"DARE" PARTY HELD
BY HERMISTON TEACHERS
*****

(Special Correspondence.)
Hermiston, Ore., Dec. 21.—In leaving Hermiston for the School teachers' examinations, four teachers dared those not having to attend the examinations to entertain the young men of Hermiston in their absence. The dare was called and was planned as a party at the residence of J. D. Watson. However, as plans materialized, it became evident that a large crowd would be present so Bland's hall was engaged and a very enjoyable evening was spent in dancing and games. About midnight a luncheon was served which would do any young ladies credit. The teachers absent were the Misses Beulah Reid, Alma M. Wingate and Miss McDonald, and they will return this evening to hear of the party. The entertainers were Miss Ina Wattenberger and Miss Beatrice Reid.

Miss Lillian Littler will return this evening after attending the Pendleton teachers' examination for the week.
Otto G. Sapper will leave for Umatilla tonight on business.
Miss Brownell was in Hermiston yesterday visiting friends.
W. B. Finley of Heppner is in town on business.
Miss Alma M. Wingate will leave Saturday morning for Seattle to spend the holidays with her parents.

THE POOR YOUNG THING— SHE DIDN'T KNOW BETTER

Washington, Dec. 21.—Everything Southern, particularly Georgians, Carolinians and Floridians, know the meaning of the word "blind tiger," but a young woman clerk at the census office has gone so far as to change it to something else. Recently the census bureau was compiling some figures on violation of different laws and came upon a case from South Carolina where a woman had been convicted for selling liquor. She was called a "blind tiger" or "blind tiger, ess," but the young clerk took the
