WHEAT MARKETS

Chicago, June 21.—Bears held control of the wheat market yesterday. Trade opened with a loss of 1-8 to 1-2c a bushel with September the week feature. Closing was 1-8c off for September and 3-8c off for December delivery.

Trading in the wheat market was of small caliber with more of an evening up movement in the trade than anything else.

STOCK MARKET.

 With the exception of sheep there was only a handful of supplies offering in the North Portland market today. The situation in the mutton trade continues to show weakness for everything except lambs, and only a nominal number of these have been received of late.

Sheep market trade at most other points in the country is weaker with lower prices generally forced. At Chicago there was a steady tone in the sheep trade for the day.

North Portland nominal mutton price range:

Spring lambs $6.00@6.50
 Yearling lambs $6.00@6.50
 Yearling ewes 4.50@4.75
 Old ewes 3.75@4.50
 Ordinary ewes 3.75@4.50
 Fancy ewes 4.25@4.50

Cattle Market Is Firm.

Strength continues to be shown in the market for cattle at North Portland. There was only a very small run for the day, and these were quickly picked up by buyers at former values. There was nothing available worth more than $8.35 in the steer division, but this price was paid for a few.

Killers have purchased quite liberally of cattle at California points recently, and they are likely to make every effort to hold up the price here for the nominal local offerings.

North Portland cattle range:

Heavy steers 8.50
 Choice steers 8.25@8.35
 Common steers 7.50@7.75
 Fancy steers 3.15
 Fancy cows 7.50
 Fancy light calves 9.00@9.05
 Ordinary light calves 7.50@8.00
 Heavy calves 5.00@6.50
 Best bulls 5.50
 Ordinary bulls 4.50@5.75

Hog Market Is Steady.

No general change was shown in the swine market situation at North Portland for the day. There was only a portion of a load reported in and this was not sold until rather late in the morning. It was shipped in from a Willamette valley point and did not show the extreme quality of the stock that brought $8.40 yesterday.

North Portland general hog market:

Best light $ 8.40
 Medium 8.30@8.35
 Medium heavy 8.00@8.25
 Rough and heavy 7.00@7.50
