is a stupendous production, portraying the incident of the Indian mutiny in 1857, and showing how the besieged people of Lucknow were saved from annihilation by the heroism of a volunteer whose valiant efforts brought relief from Cawnpore. The troops used are from the Second battalion, Queen's regiment, the celebrated "Queen's Own."

5. "Mr. Tibbs' Cinderella."—Essanay. The laughable quest of a shoe salesman who is always searching for affluence with dainty feet. He finally discovers "Cinderella," pursues her madly aboard the train and dreams of wedding chimes through the night, only to awaken and find she is a toothless and sour-visaged spinster. A real comedy gem.

The Pastime.

The home of good pictures. A strong program for Tuesday's change.

"The Adventure of the Thumb Print," Vitagraph. A detective story featuring Mr. Maurice Costello as Lambert Chase, a sleuth something on the Sherlock Holmes pattern. The story is well put together and makes an interesting picture. The terrific struggle with the thief on top of a fast moving train and the exciting escape down a fire escape and the chase that follows will sure thrill and fascinate.

"Willie Becomes an Artist." Biograph. A farce comedy with a brand new and very laughable idea. To get money out of dad for his little frolics Willie pretends he is taking art lessons, when he is really painting the town instead of the canvas. Dad was an easy mark, but insisted the boy paint a landscape. Through a most novel medium the bluff makes good.

"The Would Be Shriner," Biograph. A comic incident of the Shrine parade at Los Angeles, Cal. This film will make laughter. It has a good idea and is cleverly acted.

"The Shepherd's Flute," Lubin. Allan Stiel, a mountain shepherd, all day plays on the flute and improvises some weirdly beautiful romances. Ruth Winton, a society girl, is attracted by the music and becomes acquainted; the boy and girl fall in love. Ruth is removed to the big city, and by her mother betrothed to an Earl. The boy goes in search of his sweetheart and they outfit mamma, but when and how is the question.

"The Miller of Burgundy," Selig. One of the best single reel features of the year.

Hear the new music: "Hod Do You Do, Miss Ragtime?" One of the late hits from the "Whirl of Society," now running at the New York winter garden. "My Summer Girl," another hit and many others you will enjoy.

Cosy.

Wednesday and Thursday a thrilling three reel war drama adapted from H. Rider Haggard's great novel. "Jesse" (3 reels) Thanhouser, Miss Marguerite Snow and James Craig who take the leads, had a narrow escape from drowning in one scene, while crossing a swift stream to escape the Boer soldiers, their bronches became frightened, broke away from the wagon and left them in mid-stream. The two actors jumped from the wagon, narrowly escaping being buried beneath it and struggled ashore. Miss Snow was unconscious and Mr. Craig completely exhausted. This scene is no play acting, it is a real life and death struggle in the burning water. In order to picture the burning of Silas Croft's home in a realistic manner, the Thanhouser company bought a farm house and set it on fire, it burns to the ground right before your eyes. Reel one tells the love story of Nell and Jesse; reels 2 and 3, their war-time adventure during the Boer war. Angered at Jesse's refusal to marry him Mueller, a Boer general tries to have his soldiers kill her; he arrests Silas Croft, Jesse's uncle, burns his home, has him tried for treason and sentenced to death.

The brave girl saves her uncle in a way that is highly dramatic. The whole story is full of life and action; battle scenes, hand-to-hand conflicts, daring pursuits, narrow escapes, love treachery and self-sacrifice, that hold the spectators attention every minute.

"The Foreign Invasion," Imp. An Irishman's comical dream of the conquest of America. Filled with laughter.

"Building a Church in a Day," Imp. "Church built while you wait," as one might say. It was at Sparta-nburg, S. C.
