SCOTLAND YARD DETECTIVES GUARD THE GARDEN PARTY

Demonstration by Suffragists Feared—Royalty of England Hold Final Function as Climax to Festivities of Ascot Week—Ambassador Page is Among the Guests.

Windsor, Eng., June 21.—Under the watchful scrutiny of several hundred Scotland Yarders 6,000 persons today attended the brilliant garden party at Windsor arranged by King George and Queen Mary as a climax to the festivities of Ascot week. Reports for several days past that the suffragettes would attempt a demonstration were the occasion of extraordinary precautions to prevent the admission of any unauthorized persons. All were required to present their invitation cards at the big gate but in fear that some tickets might be transferred or even forged, detectives shadowed everyone whose identity was not known to the gate officials and concerning whom there was the very slightest reason for suspicion. In addition their majesties and members of the cabinet were at all times practically surrounded by small squads of Scotland Yard officers in the guise of guests, while an unusually large force of uniformed police were on hand about the grounds. The guests, who included almost the entire membership of parliament, the diplomatic corps and the leaders of European society, were brought from London by special train. The new democratic American Ambassador Walter H. Page, in orthodox silk hat and "Prince Albert," with most of the embassy staff, enjoyed his first taste of royal hospitality. Queen Mary presided over the tea-urn in the royal tent and Dr. Page was one of the few who took their tea from her hands. The Prince of Wales and a few of his Oxford friends were present, the prince having come home for his 19th birthday celebration on the 23rd.

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Will Be All-Star Cast.
A number of Pendleton people will go over to Walla Walla Tuesday to see the all-star cast play "Fine Feathers" in that city.

Licensed to Wed.
John Alf and Mary Whitehead, both of this city, today secured a license to wed. The girl is a daughter of Mrs. Addie Beno, and being under the legal age, her mother's consent was necessary. Alf is a foreigner who makes interpreting his business.

Pendleton Boys Are Graduated.
Glen Storie and Harold Warner, two well known graduates of the Pendleton high school, Thursday received degrees of bachelors of arts at the University of Oregon, at which institution both were students for the past four years. Young Storie arrived home yesterday, while Warner is in Portland where his parents now live.

Boys Ride to Springs.
At five o'clock this morning four young boys, Henry Judd, Donald Robinson, Edward Thompson and Fred Neagle mounted their ponies for a ride to Bingham Springs. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Judd and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Robinson followed them by auto this afternoon.

Liquor Case Dismissed.
For lack of convincing evidence, Police Judge Fitz Gerald yesterday dismissed the case against James "Mickey" Madden, charged with selling liquor to Indians. Much conflicting testimony was introduced and the judge was of the opinion that the guilt of the accused was not established beyond a reasonable doubt.

Picture of Big Mallet Engine.
The current edition of the Harriman magazine "The Footers" has for a cover photograph a picture of one of the big mallet engines used on the Blue mountains. The photo was taken in the local yards and shows Agent T. F. O'Brien in the background. The engine has sixteen drive wheels and when laden with fuel and water weighs approximately 533,000 pounds.

Committed to Hospital.
Mrs. E. Swaney, 47 years old, of this city, was yesterday ordered committed to the branch state hospital by Judge Maloney, an examination by Dr. H. S. Garfield having shown her to be insane. She was once an inmate for two years of a Denver sanatorium and recently showed signs of a return of her previous mental condition, being under the delusion that she was once shot and is in danger of being shot again.

Caldwell Wants Franchise.
That Caldwell is eager to secure the La Grande franchise in the Western Tri-State league and will have a delegate at the directors' meeting in Baker tomorrow is the substance of a message received in the city today. The little Idaho city seems to be alive to the opportunity of being on the baseball map and, it is said, will be ready to offer assurances that the team will finish the season if the franchise is transferred. Director Rittner of Pendleton will leave for Baker in the morning.

Real Estate Transfers.
Henry S. Sciles and wife of Edwall, Wash., to E. T. Wade, lot 7, block 3, Bailey's addition to Pendleton; John W. Peringer to Eliza A. Peringer, lots 1 and 2, block 12 and lot 7 of block 13, town of Adams; Hazel Investment Co. to W. J. Furnish two acres in sec. 33, twp. 4, N. R. 29; George A. Moomaw and wife of Seattle to A. T. Duff of Walla Walla for $2000, 10 acres in sec. 25, twp. 6, N. R. 35; A. E. Wayland of Spokane to W. H. and Mary M. Wayland, 155 acres in section 33, twp. 6, N. R. 35.

Louis F. Anderson Jr., of Corvallis, is a guest of the St. George.

AMUSEMENTS

Orpheum.
An extra good program for Sunday's program.

The Yaqui Cur. Biograph. Two reels. Featuring Robert Harron and Walter Miller. The prospector had taught the Indian boy the doctrine of peace. When his tribe resisted the attack of another tribe the boy did not take part. The din of the battle as the horsemen circled them again and again, the moans of the men caught under the falling horses, struck terror in the boy's heart. The incensed warriors cast him from the tribe with the brand of a coward. It is then that his opportunity came to follow the white man's wonderful doctrine.

A Lady and Her Maid. Vitagraph. Featuring Lillian Walker, James Morrison and Norma Talmadge. Naturally, Ophelia is not very handsome. A professional beautifier makes her and Belinda regular heart breakers. A Woman Scorned. Pathe American. When Phil Barton spurns his old sweetheart over a petty jealousy he little suspected she would turn on him so suddenly. She sent him to jail for a crime he never committed, tortured him, after his escape, but made one mistake when she tried to notify the police. Barton's prospective father-in-law was present at the time and through him Phil's name was cleared and he married the girl he loved.

Pastime Theater.
The home of good pictures offers a meritorious program for Sunday's change, the feature being a two reel thriller that speaks for itself.

"The Japanese Dagger." Kleine. Special in two reels. A story teeming with unusual thrills. "Never must I leave this country; evil will befall anyone who carries me away," reads an inscription on a dagger that a naval officer buys. He laughs at the warning, but strangely enough the knife finds its way into the heart of the girl he was to marry.

"Cinderella and the Boob." Biograph. Comedy burlesque. A new version of the old tale of Cinderella. It should make you laugh if there is any laugh in you.

"By Mutual Agreement." Edison. A picture with true comedy vein, with Frank Lyon and May Abby in the leading roles.

"The Hicksville Epicure" Biograph. This story relates how President Purdy stepped in and settled the case. She broke up the constable's little game when he came to sentence the prisoner for life.

Cosy.
Princess Indeta and the five musical Hawaiians in their native songs and dances, is an added attraction at the "House of Features" for Sunday. This company has recently completed an extended engagement over the Pantages circuit, so you may rest assured that this is without question one of the very best musical acts that has ever been in Pendleton. The admission will be 10c and 15c for this "big time" attraction.

Picture program for Sunday only:
"Thus Saith the Lord." Two reels. Eclair. This Biblical story begins with the parable of the wise and foolish virgins and closes with scenes illustrating the Lord's Prayer. The artistic features are many, especially the woodland dances of the foolish virgins. The Lord's Prayer is shown by a series of beautiful tableaux and forms a magnificent closing.

"Animated Weekly No. 64. Baseball, la crosse game, aeroplane flights, horse races and lots of interesting events.

"Aunt Kate's Mistake. Imp. comedy.

GRAND THEATER COMPANY HIGHLY RECOMMENDED

The reopening of the Grand Theatre is announced for tomorrow evening. Testimonials from managers of Ellensburg and North Yakima theatres regarding the Chicago Vandeville company, comprising five ladies and three gentlemen are most flattering. Especial reference has been made by them to Miss Ernestine Diller, mezzo-contralto singer and Miss Violet Draper eminent solo violinist, as high class and meritorious attractions. The prices will remain as usual, 15 and 25 cents.

TAKES HIS LIFE WHEN SURROUNDED BY POSSE

Molson, Wash., June 21.—J. H. Ethel shot himself after holding a posse off for hours. Two deputies, unidentified, were killed before the man wanted on a charge of arson took his own life.
