A quiet wedding took place in the New Grand Hotel Monday at 5 p. m. when Rev. N. Evans united in marriage Clarence Wheeler and Miss Inez Wells. After a short stay in the city they returned to their home in Meacham.

John R. Hays, a prosperous McKay creek rancher, was united in marriage with Miss Leatha O. Elder at the home of the bride's parents in Riverside addition Tuesday at 11:30 a. m. Rev. N. Evans performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. An excellent wedding dinner was served. The young people went directly to their new home on McKay creek.

An enthusiastic audience listened to the piano recital given at the Methodist church Tuesday evening by the pupils of the Malen Burnett school of piano playing. Very excellent was the playing of the children as well as the more advanced, and their technique was well developed. Miss Whiting's numbers were thoroughly appreciated and she was forced to respond to an encore. Her runs are dainty, her tone clear and the heavy passages brilliant. Miss Burnett's playing added much to the enjoyment of the evening. At the close of the program prizes were awarded to Dorothy Henderson and Mary Laatz for having averaged the best grades for the entire year, though Miss Burnett announced that all the pupils have done so well a decision was difficult.

A very quiet wedding occurred Wednesday morning at the home of the bride's parents when Miss Emma Lillian Richardson became the bride of Edward C. Tweet of Spokane, the Rev. Nathan Evans officiating. Following the ceremony which was attended only by relatives, a light breakfast was served. The happy couple left on the afternoon train for Spokane, where after sojourning a few days they will leave for Minneapolis and other eastern cities. The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Seth Richardson and is well and popularly known here, having been graduated from the Pendleton high school and later a popular member of the Pendleton teaching faculty. The groom comes from Spokane, where he is connected with the firm of Clyde H. Williams & Co. On their return from the east they will make their home in British Columbia.

A prominent wedding of the past week was that on Wednesday evening at which Miss Wilma Burmeister became the bride of Roy T. Bishop, Rev. S. L. Grigsby of the Presbyterian church pronouncing the words that united them. The scene of the nuptials was the home of Mrs. J. R. Dickson on the south hill and the spacious rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion. The couple entered to the strains of a wedding march played by Miss Lilla Grigsby. The bride being accompanied by her sister, Miss Dora Burmeister of Salt Lake as bridesmaid and the bridegroom by Walter Waggoner, a cousin of the bride. The wedding gown of the bride was of white charmeuse with a white lace overdress and she wore a veil which was fastened by two pearl pins. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and her only other adornment was a beautiful bar pin of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the bridegroom. Mrs. Dickson sang after the ceremony. Following the congratulations by the few friends and relatives present, Mr. and Mrs. Bishop were driven to Walla Walla in an auto and, after spending two days there, returned yesterday evening to Pendleton. They will make their home at 315 West Jackson street. The bride has been a resident of Pendleton for the past three years, while Mr. Bishop has been here since the opening of the Pendleton Woolen Mills, of which he is one of the managers. Both young people are prominent in local society circles.

One of the many June marriages of the past week was that of Lester A. Hamley of this city to Miss Clara B. Meek of Indianapolis, Indiana, which was solemnized on Tuesday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Harry E. Pinkerton, 415 East Sumner street, Walla Walla. Rev. E. M. Clingan of the First Presbyterian church of that city was the officiating clergyman. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Pinkerton and visited in Pendleton a year or more ago when the Pinkertons were residents of this city. She is a very charming young lady. The bridegroom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hamley of this city. He is a graduate of the local high school and later attended the University of Washington where he was a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. He is at present associated with his father and F. J. McMonies in the Hamley and Co. saddle and harness manufacturing firm of this city. The young couple are now in Portland and later will go to Seaside for a short sojourn before returning to Pendleton.

Complimenting Miss Una Smith, a popular June bride-elect, Mrs. Merle R. Chessman was hostess Wednesday evening at a shower at her home 414 Water street. Bridge was played during the fore part of the evening, the prizes being won by Mrs. A. C. Hampton and Miss Viola Shea. The shower was held at the conclusion of the games and Miss Smith received many beautiful gifts from her friends. The guest list for the affair was as follows: Mrs. Carl Power, Mrs. Westbrook, Mrs. George Strand, Mrs. A. C. Hampton, Mrs. George La Fontaine, Mrs. Sam R. Thompson, Mrs. Frank Fairbanks, Mrs. Herbert Thompson, Mrs. Thomas Vaughan (Portland), and the Misses Bertha Anker, Edna Zimmerman, Edna Wistler, Edith Johnson, Edna Storie, Elizabeth Sawtelle, Katherine Campbell, Pauline La Fontaine, Irene Shea, Mabel Bickers, Viola Shea, Iva Hill, Sophia Bowler (Denver), Norma Alloway, Lilla Grigsby, Edna Thompson and Elizabeth Smith.

On Thursday morning at 10 o'clock Miss Mary Ellen Cornfield became the bride of Forrest Leroy Baker, the wedding being celebrated at the Catholic rectory with the Rev. Father Duran officiating. Only immediate members of the family witnessed the ceremony. The bride wore a beautiful gown of blue silk and carried American beauty roses. Following the wedding a dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, 514 Jackson street, and the young couple left on the evening train for Spokane, returning this morning. They will make their home on Lillith street in the new bungalow recently built by Miss Rose Hamilton. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Cornfield and the bridegroom is the foreman of the East Oregonian mechanical department. Both young people have lived in Pendleton for a number of years and have made many friends who are congratulating them upon their union.

A quiet wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Guilford, 410 Ann street, on Thursday morning at nine o'clock when their daughter, Miss Dorothy Guilford, and Frank Hinkle took the marital vows as administered by Rev. Nathan Evans. The impressive ring service of the Methodist Episcopal church was used. Only a few relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony which was followed by a wedding breakfast. Immediately afterwards, the happy couple left for Portland where they will attend the Rose Festival. They will also spend some time at Seaside before returning to Pilot Rock, their future home.

One of the large social events of the season will be the social to be given by the Catholic ladies next Monday evening in the Moose hall, the proceeds of which will be added to the building fund of the church. Ice cream and cake will be served by the ladies. Those in charge of the affair are Mrs. William Scheer, Mrs. James Devlin, Mrs. George O'Daniel, Mrs. Adolph Molitor, Mrs. Joseph Fiedler, Mrs. John Quigley, Mrs. Gus La Fontaines and Mrs. Thomas F. O'Brien.

Invitations have been received by local friends to the wedding of Clifton Nesmith McArthur and Miss Lucile Smith which is to take place at Trinity church Portland, Wednesday evening, June 25. Mr. McArthur has twice been speaker of the Oregon house of representatives and is well known politically over the state. His bride-to-be is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clifford Smith of Portland.

Invitations were this week sent out for the wedding of two very popular Pendleton young people, Miss Una Coy Smith and Cyrus Cressey Sturgis. The wedding is to take place on the evening of June 25 in the Methodist church and will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar L. Smith, at 317 Chestnut street.

A marriage of interest to local people was celebrated last Wednesday evening in the Atkinson Memorial church in Portland when John G. Kilpack and Miss Helena Marguerite Hawthorne became man and wife. The bridegroom is the traveling representative of the Boys and Girls' Aid Society of Portland and frequently makes Pendleton a visit.

Mrs. Samuel Bowler will leave next week for her home in Denver after spending several months here visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. C. Hampton, and her son, James Bowler. Miss Sophie Bowler will remain several weeks longer.

Miss Goldie McElroy of Pendleton and George T. Mathews of this city were married yesterday afternoon by the Rev. N. D. Wood of the Marvin M. E. church, South, at the parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. Mathews will make a home in Walla Walla.—Walla Walla Bulletin.

Mrs. Robert Forster was hostess yesterday afternoon at her Water street home to the members of the Current Literature club. Following a business session, an enjoyable program was given, after which refreshments were served.

Mrs. J. P. Neal of Freewater, entertained yesterday afternoon at cards in honor of Miss Olga Baumeister. Miss Baumeister received high score honors and a guest honor. Mrs. Alvin Baumeister also received honors.—Walla Walla Bulletin.

An enjoyable event of the week was a dancing party given Wednesday evening in the East-Woodman hall by the Young Girls' Dancing Club. A large crowd was present.

Mrs. Leon Cohen left during the fore part of the week to join her husband and his brother at Stockton, California, for a motor trip through the Yosemite valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Bishop of Salem are visiting in the city, having come up to attend the wedding of their son to Miss Wilma Burmeister.

Mrs. Harry Bickers and Miss Mabel Pickers left today for Portland for a visit of two weeks.

Mrs. William Lyons of Minenapolis is a guest at the home of her mother, Mrs. Alice Sheridan.

Mrs. H. O. Moussu is visiting her daughters in Portland.

PROTEST IS MADE BY WOOL GROWERS

Willamette Valley Association Sends Message to Wilson and Oregon Senators.

Portland, Ore., June 7.—The Willamette Valley Wool Growers' association is vigorously opposed to any reduction in the tariff on wool or meat, and through its secretary, C. D. Minton, filed protests with President Wilson and Senators Chamberlain and Lane.

The telegram to President Wilson reads:

"The Willamette Valley Wool Growers' association at their annual meeting directed me as secretary to protest against the reduction of the tariff both upon wool and meat believing that it will be to the detriment of both of these industries for the tariff to be removed therefrom."

The telegrams to Senators Chamberlain and Lane read as follows:

"The Willamette Valley Wool Growers' association, at their recent annual meeting, directed me as secretary to advise you that you were elected upon a non-partisan platform and that as you had expressed your opposition to both free wool and meat that they request you to be true to your own conscience and to the people of the state of Oregon, irrespective of party affiliations."

Best Laxative for the Aged.

Old men and women feel the need of a laxative more than young folks, but it must be safe and harmless and one which will not cause pain. Dr. King's New Life Pills are especially good for the aged, for they act promptly and easily. Price 25c. Recommended by Koeppe's.

WRECK AT LAKEVIEW BLAMED ON N. P. TRACK

Olympia, Wash., June 7.—Responsibility for the fatal wreck of an O. W. R. & N. train on the Northern Pacific tracks near Lakeview, May 12, has been placed upon the Northern Pacific by findings made by the state public service commission.

Section Foreman C. M. Austin is charged with not maintaining safe track conditions in removing too many spikes from ties and the commission says had slow flag been given, as it should have been, the wreck probably would not have happened. Four were killed in this wreck.

DISCONTENTED MAN ENDS LIFE OF TICKET AGENT

Woman and Her Varied Interests

Picnic Cooking Made Easy.

In a practical article on "Picnics and Campings," in the June Woman's Home Companion, appears the following: "Picnic cooking, if in inexperienced hands, will undoubtedly be better over a stove than an open fire. But you cannot carry a stove on a picnic or camping expedition; nor need you. A piece of thin sheet iron, 30 inches long by 18 inches wide is all you want. This is laid across two little banks of earth, with the fire between them, or two logs with the fire between, forms an excellent stove, and not only makes it unnecessary to wait for embers for good cooking—since the flames cannot reach the food through the sheet iron—but is in itself an excellent griddle for making toast and flapjacks."

Handy Cake Box.
Take a tight box and remove one side. Make a board which fits exactly on inside, says Farm and Fireside. Turn your cake out on it with a greased paper under it, and after icing it put the box over it; then you have your cake put away without moving it. Cover the box with paper, or fix in any way to match your kitchen. Put a ring or handle on top to lift lid.

Washing Flannel.
I have found that washing flannels in warm water and then rinsing in cold causes the flannel to shrink, writes a New York Press correspondent. I tried washing them in warm water with soap and rinsing them in still warmer water and found that this method kept the flannel from shrinking and preserved its softness.

Why Women Have Nerves

The "blues"—anxiety—sleeplessness—and warnings of pain and distress are sent by the nerves like flying messengers throughout body and limbs. Such feelings may or may not be accompanied by backache or headache or bearing down. The local disorders and inflammation, if there is any, should be treated with Dr. Pierce's Lotion Tablets. HOW TO KEEP IN PERFECT HEALTH.

A Wonderful Complexion WITH WHITBREAD

The English race has for over 100 years consumed the famous Whitbread English Ale or Whitbread Renowned Stout (Malt Extract), made from the finest barley, malt and hops. Matured naturally in bottles in England and sent direct to America by the great house of Whitbread and do not contain any artificial gas. The greatest doctors in England have recommended to thousands of women the Whitbread Stout for their ailments. For mothers, invalids and those in a nervous, run-down condition it is invaluable. The most temperate people drink Whitbread Ale because it is not only a delicious beverage but a blood giver and tonic. Doctors, clergymen and professional men have taken Whitbread to build up their systems and keep them in good condition. People in a run-down condition or susceptible to colds will find the most wonderful effect from taking Whitbread. A glass with your meals and again at night time will give that restful sleep. A dozen bottles can be obtained from your local dealer, but do not accept any substitute as Whitbread is totally unlike all other English Ales or Stouts, being naturally matured in the bottles and is therefore most easily digested. A trial for one week will convince you of the wonderful effect of either Whitbread Ale or Whitbread Stout.

HELP FOR WORKING GIRLS

Two Girls Tell Story of Their Illness and How They Found Relief.

New Orleans, La.—"I take pleasure in writing these lines to express my gratitude to you. I am only 16 years old and work in a tobacco factory. I have been a very sick girl but I have improved wonderfully since taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now looking fine and feeling a thousand times better."
—Miss AMELIA JAQUILLARD, 613 Seventh Street, New Orleans, La.

St. Clair, Pa.—"My mother was alarmed because my periods were suppressed and I had pains in my back and side, and severe headaches. I had pimples on my face, my complexion was sallow, my sleep was disturbed, I had nervous spells, was very tired and had no ambition. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has worked a charm in my case and has regulated me. I worked in a mill among hundreds of girls and have recommended your medicine to many of them."
—Miss ESTELLA MAGUIRE, 110 Thwing St., Saint Clair, Pa.

There is nothing that teaches more than experience. Therefore, such letters from girls who have suffered and were restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be a lesson to others. The same remedy is within reach of all.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
