Where to Go in Pendleton.

Orpheum.
An exceptional good program for Sunday's change. Four full reels of the best pictures.

1. Too Much Wooling of "Handsome Dan." Vitagraph. Girls! All the girls fall for "Handsome Dan." He is a gay deceiver. They have a lively race to get him. When they do he gets his. Mr. George Stanley plays the part of "Handsome Dan."
2. The Old Wedding Dress. The tragic life story of a sweet old lady whose young love dreams are blighted by the cruel hand of fate. Redolent with tenderest of memories. Lily Branscombe, Beverly Bayne and Francis Bushman in feature portrayals.
3. The Boob, Selig. The story of a country boy and his infatuation for the leading lady of a stranded theatrical troupe. She "works" him for carfare back to New York. Later he follows her and fails to make money in the city. Dolly and her friends of the chorus chip in and pay his way back home. The boob reaches his home town just in time to see the wedding party of his former sweetheart.
4. Memories, Pathe. A picture featuring Charles Arling as a very old man. His room is a dreary den and at his table just before he dies he writes "Memories," a poem. This is illustrated for us and gives us a story of broken love that, driving him to drink, has caused his ruin.

LAXATIVE FOR OLD PEOPLE—"CASCARETS"

What Glasses Are to Weak Eyes, Cascarets Are to Weak Bowels—A 10-cent Box Will Truly Amaze You.

Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles. So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

THE PASTIME.

The home of good pictures. A Biograph and a Vitagraph included in Sunday's change of program:

"Black Sheep." Biograph. An incident of southwestern ranch life. The son of the foreman of the ranch is a young man of many good qualities but a bit wayward, drinking and gambling are passions irrepressible with him. The ranch owner's daughter has quite a liking for the boy and does his best to make him reform. This he promises to do, and is given hope of winning more than his friendship. The son has gained the enmity of a bad Mexican who works on the ranch and he has sworn to get even. His chance comes when the son is entrusted with a large sum of money and sent to town, the Mexican induces him to gamble at the road house and he loses the money. The father upon learning this casts the boy out. The incident proves a powerful lesson to the boy.

"A Juvenile Love Affair." Vitagraph. Little Dolores Costello and Kenneth Cate play the leads in this most charming picture. The former, a very good little actress, is as winsome as can be as the latter's little sweetheart. In the cast we see also Miss Rose Tapley and Harry Mayo, as the girl's parents. Miss Thayer and Mr. Newburg as the boy's parents. If you want to be taken back to childhood's happy hours see this pretty idyl.

"Broncho Billy's Pal." Essanay. One of the most powerful subjects of this great western series so popular the world over. Mr. G. M. Anderson in his famous character creation of Broncho Billy, Miss Veta Bertram Mackay and others play in it.

"The Missing Finger." Lubin. A good story of how a burglar is traced by a missing finger and how Mary Forrest, the hospital doctor's sister, is saved from marrying him.

Cosy.
Friday and Saturday, a great two-reel imp drama.

"In Old Tennessee." King Baggett. Miss Jane Fernly and the clever boy actor Joe Moore play the leads in this two reel story of love and adventure in the Tennessee mountains. The first as a moonshiner, the second as a girl detective who has been sent to discover the still. Little Joe Moore who plays an important role in a remarkably clever manner, is the real center of interest throughout the story for it was to procure money to pay for a surgical operation for his little brother that caused the moonshiner to go into the illicit business. The girl located the still, was discovered spying on it and would have been killed by the mountaineers, only for the pleading of little Joe. She then answers the call of her heart and becomes the wife of the moonshiner. The fine acting, the rough, rural backgrounds, the picturesque mountains and the pretty light effects, all combine to make a pleasing and delightful production.

"A Japanese Idyll." Rex. An interesting play put on with Japanese setting, with an abundance of flowers and carefully arranged interiors. There is also some comedy when the Jap girl and American girl change costumes. Many beautiful light effects add value to the picture.

"Love Will Find a Way." Powers. John Cumpson the comedian in the comedy of a neighborly squabble. Gibbs' daughter in love with Boggs' son, suggests that the gate be cut in two. Their parents not noticing the changed size get stuck in the gate and here the comedy and the trouble begins.

NEWS NOTES FROM THE COUNTY PRESS

Fruitvale has been busy sending out watermelons for the Round-up shipping a carload on Tuesday under the direction of Ed Hodgen. It is said that these melons are to be fed to the cayuses in order to make them buck better. Pendleton ought to take a lot of our fruit next week.—Freewater Times.

T. S. Given and wife will leave this week for Nevada, Mo., where they will spend some time going from there to Indiana, and may return to this section in about a year. Mr. Given came to this valley about eight years ago has done well. Some months ago he sold his orchard tract to B. Pinkney. We are sorry to lose Mr. Given from our midst and wish him and his partner well wherever they may go.—Freewater Times.

Earl Short of La Grande and Nora-rh Walker were married Tuesday night at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Walker on the opportunity tract northeast of Freewater, Rev. T. L. Childers officiating. Relatives and immediate friends were present. The happy couple left for Walla Walla after the ceremony and on Wednesday left for La Grande where the groom is in the employ of the O.-W. R. & N. The bride has lived in this community for the last few years and has made many friends who join the Times in wishing her godspeed.—Freewater Times.

J. A. Baker has purchased through the P. E. Cokburn real estate agency the 40-acre alfalfa farm of J. H. Crosswell, northwest of Milton, the consideration being $6000. Mr. Baker who has been living in Milton for several months, will move to his new home this week.—Milton Eagle.

A large number of special trains will run to Pendleton from Portland to carry the thousands who will attend the Round-up, September 25-28. Other sections of the Pacific northwest will send big delegations and Puget sound will be well represented. Indications are that this year's show will be bigger and better, both in attendance and program than ever in its history.—Milton Eagle.

Oregon has started to export hogs. A breeder with a stock farm near Aurora reports a sale of blooded swine to Honolulu people, where they will be used for breeding purposes. It has long been a reproach to Oregonians that the state does not produce enough pork for its own use, but this situation is being slowly overcome.—Pilot Rock Record.

One of the biggest and most magnificent parades ever witnessed in eastern Oregon is planned for the last day of the Round-up, September 25th. It is the desire of the committee in charge of the contemplated monster parade to have all who can possibly be present on that day to take part on horseback. Girls and women are especially invited to co-operate in making the parade the big attraction of the Round-up festivities.—Pilot Rock Record.

ARIZONA IS FOR WILSON SAYS SENATOR CURNIFF

New York, Sept. 21.—Senator M. G. Curniff of Crown King, Arizona, president of the state senate, breezed into democratic headquarters today with the declaration that Arizona resembles a prairie fire of Wilson sentiment.

"Phoenix has a Wilson Club," said Senator Curniff, "that is not equalled in the United States for hustlers. We folks out in Arizona are not afraid to work and we have put all our energy into the success of the Democratic ticket.

"Our best business men are giving up a good portion of their time to making personal canvasses to get the voters into line for Wilson and Marshall.

"We have financed our own campaign and there are hundreds of business men who are setting aside a percentage of their gross income in behalf of democracy.

"We are not so much concerned over Arizona going democratic as we are over the size of the majority. We want to make it the banner majority of the country in proportion to our number of voters."

The Umatilla County Woman's Christian Temperance Union will hold its annual convention in the Milton-Freewater Baptist church Saturday, September 21st.

As all the work of the convention is to be transacted in one day, members and friends are all invited to bring their lunch and spend the entire day.

Mrs. Ward Swope, state W. C. T. U. corresponding secretary of Portland, Mrs. Anna Leezer, county W. C. T. U. president of Echo, and other delegates are expected to be present. Local president, Mrs. E. W. Phelps, says:

"As we are allowed one delegate to the state convention for every 10 paid up members, we are especially anxious to collect dues from every possible member. These should be all in our local treasurer's hands by Saturday, so that she can make out her report and turn over county dues to the county treasurer."—Milton Eagle.
