DAUGHTER OF J. J. HILL WEDS FORMER ATHLETE

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 31.—Miss Rachel Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Hill, and Dr. Egl. Boeckmann were married. Only a few relatives and close friends attended the wedding, which took place at the Hill residence. The Rev. Thomas J. Gibbons, of St. Luke's church, officiated. Dr. Boeckmann is a former Minnesota football star.

Miss Hill was attended by her sister, Miss Clara Hill, while Dr. Boeckmann's best man was Elbert Anderson Young, Jr.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a gown of soft white satin, with full court train of white satin caught at the shoulders. The body, with long sleeves and draped Bertha, was of rare point lace, and the same material was used in the drapery of the skirt and in the veil. She carried a huge shower bouquet of white orchids, lilies-of-the-valley and swansonia. Dr. Boeckmann's gift to the bride was a diamond tiara.

"What's your name?"
"Hazel."
"Hazel! That's a pretty name."
"So everybody says. I was named after a nut."

"The story you were just telling me reminds me of one time in Philadelphia."
"That's enough."
"What?"
"One time in Philadelphia"

MOTHER! WATCH THE CHILDREN'S BOWELS

If Cross, Sick, Feverish, Bilious or Tongue Is Coated Give Delicious "Syrup of Figs."

No matter what ails your child, a gentle thorough laxative physic should always be the first treatment given.

If your child isn't feeling well; resting nicely; eating regularly and acting naturally it is a sure sign that it's little stomach, liver and 30 feet of bowels are filled with foul, constipated waste matter and need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or your little one has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, tongue coated; give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs and in a few hours all the clogged up waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of its little bowels without nausea, griping or weakness, and you will surely have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics it cannot be harmful, besides they dearly love its delicious fig taste.

Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed—a little given today will save a sick child tomorrow.

Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.
Ask your druggist for the full name "Syrup of Figs and Elixr of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious tasting, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.

IRELAND HOME RULE REJECTED BY LORDS

London, Jan. 31.—After a four day's discussion the house of Lords rejected the home rule bill last night 326 to 69. The result was a foregone conclusion.

The speeches aroused little interest, because, as the Earl of Salisbury patently observed, the position of the house now was that of an ordinary debating club—the peers could express their views and reject the bill, but they could not prevent it from becoming law.

Nevertheless, the largest muster of peers since the fateful evening they passed the parliament bill assembled in the house and bejeweled peeresses thronged the side galleries.

Lord Lansdowne wound up the debate for the opposition; Lord Morley of Blackburn for the government.

The scene was lacking in the dramatic excitement which accompanied the lord's rejection of Mr. Gladstone's bill in 1884 by a far larger majority, 38.

Lord Moreley in closing the debate, remarked the absence of the ferocity which characterized the debates on the Gladstone measures, and replying to Lord Lansdowne's warning that the giving of home rule to Ireland would be a menace to England if England were ever involved in serious international trouble, reminded Lord Lansdowne that his own policy would give Ireland cash or credit to the extent of two hundred millions British money and that Lord Lansdowne scarcely would be likely to do that if he really believed that Ireland was likely to become England's enemy.

Lord Curzon of Kedleston in a speech earlier in the evening also referred to the listlessness the public had shown over the bill and to the "deplorable and unutterable flatness of the debates in the house of commons."

The division was on party lines, practically the whole of the Episcopal bench voting against the bill.
