GAME SATURDAY ENDS IN VICTORY FOR W. W.

A brace of two-baggers in the eighth frame from the sticks of Sheely and Lundstrum Saturday broke up what was probably the fastest and cleanest game played in the league this year. By virtue of those two clouts, Walla Walla won the game by a 1 to 0 score.

Peet and Welch, the same two heavies who once before engaged in a sixteen inning battle, fought a pitching duel from the first inning to the last and, save in that eighth, there was nothing to choose between them. Welch allowed four safe ones and Peet five. Welch struck out three while the red topped boy whiffed ten. Both walked one man, neither hit a batter and neither contributed a wild pitch.

Making the game more remarkable is the fact that, despite the one score of the game, there were but four runners left on bases, two Bears and two Bucks. All others who reached first safely, excepting Sheely who made the circuit, fell victims to doubles or were caught out on bases. In the first seven innings but 21 men faced Peet while in the last seven Welch pitched to only 21. The game was played in one hour and twenty minutes, a record breaker.

NORTH YAKIMA IS VICTOR SATURDAY

NORTH YAKIMA, July 21.—While Umpire Starkell's decisions were no worse than usual Saturday, they seemed always to give Boise the worst of it. North Yakima won 7 to 1.

The Braves got three earned runs to none for Boise.
North Yakima scored two in the second on a walk, a hit by a pitched ball a sacrifice and a single.
The Braves got two in the third on a walk, a sacrifice and three singles. Another came over in the fifth on a single, a steal and a single.

Yakima took another in the sixth on an error by Reams, two stolen bases and an error by Blausser who tried to bluff that he thought the winning was over when Starkell had called Ford safe stealing third.

The Braves got one in the eighth on three singles in a row.
Boise got men to first every inning but the last three. Their one score came in the sixth on two walks, and a single.

Woods fanned two and walked four. Kile fanned ten and walked four. The Braves stole second four times and third once. The Irrigators stole second once. The score: R. H. E.

DECISION GOES TO WELSH OVER O'BRIEN

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 21.—"Young Philadelphia Jack O'Brien" for the first time in his brief ring career attempted the 15 round route at Brichouse arena Saturday afternoon against Freddie Welsh, the light-weight champion, and though he failed to lower the colors of the Britisher, he gave him a worthy opponent.

Welsh received the decision at the end of the 15th round from Referee Jimmy Hewitt and the cheers for Welsh indicated that the decision was a popular one.
O'Brien showed all the wonderful speed and elusiveness claimed for him but only in flashes. Most of the time he was too busy hanging on in the clinches to escape the infighting of the British champion to show his speed.

There was very little long range boxing, the boxers coming into clinch after clinch throughout the 15 rounds. When they did stay at a distance though, O'Brien more than held his own and in one round particularly, the tenth, he clearly outfought Welsh.
In the final round, Welsh was on top of O'Brien all the way.
Jack was tired and hung on desperately in every clinch, forcing the referee to pry them apart while Welsh kept on ringing in punches at every opportunity. The gong found them in a clinch.
At the conclusion of the bout neither boxer showed much evidence of the milling.

SOME IMPROVEMENT IN CHINA

PEKING, July 21.—The situation brought about by the rebellion in the southern provinces of China was improved somewhat Friday as regarded from a northern point of view. Fewer soldiers have deserted the government of Provincial President Yuan Shi Kai than had been anticipated. Heavy fighting is reported at Kai Kiang, after a lull following the recent defeat of the southern forces at Hu Chow. The leaders of the southern forces issued a proclamation announcing the appointment as president of the republic of Tsn Chun Heuan, former viceroy of Canton, and Yuan Shi Kai's old enemy. The southern rebels Thursday killed 29 officers who remained loyal to the Peking government.

SUNDAY'S GAME THE WORST YET

Buckaroos Play Like Bunch of Town-iot Kids—Bears Bat at Will, Winning 15-4.

If Saturday's game was the best that has been played in Pendleton, the Sunday fiasco was the worst. The Buckaroos played like a bunch of towniot kids and the Bears wielded the big stick like nine Teddy Roosevelts. The result, a 15 to 4 victory for Walla Walla, could hardly have been otherwise.

The first inning was good and gave promise of a royal battle between the southpaws, Homer Jamieson and Paul Bridger, the latter late of the Boise squad. But in the second the Pendleton support put the pitcher in a hole and the fireworks started, ending in a homerun by Johnson which brought the score for the inning up to four.

In the next and the next there was a repetition and in the fourth there was a shakeup, Osborne going to the slab, Jamieson to first, Lodell retreating and King and Haworth changing positions. The result was the same. Osborne got his bumps too and in the seven Shortstop Augustus was shoved into the box in response to a throaty demand from the grandstand. Only then did the rungetting stop. For the final three innings, he held the slugger Burns to one scratch hit and no scores.

Bridger was master of the situation at all times. He had plenty of stuff and was not striking them out but kept the ball on the ground within easy reach of the infield or high in the air for the outfielders. In the third, a walk, a single by Jamieson and a scratch hit by Naughton gave the Bucks one and in the 7th a pass, a single by Osborne and Varian's homerun gave them the other three.

The big feature of the game was the number of homeruns batted out. Five four-ply swats were clouted, Walla Walla getting four. Martini, who leads the league in the homerun column, added two to his string. In the fourth he hit the ball over center and Haworth never did find it until Marty was on the bench. In the sixth, he swung on one of Osborne's offerings for the longest hit ever seen on the local diamond, the ball traveling over Reid's head into the Round-up padlocks back of the bleachers. In the same inning, Lundstrum made the circuit on a long hit to center. Johnson made a homer in the second and Varian one in the seventh.

N. YAKIMA PLAYS HERE THIS WEEK

After breaking even with their old enemies last week, the Pendleton Buckaroos will engage this week in a six game series with the North Yakima Braves who finished the first half of the season in the cellar but who are starting on the second half in a way that makes them serious contenders for first honors. The series will be played here in Pendleton.
North Yakima has strengthened considerably since her other series here. The acquisition of Fletcher to her pitching staff, Nakase to the outfield and Harrod and Netz to the infield has added much to her strength in the field and at bat, so much in fact that she took four out of six last week from Boise, the league leaders.
Pendleton, on the other hand, is probably weaker than at any time this season. Berger and Peet seem to be the only pitchers able to do creditable work while the sale of Rader will be felt both in the fielding and batting departments. Altogether things do not look propitious for a victorious series.

JAPAN IS NOT YET SATISFIED

International Question Is Said to Have Reached Deadlock—Further Negotiations.

TOKYO, July 21.—Considerable disappointment is felt in Japan in connection with the American reply to the last two Japanese notes on the subject of the California land legislation which does not accept any of the Japanese contentions that the bill violates the Japanese-American treaty and does not offer any suggestion for the solution of the difficulty.
The situation here has reached a deadlock. Japan has not yet decided on her next step but is so desirous of maintaining friendly relations that it is believed she will not adopt retaliatory measures, such as the denunciation of the treaty on the ground that it is useless or the reduction of the right of American citizens in Japan.
The Japanese public has been led by the press to the belief that Washington would afford some relief to the situation and therefore the government's task has been difficult.
The public generally is absorbed in the development of the Chinese situation, in regard to which official advices show that the rebellion in southern China has become grave.

SMOKES OPIUM ON A PULLMAN

Man Is Found in Berth With Complete Outfit—Conductor Confiscates Lay-out.

BAKER, Ore., July 21.—A few evenings ago a No. 5 O.-W. R. & N. train pulled into Baker the fumes of burning opium were detected by the Pullman porter, who notified the conductor, and together they went to a berth occupied by a through passenger and found him smoking opium. Just as they do it in Chinatown. A full outfit, consisting of the long pipe, lamp, tray and all the other accessories, including a tael of opium, were found and confiscated by the conductor.

BAKER CHERRIES MAKE A HIT

Box of Lamberts in Portland Do Much to Advertise Eastern Oregon Product.

BAKER, Ore., July 21.—Baker county's fruit industry received some valuable publicity the past week, when a box of Lambert cherries, raised by Matt Welter at his ranch at Newbridge, Eagle valley, was on exhibition for two days at the Portland Commercial club. The cherries, which were of the highest quality and as fine fruit as produced anywhere, were sent by the Baker Commercial club, and Publicity Manager Meacham returned a letter from Secretary C. C. Chapman stating that the cherries had been the center of attraction and highly commended by the many who observed them.
They were not sufficiently well prepared for processing, according to Mr. Chapman, who says the exhibit certainly turned the eyes of many interested in fruit culture on Baker county. He wants some of the cherries and other Baker county fruit preserved for the Oregon exhibits at the eastern land shows, and Mr. Meacham will prepare the same as requested.

GOLD STRIKE CAUSES RUSH

Miners Hasten to Shushanna River—Rich Placer Deposits Reported Found.

CORDOVA, Alaska, July 21.—Confirmation of reports of a big placer strike on Shushanna river have caused a great stampede among Alaskans to the new diggings. A special train left here with a large number of men aboard and at Chitina extra coaches were coupled on to accommodate the stampede. Men are quitting the copper mines and the railroad to join in the rush. Another train will leave for McCarthy with a large crowd and a special stock car, reservations having already been made for 17 horses.

ENDS PAIN BY SUICIDE

DECATUR, Ala., July 21.—Pinned beneath his overturned locomotive, Huston Fleming, an engineer, put an end to his torture by cutting his own throat late Thursday night, when spectators of his plight refused his request to kill him. Fleming, with Floyd Hamlin, air inspector, was testing a new locomotive in the Louisville & Nashville yards when it was hurled from the tracks by a switch engine and overturned. Hamlin died Friday.

MANY LAMBS SOLD LATELY

Wallowa County Sheepmen Close Deals for 16,000—Animals Bring 4 1-4 Cents Pound.

ENTERPRISE, July 21.—The Record-Chieftein says that more than 16,000 lambs have been sold by Wallowa county sheepmen within the last few days to Samuel Palmer of Denver. He bought coarse wool lambs only, paying 4 1-4 cents a pound. They will be delivered from the first of September to the middle of October and will be shipped from Enterprise, Wallowa and Elgin according to convenience to grazing lands.

Mr. Palmer will feed part of the lambs and will sell part to other feeders in Colorado, at Greeley, Fort Collins and other points. When fattened they will be shipped to the Chicago market. About half of them will be ready for the market when shipped from this county, Mr. Palmer believes. He saw the sheep on the ranges and found them in fine condition.

The sellers at Jay H. Dobbin and Fred W. Falconer, 12,000 lambs; L. C. Johnson, 1,400; J. Ray Johnson, 2,100; Ray E. Vest, 1,275.
Mr. Palmer and Mr. Dobbin went together into the mountains west of the Grande Ronde river to look at the latter band. The buyer came back reporting he had had the most strenuous trip of his life with Mr. Dobbin as his guide, in the roughest country he ever had seen. Mr. Palmer also was at Mr. Dobbin's ranch with which he was completely captivated.

PARACHUTE DROPS --MAN IS KILLED

Francis L. Thayer, An Old Performer, Falls When Contrivance Fails Him in Air.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 21.—Francis L. Thayer, aged 47, a parachute jumper known all over the world, was drowned Saturday while making a parachute descent from the aeroplane as part of the Pottlach air sport.
He went up in an aeroplane with Johnny Bryant. At a height of 600 feet he dropped from the aeroplane and his parachute spread above him and the descent began. At a height of 500 feet he broke loose from the parachute and fell into the water.
Thayer was seen to fall, turning over as he left the parachute. He was fully 500 feet above the water when he fell. The man seemed to realize his danger for he rolled himself into a compact ball as he approached the water, striking on his face and left shoulder.

Wife Witnesses Fatal Accident.

Mrs. Thayer, Mrs. Frank Bennett, wife of the manager of the aeroplane exhibition and Miss McKay, an aviator, were in a launch which was to pick Thayer up and they made all speed toward the spot where he went down but were unable to find any trace of the body.

Johnny Bryant will be remembered in Pendleton, as he and Miss Alys McKay flew here several weeks ago. He also made a flight from this city to Athena and back, delivering copies of the East Oregonian. Bryant is regarded as one of the best aviators in the country.

FIGHTS LONG WITH CURRENT

Enterprise Man Has Exciting Adventure While Forging a Stream—Nearly Drowned.

Jonathan Haas had an experience in the Imnaha river last week that he is not anxious to repeat. He has not come back from the river yet, but C. F. Graves was in a few days and told of the incident says the Enterprise Record-Chieftein.
It seems that Mr. Haas had set out to go up Creek creek. At the mouth of the creek he had to cross the Imnaha to get on the south side where the creek flows in. He was riding one mule and leading another that carried a pack.

The mule Mr. Haas was riding was tender footed. As it was urged into the river it flinched on the rough stones and refused to keep its course straight across. Thus it shortly got into deep water where it had to swim. The rider became alarmed and slid off into the river and struck for the shore. He got hold of overhanging brush and was in a fair way to get out on dry land when the mules, following along behind him crowded in between him and the bank.

This forced Mr. Haas to loosen his hold on the brush and he was carried away on the swift current. The river is high from the melting snow in the mountains and it rushes down the valley in a torrent that no one cares to breast.

The current, however, carried Mr. Haas near the bank a short distance down stream and he again seized a friendly bush that hung over the river. This time the mules did not interfere and he climbed out safe and sound on the bank. He caught his mules and found the chief damage done was a bad scare and a thorough soaking.

WHY THE ENGLISH KEEP THEIR WONDERFUL COMPLEXIONS WITH WHITBREAD

The great doctors of the world will tell you that your blood must be in good condition to give that rosy cheek and that bright eye that every one admires. For over 100 years the great doctors in England have recommended for sleeplessness, anæmia, burning moths and those in a run-down condition the famous Whitbread English Ale or Whitbread Renowned Stout (Malted Extract), because they are made from the finest barley, malt and hops, and being matured in the bottles, contain no artificial gas, making it very easy to digest. Whitbread is absolutely unlike all other English Ales or Stouts. It aids the weakest digestion and makes rich blood. A glass of either the Whitbread Ale or Whitbread Stout (it depends on the taste, which one prefers) with your supper and again at bed time gives that peaceful sleep.

It has brought comfort to thousands of ailing women throughout Europe. The most temperate people keep Whitbread Ale or Stout in their homes, because it is not only a delicious beverage but a wonderful tonic and blood purifier. Doctors, clergymen and professional men drink it to build up their systems and keep them in perfect condition. Do not accept any other English Ale or Stout as a substitute for the famous Whitbread because Whitbread Ale or Whitbread Stout are unlike all others. For sale locally by
