GLADSTONE'S EARLY WIT.

Gladstone, when a boy, was visiting in the country and the farmer was showing him around. Coming to a field that contained a large black bull, the farmer said: "There's a fine strong bull there, Master William, and it's only two years old."

"How do you tell its age?" queried the boy.

"Why, by its horns," said the farmer.

"By its horns?" Young Gladstone looked thoughtful a moment, then his face cleared. "Ah, I see. Two horns—two years."—Boston Transcript.

Fond of Arms.

Clara—I see Cynthia has decorated her room with guns, pistols, swords and the like.

Cora—Yes; she always has been a great girl for having arms about her. —Boston Post.

FLASHES FROM THE WIRE

Vancouver, B. C., June 7.—Mine officials of the Nanaimo district are still stunned by the sudden defection of sixty-five coal miners imported from England, who deserted when they learned they were expected to act as strikebreakers. The men have registered at strike headquarters for strike benefits. They were intercepted by an International Mine Workers' official just as they were being transferred to a boat for the coal fields.

Salem, Ore., June 7.—L. W. McMahan, a local lawyer, declares he will push his charges against F. H. Snodgrass, former deputy warden of the penitentiary here, whom he accused of assaulting a convict named Davis who had broken his parole by drinking. McMahan says Gov. Snodgrass failed to act.

San Francisco, June 7.—General

Manager Scott of the Southern Pacific now feels immune from a future thrashing because Fluffy is found. Fluffy is a dog, lost in transit, and Walter Farnum, Jr., of Seattle, promised the thrashing "when he got big" able to score only one in the eighth nine.

Vancouver, B. C., June 7.—By the collapse of a staging around an eight story building in course of erection, P. Axlund, a carpenter, fell eighty feet and was probably fatally injured.

San Francisco, June 7.—Richard Eclair, jocularly known as "Chocolate," a young man about town, is grieving because he "fell" for the "lonesome girl" story put over by Miss Lucile Manderoff of Seattle, Tacoma, Los Angeles and other cities. He volunteered to show her the town when she put up $25 for expenses. Dawn found her still lonesome and when Chocolate failed to return the coin, she smote him with her bag. She also had him arrested but did not prosecute.

San Francisco, June 7.—The Southern Pacific railroad in its announcement of its budget, contemplating the issue of $20,000,000 in bonds, announced $2,501,580 for electrifying Willamette valley lines and reconstructing Sheridan-Willamina line and other extensive improvements. The company's finances are declared to include large reserves of stocks and bonds.

When your child has whooping cough be careful to keep the cough loose and expectorate easy by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as may be required. This remedy will make it easier to expectorate. It has been used successfully in many epidemics and is safe and sure. For sale by all dealers.

There is no real need of anyone being troubled with constipation. Chamberlain's Tablets will cause an agreeable movement of the bowels without any unpleasant effect. Give them a trial. For sale by all dealers.

PAIR HASTILY REMARRIED UPON DISCOVERY THAT THEY WERE DIVORCED

Centralia, Wash., June 7.—After living for two years without knowing they were divorced, John and Eva Kerth, foreigners, were remarried in Chehalis. The couple, wishing property transferred, consulted an attorney, who secured a divorce for them without their knowing what they were doing. The Kerths were grief-stricken when they found that they were not married.

THE POOR PEDESTRIAN.

Secretary of War Garrison is, of course no foe to the automobile, but during his judgeship in New Jersey, he always showed a commendable respect for the rights of the foot passenger.

Mr. Garrison, commenting on an accident where an automobilist had been selfish and reckless, once said: "This man's attitude towards the general public reminds me of Spede, whom a friend asked:

"How did you come to run over that poor old fellow? Were you running too fast?"

"No, said the automobilist, 'he was running too slow.'"

It is now well known that more than one case of rheumatism in ten requires any internal treatment whatever. All that is needed is a free application of Chamberlain's Liniment and massaging the parts at each application. Try it and see how quickly it will relieve the pain and soreness. Sold by all dealers.
