Newsy Notes From the Sporting World

WOLGAST SHOWS UP IN TRAINING

San Francisco, Feb. 21.—Apprehension concerning the condition of former Lightweight Champion Ad Wolgast is pretty well worn off as the result of the showing the Dutchman is making in his training.

The Cadillac demon still lacks the "pep" that he showed in past training spells but he is rounding to nicely, and will not be below the weight for the Murphy encounter Saturday, but will be in trim for the Harlemite.

Murphy is already at the necessary 133 pound notch and is ready to step into the ring at a moment's notice. He will probably ease off in his training today while Wolgast will work almost up to ring time.

Betting was notched at 10 to 8 with Wolgast on the long side. It was stated that 10 to 6 will be the ringside betting.

Seats for the match are going like doughnuts, and a packed house will greet the fighters.

BAKER ALL-STARS TO PLAY UNION

Baker, Ore., Feb. 21.—Baker's All-Star basketball team will leave for Union where they will meet the team of that place tonight. The game is looked forward to with a great deal of interest and is expected to be a hot contest.

The Baker boys have been practicing steadily since their return from the trip to the Panhandle several weeks ago, in which they took two of a series of three games. The Union boys for their part have a good team and will enter the court with the spirit that wins.

The All-Star team will line up as follows: Frank Cox, F. Herbert and S. Pobst, forwards; H. Burke, center and H. Miller, H. Weeks and A. Finley, guards.

DISCOVERED.

(An unpopular song.) It was a summer evening, the sky had turned to gold;

The birds were singing merrily as they have did of old. The baseball player had come home to greet his darling spouse;

The ghost had walked that day and he had purchased him a mouse. And when he up and handed her the remnants of his pay

She hooked him one upon the lamp and to him she did say:
CHORUS.
"Kick in, dear heart, kick in again; Come forward with the cash, You know it always gives me pain To clout you on the mush. You may have been a holdout once And copped the magnate's tin, But I don't fall for holdout stunts— Kick in, dear heart, kick in!"

SHH! LADIES! SECRET TO DARKEN FADED GRAY HAIR---USE SAGE TEA

Says Sage and Sulphur Darkens Hair Beautifully and Ends Dandruff.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, then left to age and carefully filtered, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair dark and luxuriant. Remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggy and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy."

thus avoiding a lot of fuss. Some druggists make their own, but it isn't nearly so nice as "Wyeth's." While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur no one can tell, because it does it so naturally; so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Do this tonight and by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, after another application or two it will be restored to its natural color and be even more glossy, soft and luxuriant than ever. Local druggists say they are selling lots of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur" and it surely helps folks appear years younger.

HUNTING THE GRIZZLY BEAR OUT OF COLLEGE

Corvallis, Ore., Feb. 21.—There will be no more "ragging" at O. A. C. The faculty committee on student affairs has determined to put a stop to this style of dancing, and has announced that any student seen "ragging" will be ousted from the hall.

Professionalism

Strength comes from well digested and thoroughly assimilated food. Hood's Sarsaparilla tones the digestive organs and thus builds up the strength. If you are getting "run down," begin taking Hood's at once. It gives nerve, mental and digestive strength.

MODERN IDEAS OF COMFORT IN DAYS OF THE CAESARS

Discovery of Lifts Recalls That Romans Had Hot and Cold Water and Heating System.

Rome.—Prof. Roni's discovery that at least three large lifts, one of them 120 feet high, were used in the palace of the Caesars on Palatine hill in Imperial Rome, comes as a surprise to those who have always regarded these conveniences as essentially modern.

"Discoveries likethese," said a life-long student of Roman antiquities, "make one realize how little the world has changed in habit or achievement since the days of Caesars. There has been found near Pompeii a Roman hot and cold water system. The occupants could turn on hot or cold water or both, just as in a modern house, and this was towards the end of the first century, A. D.

A mode of bathing remarkably like the Turkish bath is described by Celsus, a writer on the art of medicine. He advises the bather to go first into a moderately heated room and perspire slightly, after which he should anoint himself and pass into a hot air room. Having perspired there, he should pour hot, warm and cold water by turns over his head, and finally anoint himself—process being probably a precaution against cold.

"Few people recollect that the Romans introduced a system of heating their houses by hot air. The stoves were outside and were connected by shafts by which the air circulated under the floors and up inside the walls.

"As to articles of the toilet, we could teach the Romans but little. They had combs, razors, toothpicks, nail files—with a roughened surface and smooth notch for polishing—mirrors, toilet boxes, scented bottles, pins, brooches, hooks and eyes."

WEST URGES AID FOR BIG PROJECT

Salem, Ore., Feb. 21.—Declaring that there is a moral obligation on the part of the state to remedy the conditions that exist on the old Columbia Southern irrigation project in Crook county, due to the failure of those who attempted to reclaim the lands involved under the Carey act, Governor West sent a message to the senate urging careful consideration of the Forbes bill, which provides for an appropriation of $500,000 for the completion of the project. Under the provisions of the bill the money is to be returned to the state when the lands are reclaimed.

The governor's message, which was referred to the ways and means committee says:

"I wish to call your attention to House bill No. 177, which recently passed the house and which I am advised has been referred to your ways and means committee.

"This bill calls for the appropriation of $500,000 to complete what is known as the defunct Columbia Southern irrigation system. The proposed project would cover 27,000 acres of land, 21,000 acres of which are irrigable.

Estimate is Submitted. "The estimated cost of completing this project is set forth in the report made to this office under date of November 20, 1912, by State Engineer John H. Lewis, and is as follows:

"For the construction of the remainder of the irrigation works necessary for the complete reclamation of the lands in Oregon Desert Land Segregation List No. 13, it will require $443,704.69, and if the state is to undertake the reclamation of these lands this amount should be appropriated and available for expenditure within the ensuing two years."

ACTOR POLITICAL SUCCESS.

Sir George Alexander Intends to Stand as Unionist Candidate in Next Election.

London.—Sir George Alexander, the latest of our actor-managers to appear in a music hall, intends to stand as a Unionist candidate at the next general election. Besides being an accomplished actor he probably is one of the most public-spirited men on the stage, and sets an example by his activities in municipal affairs. He is a member of the London county council and a justice of the peace.

It is almost twenty-two years since he began as an actor-manager. His first big hit as an actor was as George d'Alroy in "Caste."

Sir George has the reputation of being the best-dressed man in London, but this he denies.

He has strongly advocated the creation of a municipal theater.

MRS. WILSON'S PAINTINGS SOLD FOR GEORGIA SCHOOL

Philadelphia, Feb. 21.—Proceeds of the sale of paintings by Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of the President-elect on exhibition this week at the Arts and Crafts Guild here, will be given to the Martha Berry School at Mount Berry, Ga. The arrangement is made by special request of Mrs. Wilson who has been interested for many years in the school, which is located near her former home at Rome, Ga. There are some 50 canvases in the exhibit, nearly all being poetic interpretations of New Jersey scenery.

EVERY HOME NEEDS THIS FINE REMEDY

A Mild, Reliable Laxative-Tonic Is Something No Family Should Be Without.

No well-regulated home should be without a laxative for there is scarcely a day in a family of several persons that someone doesn't complain of a headache, of sleeplessness, or show the first signs of a cold.

A laxative then becomes a necessity or what was a trifling congestion at the beginning may run into a serious cold. No harsh remedy is needed, but simply a mild laxative- tonic that will make the liver active and stir up the bowels. People who have tried a great many things and are themselves heads of families who have seen the little ills run to big ones, will tell you that there is nothing better than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which you can obtain at any drug store for fifty cents or one dollar a bottle, the latter being the family size.

Among the great believers in Syrup Pepsin for constipation in old or young, and as a general household emergency remedy, is Mrs. J. W. Anderson, Osawatimie, Kans., who writes after using one sample bottle and two dollar bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin: "On the plea of the duty that every one owes to fellow sufferers, I appeal to all such who are bowed in spirit, broken in health and discouraged with life, not to give up until they have given Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin a fair trial." Syrup Pepsin is scientifically compounded and its purity is vouched for. Mothers give it to tiny babies, and grown people, taking a little larger amount, find it equally effective. It is mild and gentle, pleasant-tasting and free from griping.

It does not hide behind a high sounding name and is absolutely free from any prohibited ingredient. Families who once use Syrup Pepsin forever avoid cathartics, salts, pills and other harsh medicines, for these only do temporary good, are nauseous and a shock to any delicate system. Such things should never be given to children.

If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way of a druggist, send your address—a postal will do—to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 417 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed you.

Her picture play is entitled "A Strong Man's Love." She also has completed five or six other plays, which have been acquired by an English film company. But these are not her first dramatic works, for about four years ago she wrote a play "with words" for which she also painted scenery and acted as her own stage manager and prompted.
