HONEST MEN WILL HAVE NOTHING TO FEAR SAYS WILSON

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 21.—"Honest business and honest men have nothing to fear."

This is the assurance which President-elect Wilson gave in a lengthy statement explaining the enactment in law of the seven anti-trust bills which he signed.

"Those who would engage in heartless practice of ruining rivals and filching from the pockets of the people more than they ought reasonably to demand," says the governor, "are the only ones who will have cause to regret the enactment of these measures. I predict that under them the people of New Jersey will enter upon a new era of prosperity."

Stifling Competition is Crime.

"Senate bill No. 43, the act defining free competition and commerce in all classes of business," continued the governor, "makes it criminal to make an agreement which directly precludes a free and unrestricted competition."

"It was urged upon the legislature that the bill be amended by adding the word 'knowingly' so that it would read that any person or persons who willfully or knowingly makes an agreement in restraint of trade should be punished."

"Crude, Unbusinesslike and Unprofitable" are Terms Applied After Investigation is Made.

MANY MILLIONS LOST

Interest on Funds in Depositories Should Be Charged, Declares Report—Only Working Balance of $25,000,000 is Sufficient to Keep on Hand—System Condemned.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Denunciation of the manner in which the treasury department conducts its business and the declaration that the government lost millions by such "crude methods," is voiced here by the house committee on expenditures in the treasury department, which completed its investigation of the fiscal operations and filed its report.

"Interest amounting to thirty-six million, six hundred thousand dollars," the report says, "has been lost to the treasury in the last twenty-six years. The treasury's handling of the general surplus funds has been crude, unbusinesslike, unprofitable and discriminatory. A working balance of twenty-five million dollars in the treasury is sufficient. The government can increase its revenue two million dollars a year by charging interest on the funds in government depositories."

Referring to a working balance the report says that large sums have been unnecessarily retained in the treasury, sometimes aggregating a hundred million. It adds that in addition to the thirty-six million lost by not collecting interest, the government lost one "excess balance," which has been retained in the treasury for the last twenty-six years and which figured at two per cent would amount to forty-seven million, six hundred and ten thousand, eight hundred and sixty dollars.

Lots of people would be more truthful but for their uncontrollable desire to talk.

MADERO, A NERVOUS WRECK, AWAITS HIS FATE IN CELL

El Paso, Feb. 21.—Francisco Madero and Frederico Don Gonzales Garcia, deposed governor general of Mexico City district, will be slain within forty eight hours, according to private advices received here. Garcia is accused of grafting from the army, it being reported he is responsible for most of the six million pesos of the treasury deficit.

Mexico City, Feb. 21.—Francisco Madero sits covering in the guard room of the national palace, a nervous wreck. It was learned from his guards that if his fate is left to a decision of the new cabinet, it probably will decide that Madero and Suarez must die by the "fugitive law," by which Gustavo Madero met his death.

Gen. Huerta assured Senora Madero that her husband is in no immediate danger of execution. Madero's wife is prostrated and under the care of physicians. Huerta's assurance was given out of sympathy to her condition.

Congress tonight will consider Madero's fate. It is generally expected he will not be formally executed, but that, if he is to be slain, death will come between here and Vera Cruz, the troops having him in charge reporting a "fatal accident" or that he was killed while attempting to escape.

Paris, Feb. 21.—"You may rest assured we will all have pleasure at seeing Porfirio Diaz return triumphantly to Mexico."
