CURFEW TO TOOT IN SPO-CAIN OR SPO-KAN-TOOT

Spokane, Wash., Dec. 9.—(Special)—Some cities have the curfew ring; least one has the curfew blink but Spokane is going to have it toot, tonight to warn the boys and girls to hurry home. The system of having the electric lights throughout the city blink at the hour of 8 was suggested, but was deemed impracticable. So the city commissioners arranged with a number of factories to blow their whistles as a warning to the little folks that their hour before the hearth had come.

KING ENDORSED BY DELEGATES

OREGONIAN HAS SUPPORT FOR APPOINTMENT AS SECRETARY OF INTERIOR.

Portland, Ore., Dec. 9.—Will R. King, ex-justice of the Oregon supreme court and democratic national committeeman for Oregon, Saturday received the indorsement of eight of the 10 delegates from the state to the democratic national convention at Baltimore for appointment as secretary of the interior in President-elect Wilson's cabinet. Mr. King, having not returned from the east, did not attend the meeting which was held at the Portland Hotel, while Frederick V. Holman, the 10th member of the delegation, was out of the city. It is understood however, that Mr. Holman concurred in the action of his associates. Consequently it represents the unanimous indorsement by the delegation of Mr. King's candidacy for the cabinet portfolio.
Mr. King's candidacy was indorsed by the adoption of the following resolutions:

"Resolved, That we respectfully petition Honorable Woodrow Wilson, president-elect to appoint as secretary of the interior our distinguished citizen, Will R. King of Portland. That we urge this appointment as strongly as possible on the primary and essential grounds of Judge King's fairness, honesty of purpose, and legal qualifications; on the grounds of propriety, inasmuch as the interior department of the government has to do in a large measure with questions peculiar to the public land states; on the grounds of recognition of the progressive democracy of Oregon, and of the faithful and efficient service which Judge King has rendered to the party locally, and to the nation at large.
"Resolved, further, That we respectfully ask our senator, Honorable George E. Chamberlain, and the senator-elect from this state, Honorable Harry Lane, to use every possible endeavor to secure this appointment for Judge King."
The resolutions were signed by the following members of the Oregon delegation to the Baltimore convention: Thomas C. Burke of Baker, chairman of the delegation; James E. Godfrey, Salem; A. S. Bennett, The Dalles; Herman Wise, Astoria; Victor P. Moses, Corvallis; D. W. Shehan, Enterprise, Mark Holmes, Richreall, and J. W. Maloney, Pendleton.

MR. A. R. BLEWETT, Mgr.

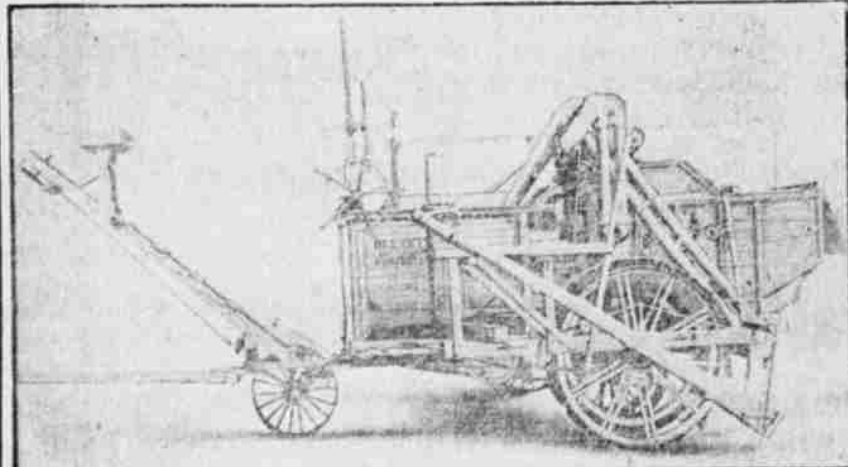

Pendleton, Oregon, Sept. 17, 1912.

Dear Sir:

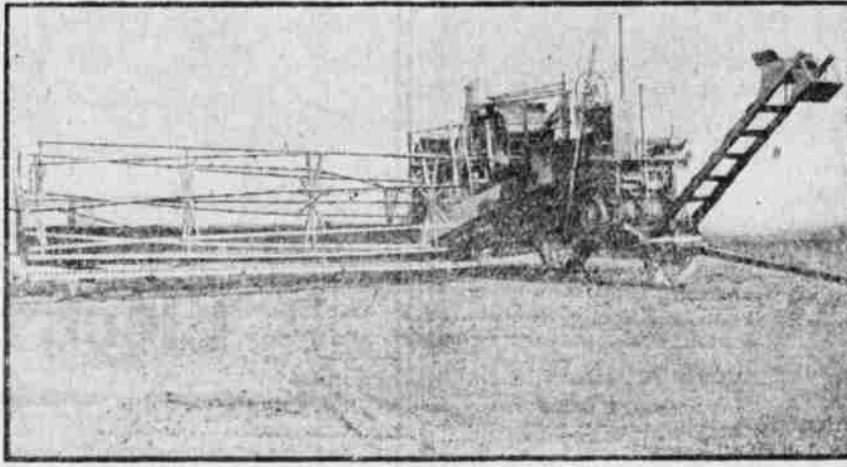

In regard to my Blewett Harvester which I bought from you this season, this fall, can say it is the lightest running machine I have ever seen. Have been pulling it with eighteen head of horses and they were small horses. I cut 640 acres in thirty-two days and it was rough ground at that and saved the grain. It is the neatest running machine that I have ever seen.

Yours truly,

(Signed) B. H. OWEN, Box 264.
