BULGARS FACE INVASION BY ROUMANIANS

First Detachment Crosses Danube This Morning—Roumanian Minister Recalled From Sofia.

BULGARIA WANTS PEACE

Greece and Servia Are Expected to Agree to Terms for Armistice—Latest Reports Tell of Fresh Reverses Suffered by Bulgarians—Russia Will Be Arbitrator.

BUCHAREST, July 11.—The invasion of Bulgaria by Roumania's main army began at 11:30 this morning. The first detachment which crossed the Danube landed on the Bulgarian shore at that hour. The Roumanian minister left Sofia early today, turning over the archives to the Italian minister.

LONDON, July 11.—Greece and Servia are expected to agree to an armistice following Bulgaria's action in placing its affairs in the hands of Russia. The latest reports tell of additional Bulgarian reverses, with Servia and Greek forces attacking Guevghell.

MRS. JOHNSON SAYS SON WILL RETURN

CHICAGO, July 11.—Government authorities were told by Mrs. Tina Johnson, mother of Jack, that her son will return to Chicago in October when a decision on his appeal from a year's sentence in jail for white slavery, is expected. She claimed to have received a cablegram from Paris.

RIVA'S MURDERERS UNDER INDICTMENT

HAVANA, July 11.—The supreme court found indictments last night against General Asbert, governor of Havana province and Representative Arias on the charge of homicide, assault with fire arms and resistance to authority. The indicted men, who are held responsible for the killing of General Armando Riva, chief of the Cuban national police were not given the option of bail.

WILL HOLD YOUNG MAN FOR MURDER

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 11.—Promising new and sensational developments, the district attorney declared illegal today the verdict of the coroner's jury finding Alice Crispell, 16, whose body was found floating in Harvey's lake July 5th, was murdered, but failing to fix responsibility for the crime. The prosecutor says he has sufficient evidence on which to hold Herbert Johns, 28, who was arrested a few days ago.

SUNRISE SERVICE OPENS CONVENTION

LOS ANGELES, July 11.—Following the usual sunrise prayer service, which was attended by thousands, the Endeavor Institute of the International Christian Endeavor Society, opened today. Rev. Charles M. Sheldon of Topeka led the service. Departmental work and section meetings again occupied the greater part of the day.

WIDOW ENTITLED TO PENSION IF SHE HAS DEPENDENT CHILDREN

SALEM, Ore., July 11.—The attorney general rendered an opinion today that it does not matter what the amount of a widow's salary is, if she has dependent children and has no other income aside from her wages, she is eligible to the benefits of the widow's pension law.

WOMEN CAUSED DAMAGE ARMED WITH POKERS INTERCEPT THE KING

LIVERPOOL, July 11.—As King George was passing through the streets a delegation of suffragettes attempted to break through the lines to hand the king a petition. The attempt failed. Later women armed with pokers, inaugurated a window smashing campaign.

GOVERNOR WEST TAKES HAND IN STRIKE TROUBLE

PORTLAND, Ore., July 11.—Governor West took a hand in the strike of women at the Oregon Packing company today and visited the factory. Upon hearing one of the strike leaders say they would shut down the factory he mounted a tar barrel and exclaimed: "You have a right to a peaceable gathering; you have a right to free speech, but when you try to close any plant there will be hell to pay, and I won't quit until it's settled if I have to work single handed."

INTERFERES AT PORTLAND SAYS THERE WILL BE "HELL TO PAY" IF STRIKERS ATTEMPT TO CLOSE PLANT OF OREGON PACKING COMPANY WHERE MANY WOMEN HAVE QUIT WORK—ARBITRATION PLANNED.

A NARROW ESCAPE

WASHINGTON, July 11.—The tangle in the house banking committee over currency legislation reached a stage today where it was admitted by many congressmen that the caucus bill on currency reform is the only solution of the problem. Wide differences have arisen between factions of the democratic members of the committee and dictum by the caucus. It is expected, will be forced. A call for a caucus of the house democrats to meet next week will be requested. Representative Glass, in charge of the currency bill, said he expected the bill, approved by the democratic caucus, will be completed at next week's caucus.
