SPORTS

ANDERSON WINS FROM MANDOT

Los Angeles, May 21.—Joe Mandot, of New Orleans, was knocked out in the 12th round of his scheduled 20 round fight here last night with "Bud" Anderson of Vancouver, Washington. Mandot was not knocked down in the final round but he was out on his feet. He was clearly insensible. Referee Eyeton, seeing the condition of the game southerner, stopped the fight with Mandot staggering blindly about the ring and held up Anderson's hand in token of victory.

Mandot's much vaunted cleverness as a boxer was of no avail against the hard hitting Anderson who not only out-slugged him in the fighting, but out-boxed him at long range. A terrific right to the body which Anderson started using in the first round proved the undoing of the southern lightweight. Anderson had a margin in every one of the eleven rounds before the end. There was but one knockdown—in the ninth when a sharp clip to the jaw put Mandot down—he was up in a second. Mandot stood up gamely under terrific punishment from the initial round but he steadily weakened with only an occasional flash which was ineffective.

It was several minutes after Referee Eyeton stopped the fight before Mandot recovered sufficiently to learn that the fight was over.

The Fight. After a brief feinting spell they went into a clinch and Anderson landed terrific punches to Mandot's kidneys and stomach. Mandot was unable to land a blow in the first round.

In the second round Anderson repeated, punishing Mandot severely and making him wince with a vicious right.

The third round Mandot stayed away from the hard hitting northerner but managed to put several light blows to Anderson's face. Anderson retaliated with both hands to the face but Mandot had the best of the long range encounter. Mandot scored with a hard right to the jaw as the bell rang. There was no clinching in this round.

In the fourth round Anderson played Mandot's own game, long range fighting, and kept him on his feet although Mandot managed to reach his face several times with well aimed swings. Mandot undaunted by the terrific body punishment he received in the first two rounds, rushed into a clinch at the beginning of the fourth and took another series of vicious rights to the stomach. Anderson then rushed his man across the ring and planted hard right and lefts to the jaw Mandot scoring once with a right to the jaw. Anderson both outboxed and out slugged the Mexican in that round. Mandot took the aggressive in the sixth and tried repeatedly to put Anderson away with a punch, but every intended knockout blow was cleverly evaded by Anderson.

Anderson was hooted for rough tactics in the clinches. In the eighth round they exchanged blows to the head without damage and wrestled about the ring. Anderson using his right to the stomach. Anderson rushed his man across the ring and held him against the ropes as the bell sounded. Mandot made his best showing in the beginning of the ninth when he rained rights and lefts to Anderson's jaw. As Mandot rushed again, Anderson caught him on the jaw with a left and dropped him to the mat but the New Orleans boy was up in a second and into a clinch. Anderson resumed his body punches. The round was the most vicious.

Bud Has Easy Time. The tenth round was all Anderson's. After sparring for the opening minute, Anderson rocked Mandot's head with a right and left when the southerner went into a clinch Anderson played his right to the stomach with telling effect.

Game to the core, but apparently weakened after the terrible punishment he had taken, Mandot tried desperately in the 11th to reach Anderson's jaw but his blows either went in or were ineffective and Anderson staggered him repeatedly with rights to the jaw or made him sag under body punishment.

Anderson forced the fighting at the beginning of the 12th and staggered Mandot with rights and lefts to the face and body. Mandot's desperation made all his efforts to no avail and when a terrific right to the jaw made him wilt, apparently helpless but still on his feet, referee Eyeton stopped the fight to save him from a knockout, and awarded the victory to Anderson.

GUNBOAT WINS 20 ROUND DECISION

Arena, San Francisco, May 21.—Fifty pounds advantage in weight, six inches in height and a reach like the arm of a derrick could not win last night for Jess Willard from Gunboat Smith, who won a referee's decision in the last round of a 20 round bout. The heavier punch of the more experienced and aggressiveness counted for more in the result than the bulk and strength of his towering opponent.

Inexperience lost the fight. Willard had the strength and the courage but he was too good natured and too sluggish. In the periods when he might have won the fight he lacked the courage and determination to push through for a victory. In the periods when Smith was in difficulty he always had the ring generalship, the cool head and the shifty knowledge to pull him through.

Of the 20 rounds fought, but six could be credited to Willard. In offense, he showed exactly what the critics have predicted for him, a tantalizing straight left and a right upper cut, dangerous at times. At infighting he was a novice.

BEARS BEAT SPUDS IN FIRST INNING

La Grande, May 21.—The Bears had the opening game of the series handed to them in the first inning yesterday mainly through the generosity of Pitcher Fitchner. He got generous with passes and "papered the bases" so that hits and errors did the rest, scoring three. The La Grande players came back in their half and got two. No more scores were made, the game ending Walla Walla 3; La Grande, 2.

Fitchner walked Harmon in the first inning and then Lundstrom singled. Fitchner walked Davis, Sheely hit into a fielder's choice. Johnson's hit to Miller was booted. Martini was given a walk forcing in one. Fitchner pitched wild and another came in. Miller got tangled up with the ball again and another Bear crossed the plate.

In their half of the contest La Grande got a couple. Shader walked Corbin and Miller followed with a single. Druhot singled, scoring both Nadeau singled and King hit into a triple play ending the run getting.

After the first inning both pitchers settled down to elegant work, Fitchner's being about as polished as the local park records contain. Shader's work was especially good and the young fellow who lost his first two games went a good ways toward redeeming himself.

Score: R. H. E.
La Grande 2 7 1
Walla Walla 3 6 1
Fitchner and King; Shader and Brown.

CELLAR CHAMPS DEFEAT BRAVES

Baker, Ore., May 21.—(Special)—Baker took the first game of the series with North Yakima yesterday by a score of 3 to 5. Coleman was only caught for 4 hits, two of those being in the ninth by pinch hitters. Kane was rapped for 10 safe ones and all of them came at opportune times. Over 400 fans saw the game.

In the seventh inning West came to bat and hit a hot one through Kane. It passed by second, and lost itself in center field. Cowan played hide and seek trying to find it and West trotted home. Finally a small boy came over and picked it off the cross beam of the fence for Cowan. In the eighth inning Coleman bunted a little easy one to Engle, who, thinking Coleman would not go to first, held it for a full minute and then threw to third after Rock had landed safe on the bag. "Spec" went on to first, and in a frantic endeavor to catch him there Jansen overthrew Fuller about six feet letting Rock score.

Running in three pinch hitters in the ninth Engle tried in vain to start a batting rally, and two scores were chalked in that inning.
Score: R. H. E.
Baker 8 10 6
North Yakima 5 4 5
Coleman and Cress; Kane and Stanley.

"REFORMED" PREACHER MAKES NEWSPAPER PAY

University of Oregon, Eugene, Ore., May 21.—The story of a "reformed" preacher, who, leaving his flock six years ago, entered the newspaper business, and who has made good, is that of D. C. Sanderson, editor and publisher of the Freewater Times. He attended the editor's conference at the University of Oregon Commonwealth program Saturday. Mr. Sanderson addressed the newspaper men upon the "Country Newspaper."

Six years ago Mr. Sanderson, then a minister of the gospel, found his way to Freewater, Ore., 28 miles northeast of Pendleton. The population of the town is less than 500. Yet, in this diminutive field, this man today owns a modern newspaper plant and has $5000 in the bank. He tells his own story.

"Six years ago I took the paper for the debts against it. It had a circulation of 117, a hand press, not enough type to get out an auction bill, no job presses, nor, in fact, much of anything. Today I have a Brower press, a unitype, which cost $1500, a splendid equipment, and a circulation of 900 copies weekly. I have paid for the plant out of what I have made, and have made $5000 besides.

"I am not a practical printer, do not know one letter from another in type, but I have applied common sense business methods and a great deal of hustle."

APPROACH OF JUNE STARTS MATRIMONIAL BEE BUZZING

Salem, Ore., May 21.—"Cupid A. E. Combs worked overtime Saturday at the court house, three marriage licenses were issued and one couple was married, by Justice F. L. Hubbard at the court house. The licenses granted were, Alva O. Bloom to Eva V. Evans, James M. Palmer to May White, united in connubial bliss at the judge's sanctum, and C. A. Koehler to Minnie H. Brechbiel.

Aside from these one young swain and his prospective bride attempted to secure the necessary papers that would make them happy ever afterward, but it was discovered the girl was of too tender years. The parents' consent will be sought, and it is thought the last obstacle in their adjourned honeymoon will be overcome.

NOT A MARRIAGE AGENT, SAYS FEESE

Klamath Falls Preacher Gets 1000 Letters From Manless Femininity.

Klamath Falls, Ore., May 21.—Rev. G. H. Feese, the local Methodist minister, who has acquired the reputation of the "marrying parson," wants the clergy throughout the country to know that he is not conducting a matrimonial bureau. Rev. Mr. Feese made a trip, some months ago, through eastern Klamath county, where the country is sparsely populated. Many of the ranchers are bachelors. They appealed to the minister to find them life companions. When the marrying parson returned from his trip he told the newspapers of the existing conditions. The public soon brought returns in the nature of letters from matrimonially inclined women and girls, residing principally on the east side of the Rock mountains. Rev. Mr. Feese says he has received not less than 1000 letters. Among them are letters from his old home in the east, charging him with conducting a matrimonial bureau.

The "marrying parson" says that he does not object to helping a man find a wife and then tying the knot for them, but he takes exceptions to the accusation that he has fallen from grace and engaged in this holy line of work for coin.

One of the largest incubators in use for hatching chicks is to be found in New Orleans. It is operated by electricity and the heat is automatically controlled.

3 GAMES IN W. W. THIS WEEK

- Walla Walla, May 21.—The Friday, Saturday and Sunday games of the Walla Walla-La Grande series will be played in Walla Walla.
- Manager August Bade telephoned to President Nat Higgins of the local club yesterday that he had arranged for the transfer and that the fans could look for some fine baseball as La Grande is much stronger than when here before.
- Manager Bade left yesterday morning for La Grande to arrange for the series as he desired to give the fans something to see. The three weeks break was considered too long.

TO MOTHERS FROM THE FAMOUS WHITBREAD ENGLAND

For Sleeplessness, Insomnia, Nervousness and that General Run Down Condition. A Simple and Pleasant Remedy

For over 100 years the greatest doctors in England have recommended the famous Whitbread English Ale or Whitbread renowned Stout (or Malted Extract) for mothers, invalids and those in a run-down condition. It has given comfort to thousands of grateful women. Whitbread's Ale or Stout (Malted Extract) is made from the finest barley, malt and hops and matured only in bottles and sent from England direct to America. It is most easily digested and makes rich blood. It is absolutely different from all other English Ales or Stouts, and is consumed by the most temperate people as a wonderful tonic and blood giver. Doctors, energy men and professional men drink it to build up the system. A glass with your meals and at night time will give that restful sleep.

Whitbread Ale as a beverage is unexcelled. The Whitbread Stout contains more hops than the Ale and consumed by those in a run-down condition, and especially by women. Your local dealer can obtain Whitbread for you, but be sure not to accept any substitute as the famous Whitbread is entirely different from all other ales or stouts, being matured in the bottle in England, and does not contain any artificial salt. Whitbread is the largest house of its kind in the world. Established since 1742.
