YOUR GRAY HAIRS QUICKLY VANISH

A Harmless Remedy, Made from Garden Sage, Restores Color to Gray Hair.

A feeling of sadness accompanies the discovery of the first gray hairs which unfortunately are looked upon as heralds of advancing age. Gray hair, however handsome it may be, makes a person look old. We all know the advantages of being young. Aside from the good impression a youthful appearance makes on others, simply knowing that you are "looking fit" gives one courage to undertake and accomplish things. So why suffer the handicap of looking old on account of gray hairs, when a simple remedy will give your hair youthful color and beauty in a few days' time? Most people know that common garden sage acts as a color restorer and scalp tonic as well. Our grandmothers used a "Sage Tea" for keeping their hair dark, soft and luxuriant. In Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy we have an ideal preparation of Sage, combined with Sulphur and other valuable remedies for dandruff, itching scalp and thin, weak hair that is split at the ends or constantly coming out. A few applications of this valuable remedy will bring back the color, and in a short time it will remove every trace of dandruff and greatly improve the growth and appearance of the hair. Get a fifty cent bottle from your druggist today, and notice the difference in your hair after a few days' treatment. All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented. For Sale By Pendleton Drug Co.

WAVES POUND REQUIEM AS SAILORS CAST ASHES OF COMRADE INTO THE SEA

San Francisco, Dec. 20.—With the seas pounding a requiem on the bar, seven old cronies of Peter Johnson carried out their mate's last wishes and gave his ashes to the gale. They risked their lives to do it, for the little launch, Monk, carrying the cortege in oilskins, one of whom clasped an urn, had to churn its way through an onslaught of angry swells. It was a sea into which larger craft dared not venture, and time and again it seemed only a marvel that brought the Monk out of the hollow of the waves. It was a stiff fight to the "potato patch," where the ashes were scattered, and a harder return. Peter Johnson ran a waterfront place where seafaring men met and drank and told sea tales. "Boys, I'm going out soon," he said a few weeks ago, "and I want you to take my ashes out to sea and scatter them over the bar." "We'll do it," said the seven and pledged with a drink. Johnson died Saturday. The bar had been rough for 48 hours when Tom Blight took the urn aboard the Monk. The others were Fred Wilson,

D. J. Scott, John Peterson, Albert Peterson, Captain Stevens and Captain McPherson. They carried out the mandate of their friend. When they came under the shadow of Point Bonita they assembled in the prow of the pitching boat and with heads uncovered kept their pledge to their dead friend. The waves washed over the launch and all kept bailing the boat to keep afloat. They sank the urn into the sea. The seven were exhausted when they reached port.
