

PLANT POTATOES THIS YEAR

Owing to the overproduction and low prices of potatoes last year, many will not raise them this year. This will naturally cause a shortage and prices will soar. Take advantage of these conditions and make a clean-up in 1913.

SOCIETY EVENTS

(Note—The following items were unintentionally omitted from the society page of the Saturday East Oregonian.)

A social event of a dual nature made last Monday evening a memorable one for those who were interested in the production of the recent home talent musical comedy, "The College Pennant." The affair was a banquet and dance given by the Pendleton lodge of Elks, No. 288, as an expression of its appreciation and gratitude to those who, by participation in the show or by other assistance, helped to make the annual dramatic venture of the lodge such a great success. The banquet was held between the hours of eight and nine at the St. George cafe and was a most elaborate affair. Between courses, the United Orchestra rendered selections and before the final course was served many of the songs and choruses of "The College Pennant" were sung and some of the principal characters were called upon to make speeches. The toasts of R. W. Fletcher (Timothy Stubble) and Jack Urquhart (Adolph Vudelpuffer) were quite as good as their character work in the recent show and brought hearty laughs from the banqueters. Amid the jollity of the occasion all of the hard work undergone in preparing for the histrionic event and the many "call downs" from the director were forgotten. Shortly after the nine o'clock hour the Elks escorted their guests to the Eagle-Woodman hall where many other members of the order and their ladies had already assembled, and a delightfully informal dance was enjoyed until after midnight. The affair was from first to last complete in all its details and fully sustained the reputation which the Elks have made as ideal entertainers. The committee in charge of the banquet and dance was composed of Carl Cooley, George Strand and Fred W. Lampkin.

On last Tuesday evening the Delta Alpha class of the Methodist Sunday school enjoyed a basket social, the proceeds from which were given to the foreign missionary fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley N. Matlock will entertain Wednesday evening in the armory hall with an informal dancing party for their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Montgomery, formerly Pendletonians, were over from Baker last week for a visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar W. Smith and baby left yesterday for Portland after visiting for several weeks at the home of Mr. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Smith.

Mrs. Herbert Strohm and Mrs. Gerald Bohn of Hermiston were Saturday visitors in Pendleton.

Miss Gertrude Jordan is up from Portland where she is studying.

Misses Mary and Irene Shea left yesterday for Portland for a brief visit.

Misses Rae and Eunice Vogel, who have been visiting friends here for two weeks, left yesterday for Portland.

Ray Ellis came in this morning on the Walla Walla local and went out to Pilot Rock.

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

May Ask for New Trial.
 Judge Phelps has granted R. G. Belden until April 30 to file a motion to set aside the verdict in the case of Belden vs. Blackburn and to secure a new trial. The case was tried last week and resulted in a verdict for the defendant.

Injured in a Fall.
 Charles Finch, an employe of the Van Patton Lumber Co., suffered an injury to his head and back this morning when a ladder upon which he had mounted collapsed, precipitating him to the ground. The injuries are not serious but will prevent him from working for several days.

Demurrer Is Filed.
 Separate demurrers have been filed by James Johns and Henry T. Hill in the damage suit in which they are defendants and W. L. Thompson plaintiff. The demurrer is made on the usual grounds that the complaint does not cite facts enough to constitute a case.

Gay Hayden Back in City.
 Gay Hayden, member of the Round-up band, who left here several months ago in company with George Young and purchased a confectionery store in La Grande, is back in Pendleton. He sold out his interest in the store some time ago to his partner and since then has made a trip into Texas and another into Idaho.

Yardmaster Has Hand Crushed.
 Pat McKee, local yardmaster for the O-W, R. & N., suffered a painful injury to his left hand yesterday while operating a switch on the house tracks in the yard. His hand was caught between the ball of the switch and the trucks of a car and severely mashed. An examination of the injured member will be made today with an X-ray to determine the extent of the injuries, but at best it will be some time before the hand be used.

Four Marriage Licenses.
 Saturday afternoon was an auspicious occasion for one Dan Cupid. Four licenses to Umatilla county couples were issued by Deputy Clerk "Bob" Brown, to-wit, Jerome Z. Gervais and Fannie Edwards; John Attebury and Leona Fearheller; Charles S. Smith and Lella Harrison; and Frank S. Hanan and Mary E. Hargrove. The first named couple were married at the Christian church on Saturday by T. F. Weaver and the same minister united the last named couple at the church yesterday. County Judge J. W. Maloney officiated at the other two nuptials, both of which occurred on Saturday, the Attebury-Fearheller wedding in the office of J. B. Perry, and the Smith-Harrison wedding in the judge's office.

Walla Walla Autoists Here.
 Mr. and Mrs. Earl Paddock and Mr.

and Mrs. Harry Word of Walla Walla drove over from the Garden City yesterday in their auto. Mrs. Paddock is a sister of Mrs. Roy Alexander. Mr. Word is a son of Sheriff Tom Word of Portland and his wife was formerly Miss Una Luckey of this city.

Shakespeare Reception.
 At the Pendleton Public Library Wednesday evening the 349th anniversary of Shakespeare's birth will be observed with a program suitable to the occasion. The evening will be given over to a reception with features. A musical program will be given and a new consignment of books purchased with $300 from the Sturgis fund will be shown for the first time. The public is invited to attend.

Tweedy Is Committeeman.
 T. J. Tweedy of this city has been renominated by the National Indian War Veterans' association as committeeman from Oregon. Two other residents of this state are also on the committee. They are D. Van Brimmer and Paul Richt, both of Merrill, Ore.

Returns From California.
 Mrs. William Slusher has returned to Pendleton after spending several months in Los Angeles and other California points.

JOHN DAY HAS A MINING STAMPEDE

Dan O'Shea Is Reported to Have Struck It Rich at Canyon Mountain and Many Are Hunting Gold.

Baker, Ore., April 21.—According to a dispatch from John Day a feverish gold stampede has just been started by a strike on Canyon mountain, made by an old-time prospector, Dan O'Shea. O'Shea made his strike more than a week ago but succeeded in keeping it a secret for several days. When the news finally leaked out there was an immediate rush. It is rumored O'Shea has taken out between $2500 and $3000. One pan, it is said, yielded him $200.

Today Canyon mountain is covered with prospectors, both male and female, of every age, and with all kinds of equipment. They are prospecting all around the O'Shea claim and some of the more curious ones even tried to open a hole on the O'Shea claim. As a result of this O'Shea has been guarding his claim with a gun, and refuses to permit anyone on it. For many years this was perhaps the richest placer mining district in the state and one of the richest on the coast. However, for years now active mining operations, at least on a large scale, have been abandoned, although it was known that free gold existed.

BIG LINER LAUNCHED: LARGEST SHIP AFLOAT

Glasgow, April 21.—After the river Clyde had been widened to permit her to slip safely from the ways, the Cunard Liner Aquitania declared to be the largest vessel afloat, was launched today. The vessel is 960 feet long, 96 wide and 9 foot beam. It will accommodate 4000 passengers and carry a crew of 1100.

MORGAN'S SON GETS BULK OF THE ESTATE

New York, April 21.—"I commit my soul into the hands of my Savior in full confidence that having redeemed it and washed it in His most precious blood He will present it faultless before the throne of my Heavenly Father, and I entreat my children to maintain and defend at all hazards, and at any cost of personal sacrifice, the blessed doctrine of the complete atonement for sin through the blood of Jesus Christ, once offered and through that alone."

This is the extraordinary and striking utterance which begins the last will and testament of John Pierpont Morgan, who died at Rome on March 31 last, whose body, heaped over with flowers from the crowned heads of Europe, was, a fortnight later, back to his own land, and last Monday was borne to its last resting place at Hartford.

As to the amount of the estate, which is one of the first questions the public naturally is asking, there is nothing in the will to give any accurate idea, and the executors declare that no announcement will be made on this point until the appraisal has been made for determining the state inheritance tax.

The amount of bequests and trusts, named by specific sums is under $29,000,000 but the entire residue of the estate is left to J. P. Morgan, Jr., who is designated by his father to become his chief heir, not only to his fortune but to his many charitable and artistic activities.

As to the document itself, it is unusual in many of its features, and, according to those two or three intimate friends, who have already had a glimpse of it, it is a portrait of Mr. Morgan himself, beginning with the striking confession of his religious faith (a side of his character which was known to his close associates, but not to the world), and running through all its 37 articles, duly set forth in the same logical and orderly fashion, which his friends say, marked by all Mr. Morgan's mental processes.

A summary of the bequests to members of his family and for public purposes made by the will follows:

To His Wife.
 In trust (to be bequeathed at her death as she shall direct) $1,000,000.
 Trust fund from his father (the amount not given.)

Other funds sufficient to make her annual income $100,000.
 His country place, "Cragston" and all its contents.
 His Madison avenue home and contents (except family portraits and wines.)

To His Daughter, Anna T. Morgan.
 In trust, $3,000,000. If said daughter shall be married and have no children, and her husband shall
