Woman and Her Varied Interests

Refreshing Summer Drinks.

Sea Foam—Mix the juice of one pineapple and one lemon with four spoonfuls of mint leaves cut into bits and half a cupful of sugar. Beat the whites of four eggs stiff and gradually whip in the fruit juice. Add four cupfuls of carbonated water and serve.

Maple Egg—Beat an egg until foamy. Add two tablespoonfuls of cold maple syrup. Stir in half a cupful of rich milk. Pile whipped cream over the top and sprinkle with crushed maple sugar. Serve with a few green maple leaves on each plate.

Tea Cream—Put two ounces of best tea in a cup and pour over boiling water. Cover and let stand for five minutes. Strain into one quart of boiling cream, cover and after another five minutes strain. Sweeten and chill.

Grape Eggnog—Beat one raw egg very light. Add half a glassful of grape juice and beat again. Then add half a glassful of cream. Beat thoroughly. Add sugar if desired, and serve with dainty wafers.

Banana Float—Mash three bananas with the juice of one lemon and one cupful of sugar. Add gradually to two cupfuls of whipped cream. Put a few spoonfuls of this in a glass and fill up with orange juice.

Heart of the Berry—Crush one quart of berries—any kind of combination. Add one sliced lemon and the juice of an orange and let stand for about three hours. Strain, add sugar, and chill. Serve in glass cups and lay a spray of ripe berries on each plate.

Jelly Jumble—Dissolve a glassful each of blackberry, crabapple and plum jelly in two quarts of boiling water. When cold add the juice of two lemons and sufficient sugar to sweeten.

Egg Orangeade—Beat separately the white and the yolk of an egg.

SHOWING PLEATS AGAIN.

A striking model which will appeal to the woman who desires a reasonable breadth to her skirt, is shown here. This may be made of two materials, such as striped and plain sponge or developed entirely of the one. Plain white linen would be effective made up in this way. The blouse front over which the sides seem to button being in that case of all-over embroidery. The sleeve is slightly full and finished with a double frill of batiste. The front and a portion of the sides of the skirt are plain. The upper portion of the back is also plain, buttoning on the front at the line of the hips. To this is joined the pleated back portion.

SIX HUNDRED ISLANDS FOR FOREST RESERVE
Madison, Wis.—About 600 islands have been added to the forest reserves of Wisconsin, all in the northern part of the state. The islands have been surveyed and the state board of forestry is prepared to lease them exactly as it leases lake shore property. They are not only in the forest reserve, but are in most of the inland lakes in the northern part of the state and vary from a fraction of an acre to 40 acres or more. The yearly rentals range from $10 to over $200. "Many of these islands are beautiful," said State Forester Griffith today, "and frequently have enough timber to provide building material without impairing their beauty in the least. There are nearly 1200 lakes within the forest reserve area and the fact that this wonderful lake region is being built up as a great forest reserve means not only that the beauty and attractiveness of these lakes will always be preserved, but that the forests will be protected and greatly improved, that hundreds of miles of roads, fire lines, trails and telephone lines will be built, and this region will be protected in every way.

MY LADY'S WHITE FROCK.

Almost every woman of moderate means desires at least one white frock, not to elaborate but offering the chance for the use of embroidered edgings or insertions. For such a frock the design is given above. The blouse front is formed of two lengths of embroidery edging or flouncing, the scallops turned toward the shoulder and the lengths joined by a strip of insertion down the front. The collar also is cut from the flouncing as are the turned back cuffs. The skirt has a triple flounce cut from the flouncing. Fine tucks assist in decorating blouse and sleeves.

"The reserves are of course intended for the fullest use and enjoyment of all the people and therefore the state board of forestry has adopted the policy of leasing camp and cottage sites on the lakes and rivers."

CHILD'S PROBLEMS DISCUSSED.

National Children's Home Society Considers Dependency and Delinquency of Minors.

Seattle, Wash., July 1.—With the causes leading to the dependency and delinquency of minors the most important theme of discussion, the National Children's Home Society, of which Washington Gardner, of Albion Michigan, is president, convened here today. Before the meetings are concluded July 5, the social evil in relation to child welfare will be thoroughly gone into. Recent legislation in the west and its relation to child dependency, including the minimum wage, widows' pensions, lazy husbands' act, contributory delinquency, and the red light injunction and abatement law, will be explained to the bride don't prosecute. If anyone is seen by a policeman playfully hitting either bride or bridegroom in the eye with an old shoe; if anyone is seen hurling rice at the couple; or if anyone in the crowd that sees the couple off at the station indulges in more than a quiet kiss or a hearty handshake and is caught, it will be the lockup for the perpetrator. For Mayor Fred N. Tynes and Director of Public Safety W. A. Hutchins, have passed an ordinance prohibiting all the time honored slap-stick stuff that has heretofore accompanied weddings. "Jay towns can put that stuff over," said Mayor Tynes today, "but it won't go here. A man would rather remain single than marry and be subjected to a college hazing stunt."
