FOUR HUSBANDS ENOUGH

So Court Decides When Woman Seeks Fourth Divorce.
Kansas City, Dec. 23.—No man who even thought he would be a model husband should hope to marry more than three times and four husbands are enough for any woman, Circuit Judge Stover decided in the suit brought by Mrs. Daisy Cooper against her husband, E. L. Cooper. Fifteen woman witnesses described Cooper as a model husband, but Mrs. Cooper thought otherwise. The wife was married four times and the man married three, and the case was dismissed by the judge who said they had married too many times already.
