"Where All Are Pleased"

AMUSEMENTS

The Orpheum.

An exceptional good program for Friday's change:

The Amateur Lion Tamer. Vitagraph. Featuring Mr. Hughie Mack and Charles Eldridge. He gets up a tree with the lions in hot pursuit. He fills his act thoroughly satisfied that once was enough.

The Artist's Sacrifice. Kalem. Featuring Miss Alice Joyce and Tom Moore in a dramatic classic. A beautiful model brings fame to a struggling artist, who makes a noble sacrifice for his younger brother.

The Good in the Worst of Us. Edison. Two criminals, hiding from the police, are discovered by the sergeant's baby girl. They hide in a barn with her, one is wounded and trying to get food and the other bravely carries her off to her father and gives himself up to save her from starvation.

His Father's Deputy. Selig.

The Pastime Theater.

The home of good pictures offers a well balanced program for Friday's change.

"Indian Summer." Selig. A romance of "Dixieland," featuring Herbert Rawlinson, in the leading role. He deserves special commendation for his character work and for the stages through which he carries the unfortunate soldier after his release from the Union prison. Eugene Besserer in the role of his sweetheart, also shows much skill.

"The Price of Silence." Pathplay. The story of a young mother who hears the call of the footlights and deserts her husband and baby daughter to answer.

"Detective Dot." Lubin. Francis McMeyer plays a would-be girl detective in a manner most pleasing. It also transpires that every man with whiskers fascinates a girl detective.

"Bragg's New Suit." Edison. One of Charles M. Seay's comedies, with William Betchel as Bragg, a teller of long stories who is shown up at his club.

"His First Experience." Lubin. A comedy love story. The bachelor falls in love with the widow in the next house. Her little boy (Buster Johnson) plays the part of a human cupid.

"Glimpses of Colorado in Winter." Edison. After a trip through beautiful Crystal Park we visit the ruins of the famous cliff dwellers. Then see Manitou Springs. A fine view of Pike's Peak closes a most interesting film.

Cosy.

Added attraction—Owens and Pine, clever juvenile entertainers in a complete change of specialties every night. This is without doubt one of the best acts ever shown in Pendleton and one that we guarantee will please our patrons.

Picture program for Wednesday and Thursday:

"Just a Fire Fighter." Imp. Comedy and thrills are well blended in this offering. The doings of amateur night when the audience bombard the would be actress with tin cans and ancient vegetables, will make lots of laughs. The fire and panic in the theater make the thrills. There is a very realistic fire scene and a daring rescue by the young fireman whom the girl had turned down when she got the stage fever.

"Be It Ever So Humble." Nestor. Riches, fame and honor are as nothing compared to love and "home sweet home." A pleasing story of the west that will make a strong appeal.

"The Whole Truth." "Don't lie to your wife," is the moral of this delightful comedy, for when she finds out the whole truth there is trouble a-plenty.

"The Poverty of Riches." Rex.

Six Big Vaudeville Acts Coming.

The Grand theater, which has been dark for a week, will reopen Sunday night with the Hayes-Patton vaudeville combination, which includes six big acts—the most ever presented at this house, or any other in this city at one entertainment—including the latest and most thrilling feature films by the Keystone company and others of standard reputation. The Hayes-Patton combination were secured through the coast representative of the Western Managers' association. Prices will be hereafter, notwithstanding the unusual size and strength of attractions, just a little lower than heretofore. General admission 20c; gallery 15c; reserved opera chairs, 25c.

It is now well known that more than one case of rheumatism in ten requires any internal treatment whatever. All that is needed is a free application of Chamberlain's Liniment and massaging the parts at each application. Try it and see how quickly it will relieve the pain and soreness. Sold by all dealers.

Wrong Man; Case is Dismissed.
The case against Hiram F. Schreckish in which he was charged with the larceny of a stove was today dismissed in the justice court upon motion of District Attorney Steiner. Mrs. Ida Strout of Meacham was the complaining witness but from information gleaned by the district attorney, she had accused the wrong man. The stove was stolen about two years ago but was not located until recently.

More Round-up Thunder Stolen.
Salt Lake is the latest town to step in and steal the Round-up thunder. Posters announcing that a world's championship "Stampede" will be held in the Mormon capital from July 4 to July 10 have been received in the city and across the bottom in large, red letters is the slogan of the local show, "Let 'er Buck." A number of Round-up scenes are also used to illustrate the poster.

Two thousand dollars was set as the mark and by last evening the committee had raised $1820. The members are out again today and believe they will raise the other $180 before night.

LOCAL MAN TAKES OVER THE GRAND

By a deal closed today, Harry E. Watson takes over the management of the Grand theater from Harry Park and will have charge of that playhouse in the future. The deal has been pending for some time and was so assured that Mr. Watson has been negotiating for some time to secure high class attractions. He is thus able to announce today that he has entered into a contract whereby he will secure the features of the Tabloid circuit for a year, commencing about August 1. For the time being he will put on programs of vaudeville and moving pictures and after July 4 plans to remodel the interior of the theater. The new manager is quite elated over his success in signing the Tabloid, attractions of mixed vaudeville and musical comedy for Messrs. Martin Beck and Sam Shaw have but few small cities on their circuit.

Mr. Watson is well known in Pendleton, having been engaged in the newspaper and real estate business here for several years.

ASQUITH DEFENDS GEORGE.

Marconi Deal is Again Before House of Commons—Vote is Expected Tonight.

London, June 19.—With the fate of the cabinet and the control of the government hanging in the balance Premier Asquith spoke in commons today in defense of Lloyd George, and Rufus Isaacs, charged by the opposition with using their official positions to wire in shares of the Marconi Wireless company. A vote whether the cabinet officers will be retired is expected tonight.

PENDLETON BANKER HEADS STATE BODY

After attending the two day annual convention of the Oregon State Bankers' association at which he was elected president for the ensuing year, W. L. Thompson, president of the American National bank of this city, arrived home from Corvallis this morning. Mr. Thompson was vice president of the association during the past year. He feels that the honor bestowed upon him not so much as a recognition of himself as it is of his bank and of the banking community which he represents.

The other officers chosen were as follows: A. C. Shute of Hillsboro, vice president; J. L. Hartman of Portland, secretary, re-elected, A. J. Johnson of Corvallis, treasurer, Leslie Butler of Hood River, retiring president of the association, was selected as representative of the state association at the National Assembly which will be held in October.

He reports that Medford made a strong bid for the 1914 convention but that the decision rests with the executive committee. Much important discussion and many valuable talks were participated in by the large number of bankers present, according to Mr. Thompson, and he feels that altogether the meeting was a most profitable one.

Bank Colonization Plan.
Among a number of resolutions passed one was to the effect that the bankers believe and co-operate in the movement the commercial clubs, and local banks of the state have started to secure options of large tracts of land for colonization purposes. This movement is for the purpose of securing acreage that can be sold direct to colonists at a low figure, thereby putting more agriculturalists on Oregon farms and eliminating the selling and purchasing of farm lands on a purely speculative basis.

O. A. C. Royally Entertained.
Mr. Thompson is most enthusiastic over the manner in which the bankers were entertained by the Oregon Agricultural college and declares that
