TURKEY REPORTED TO HAVE REJECTED BALKAN PEACE PLANS

COMMANDER OF OTTOMANS GETS ORDERS TO RESUME FIGHTING

Servia Denies That Austria Has Won Concession From Former Nation Regarding Adriatic Ports

MASSACRE OF CHRISTIANS AT JAFFA REPORTED

Russia Has Sent Cruiser to Scene—Reported that Heavy Firing is Heard at Southern Entrance of Bosphorus—Bulgars Retreat to Trenches at Tchatalja

Constantinople, Nov. 21.—The porte confirms the early reports that Turkey has rejected the terms of the allies and has ordered fighting resumed.

London, Eng., Nov. 21.—According to reports here, the negotiations for peace between Turkey and the Balkan states have not materialized. Turkey is said to have rejected the terms of the allies and to have given orders to Nazim Pasha, commander of the Turkish forces, to resume fighting. These dispatches have not been confirmed.

It is probable that if the Turks refuse the original terms a resumption of hostilities will immediately begin. From Constantinople the report comes that the sound of heavy guns can be plainly heard at the southern entrance of the Bosphorus. Reports are also current that the Turks have started a massacre at Jaffa and that the Russian cruiser Oleg is speeding there.

Buda Pest, Nov. 21.—Constantinople reports the sound of guns is audible at the southern entrance of the Bosphorus. No explanation is given. The Bulgars have retreated four miles to the trenches outside the Tchatalja forts.

London, Nov. 21.—According to special dispatches to a London news agency, Turkey has rejected the terms of the Balkans and Nazim Pasha has been ordered to resume fighting. The dispatch is unconfirmed. It is not credited here. If the Turks refuse the original terms a resumption of hostilities is possible.

London, Nov. 21.—Belgrade reports that Premier Pasich of Servia denies that Servia has yielded to Austria the Adriatic port. The denial is not taken seriously. It is believed it was made to satisfy the Servian war party.

Constantinople, Nov. 21.—General Savoff, commander in chief of the Bulgars, and Nazim Pasha, head of the Turks, are conducting peace negotiations at Hademeul, a village near Tchatalja. It is reported a Christian massacre has begun at Jaffa and the Russian cruiser Oleg is speeding there.

Paris, Nov. 21.—Constantinople reports that Kaimil Pasha declares the war will continue unless the allies offer better peace terms. It is reported that Kaimil declared the cholera is subsiding, but eye witnesses deny this. The dead and dying are choking the streets of Hademeul and no effort is being made to remove the sick to the cholera camp at Stefano. The death

RAILROAD STREET MAY BE NEXT TO BE PAVED

IMPROVEMENT PETITION GOES TO COUNCIL

Indications point strongly to the paving of Railroad street between Main and Garden in the near future. Last evening Pearl Bowman, owner of the Bowman Hotel building and the remainder of the block fronting on Railroad street, submitted a petition asking for the improvement and it was granted by the council. The O-W, R. & N. company owns the property on the other side but will be powerless to prevent the paving should it be so inclined.

The resolution declaring the necessity of paving College street between Webb and Court was unanimously adopted last evening.

Sharon Is Chairman.

The council last evening chose Councilman Sharon as its chairman, the resignation of Councilman Brock having left a vacancy.

Fire Election Approaching.

The council last evening accepted the recommendations of the fire committee for judges and clerks of the fire department election which is to be held on the first Monday in December. The appointees are, judges, Arthur Keenan, Jee McConnell and

WOULD BLOW-UP NEWSPAPERS TOO

Los Angeles, Nov. 21.—Carl Reidelbach, the would-be blower-up of the central police station is not insane, according to James T. Fisher, a neurology expert and Dr. Chas. Carter, police surgeon. The disposition of the prisoner is not decided. Carrying concealed weapons appears to be the strongest charge against him. Reidelbach was held in default of $20,000 bail.

His case is puzzling the physicians and police. The man declares he will yet secure revenge on the newspapers and police and declared the newspapers lied about him. He said he fashioned several bombs to blow-up newspapers, also infernal machines to tie to the hands of every newspaper man he could capture.

Wilson Gets Kansas.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 21.—The official complete returns show Wilson's plurality 23,447. Taft failed to carry a single county.

There are sermons in stone and dill pickles in lunch boxes of high school girls.

MARQUAM BUILDING IN PORTLAND COLLAPSES; EIGHT STORIES FALL

Portland, Ore., Nov. 21.—Eight stories on the Sixth street side of the Marquam building collapsed today. The entire structure is threatened. It

LOCAL WOMAN IS NOT YET BRIDE

FIANCE MISSES BOAT

Mrs. Vinier Is Formerly Pendleton Woman—Mr. Toye Is Not Known In This City—Couple Was to Have Sailed for South America—Wedding Is Postponed.

New York, Nov. 21.—Mrs. Marie Vinier, who had expected to sail for Buenos Ayres today on the steamer Vasaria, a bride, is now on her way to the Argentine capital while the man she was to have married, Z. A. Toye, is rushing from his home at Pendleton, Ore., to get to the South American city first. They were to have been married by the captain of the ship on board the steamer today.

Mrs. Vinier is from Portland, Ore., and she met Toye a couple of years ago when he was an assistant division superintendent of the Oregon Short Line. Her sister married Manuel Parazzo, a cattle raiser of the Argentine, and Toye and his bride were to go into the same business.

They wanted to sail today, and on account of this they decided to be married on shipboard, not having time for the wedding in their home state. Every thing was ready for a gala occasion on the ship.

The captain had ordered a wedding breakfast in honor of the occasion. Mrs. Vinier had on her wedding gown and was waiting for Toye, who was to get to New York in time for the sailing. When the hour arrived for sailing and the bridegroom had not shown up, the captain held the ship for an hour. Then a telegram was received stating that Toye had missed his connections in Chicago and telling Mrs. Vinier to sail without him. She did.

Toye will take a steamer for Europe, and then take one of the express liners from there to South America.

The Mrs. Vinier mentioned was formerly a Pendleton woman and is a young grass widow. She arrived here from Portland about two weeks ago, and with a party of local people, among whom were her sister, Mrs. Manuel Parazzo, her sister's husband, Herman Suhl, John Mumm and Spence Bentley, left for New York from which port they were to sail for Argentina to look into the stock business. Toye is not known here.

CHINESE PREPARING TO MOVE AGAINST RUSSIA.

Shanghai, Nov. 21.—It is reported that Chinese troops are being concentrated in Pekin preparatory to marching against the Russians in Mongolia. The president is powerless.

HIGH SCHOOL TO PLAY TOMORROW

THE DALLES OPPONENTS

Fast Game Is Expected—Local Boys Want to See Good Attendance at Game Which Begins at 2:30 O'clock—The Dalles Team Is a Strong Aggregation.

The last, the hardest and the only game of the season in Pendleton will be played by the Pendleton high school football team tomorrow afternoon at Round-up Park when it meets the husky, formidable eleven of The Dalles high school.

The students have abandoned the plan of requesting the stores to close for the occasion, instead merely requesting the merchants to permit such of their employees as they can spare the opportunity to witness the contest. The double fact, however, that the team has a worthy opponent and is playing its only local game of the year should insure a good attendance. The first whistle will blow at 2:30.

The Dalles team is said to average about 170 pounds which gives the visitors the advantage of about 15 pounds to the man over the locals. Then too, the Columbia river gladiators are coming with a record of having defeated the Chemawa Indians, the Lincoln high and the Columbia University teams of Portland and reports from their home have it that they expect an easy victory from the local bunch. However, that statement reads easier than the accomplishment will prove for Coaches Lytle and Asahar have one of the trickiest teams in the business. Every man is in perfect condition and they are ready to put up the game of their lives.

The Dalles team will arrive this evening on No. 18.

STATE HOPES TO CONVICT GIBSON

Goshen, Nov. 21.—Justice Tompkins today denied motions to dismiss the indictments in the case of Burton W. Gibson charged with the murder of Mrs. Rosa Szabo. The prosecution now rests. The defense was dealt a blow when Judge Tompkins refused to eliminate from the records, reference that the murdered woman had money in banks. The state contends that Gibson killed the woman for this money.

District Attorney Rodgers believes conviction is certain. Doctor Schultz and Haskins are expected to testify the woman was not drowned but strangled. It is not decided whether Gibson will testify.

WILL BLOCK R. R. MERGER IN N. E.

Washington, Nov. 21.—Determined to break the present railroad monopoly in New England, the department of justice tentatively plans to enjoin the pending traffic agreement between the Grand Trunk and the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroads. A special agent was dispatched to New York to inspect the papers and correspondence relating to the agreement. The same is not accepted yet by the Grand Trunk, but if accepted suit will probably follow.

150 QUACKS IN HANDS OF LAW

Washington, Nov. 21.—As a result of a countrywide probe into methods of quacks, incomplete reports show 150 arrests. Chief Postal Inspector Sharpe said he expected to have all the indicted parties in custody by tomorrow. Hitechock requests early trials.

WOULD SELL HIMSELF INTO SLAVERY FOR $100

Los Angeles, Nov. 21.—In order to raise money for a needy woman, Charles Grant William will sell himself into temporary slavery, according to a letter to the police chief. For $100 he will do the bidding of the donor under the direction of the police.

RAW MEAT IS MANIAC'S DIET

Los Angeles, Nov. 21.—Strapped to a cot in the hospital, Karl Reidelbach, who terrorized the police with an infernal machine, told a weird tale yesterday. He said all he was after was the head of the Pacific Electric company.

"I did not even want to hurt him if he would do what I wanted him to do."

He varied his story by begging to be shot and declaring himself an atheist. Reidelbach did not suffer a fractured skull, and will recover, according to the police surgeons. The blows struck by Detective James Heissick on Reidelbach's head with a billy, caused two bad wounds and it was thought that he might die. Last night, however, he was much improved.

Reidelbach exhibited further eccentricities when he refused to eat the fare provided for prisoners in the city jail. He said that he had subsisted for years on raw meat which he ate twice a week and the remainder of his diet consisted of uncooked vegetables and fruits. He was allowed to continue his method of living.

Reidelbach occupies a cell on the second floor of the jail and it is doubtful whether he will be moved from it until his trial or commitment to an asylum, should he be declared insane. Prisoners in the jail whose lives were jeopardized by the dynamite, threatened to kill him if he was incarcerated in the main part of the jail.

LOCAL ATHLETIC CLUB WILL GIVE A SMOKER

Dudley Evans, manager of the P. A. A. C., announces a smoker for next Monday evening in the club gymnasium in the rear of the Commercial club rooms at which practically all of the club stars will be seen in action. "Homeran Pete" Jost, who represented Pendleton A. A. C. at the recent Spokane meet, will box three rounds with Charles Jost, his brother and boxing instructor for the club. This will be but one of the feature events of the evening.

The building will be warmed, plenty of seats provided and non-club members as well as members will be admitted as the meet will be open.

NAVAL AVIATOR AND HIS BRIDE BEGIN LONG FLIGHT

Washington, Nov. 21.—Theodore G. Ellyson, the navy's crack aviator, has launched out on a long journey with a passenger, formerly Miss Helen M. Ellyson of New York, and now Mrs. Ellyson, who was married to the aviator last Friday, but the marriage was kept secret until today.

RAILROAD CARPENTER IS KILLED BENEATH WHEELS OF LOCOMOTIVE

Death beneath the wheels of a freight engine was the fate met by William M. Lamson, a railroad carpenter, last evening about 6:30 at Gibbon. While walking from his bunk car to the station in order to purchase a newspaper from No. 6, engine No. 524 of freight No. 23, Engineer Bert Anderson and Conductor B. Carney, came backing down the sidetrack No. 8 and though the brakeman called warnings to him, he did not clear the track in time to keep from being struck. His body fell beneath the wheels of the engine and was horribly mangled death being instantaneous.

Death beneath the wheels of a freight engine was the fate met by William M. Lamson, a railroad carpenter, last evening about 6:30 at Gibbon. While walking from his bunk car to the station in order to purchase a newspaper from No. 6, engine No. 524 of freight No. 23, Engineer Bert Anderson and Conductor B. Carney, came backing down the sidetrack No. 8 and though the brakeman called warnings to him, he did not clear the track in time to keep from being struck. His body fell beneath the wheels of the engine and was horribly mangled death being instantaneous.

Acting Coroner Joe H. Parkes conducted an inquest this morning and the verdict exonerated the railroad company, the evidence showing that the deceased was walking along the track in the open and of his own volition and had a full view of the switch engine. The principal evidence was given by Foreman G. M. Ring. Lamson was a man about 55 or 56 years of age and his home was at The Dalles, at 1202 Vine street. He leaves a widow and three daughters. The widow is here today to take charge of the body and will have it shipped to her home this evening.

According to the testimony at the inquest, Lamson had been working for the O-W, R. & N. company about six months as a bridge carpenter and recently had been stationed at Gibbon.
